Between 70 and 80 members attended the meeting of the Mizpah class of the First Methodist church which was held at the church parlors yesterday afternoon. A "stunt" party was enjoyed.

Frances Berry, daughter of S. R. Berry of the Southern Pacific, submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Klamath Valley hospital late Wednesday night. Her condition was reported as satisfactory yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith and sons, Ralph and Roy, are visiting in Klamath Falls from their home at Oakland, Calif. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Christy, parents of Mrs. Smith.

William Warren, a former resident, is now visiting in the Klamath Basin city with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Warren have been residing in California on account of poor health.

Met Sullivan arrived in the city late Wednesday evening from the beetle camp north of Beatty, where he has been employed.

Reports yesterday stated that about 10 visitors were present at the meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft held Wednesday night at the L. O. O. F. hall. Several of the visitors were from Penitentiary and Portland, and a large number from Medford and Ashland.

Mrs. Ray Pickett was shopping in Klamath Falls yesterday from her home at Merrill.

Miss Mary Walker of Chiloquin and Mrs. James Grimes of Williamson River motored to the city last night to attend the meeting of the Rebekah lodge. Pins were awarded the Past Masters at this meeting.

Mrs. Bill Paige of Fort Klamath was shopping in the city yesterday.

Among the out of the city members who attended the Rebekah lodge last night was Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsey, who motored over from her home at the Klamath Junction.

Mrs. Marion Barnes was expected to return last night from a fortnight's visit at Portland and Salem with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Dave Liskey and daughter, Maxine, were visitors in Klamath Falls Wednesday from their home near Malibu.

The business and professional women's club will meet Monday evening at the club rooms in the city library at 6:30 for dinner.

Flying his own cabin plane, Wallace Beery, famous movie actor, arrived at the Medford airport early Wednesday afternoon after a three-hour flight from Oakland, Calif., to spend several days along the Rogue river on a fishing trip, the first of several he plans to spend in southern Oregon during this summer. He was accompanied by his co-pilot, George Naves.—Medford Tribune.

A suggested program for the observance of Oregon day, May 2, is being sent out this week by C. A. Howard, state superintendent of public instruction. May 2 has been designated as the date for the Oregon program on the recommendation of the Oregon Historical society. Service clubs and other organizations, as well as the schools, are urged by Superintendent Howard to make use of the program.

season, it is stated, although the house was a sell-out the last time the two met.

Being on the main event is about even now, although a few days ago Cline had the edge. There are plenty of takers for money on either man at the present time, it is stated.

Stevens Experienced Sailor Al Stevens, dressed in the blue and white of the navy, won six-round decision over Ed- with gold braid on his sleeves, arrived last night. He is a main eventer but will meet Billy Broedlove, Bend, in the semi-windup. Broedlove has won his last eight starts here.

Among the battles Sailor Al has fought are: Claude Tate, 12 rounds in the armory in New York city, with Tate taking the decision; a draw with Ritchie King; won decision in six rounds over Mickey Gibbons; won six-round decision over Jimmy Huff; lost a 15-round decision to Ramon Arceana, lightweight champ of South and Central America.

won six-round decision over Ed- die Foley; fought an eight-round draw with Jimmy Ryan in Massachusetts; won a ten-round decision over Young Burmay.

Al in all, Sailor Al has fought 117 fights in the navy, amateur and professional. He is now in charge of the radio station at Point St. George and came here from Eureka.

McCoy vs. Broedlove

Jack McCoy and Jack Broedlove will meet in a six-round special event, which will show McCoy somewhat speedier than Broedlove, but Broedlove has a slight weight advantage to make up for his slower style.

Eddie O'Connor, Seattle, will meet Syd Anderson, Eureka, in a four-round event. Anderson is a semi-windup attraction in the Eureka country. He has kayoed "Dynamite" Hawkins, and "Dynamite" Lemm, and has won decisions over Johnny Mora, Al MacLean, Benny Bennett, and Eddie Klam (twice.)
