Prince of Wales Saves Man's Life

His body swung free and his feet were nearly against the mass of moving machinery when the Prince sprang to his assistance.
 Though the Prince's first effort to swing the foreman out of danger failed, he immediately regained his grip on Guinness' legs and pulled him clear of the machinery.

Bend Prisoners Escape From Jail

A jail break, in which four prisoners escaped from the city jail at Bend, was reported yesterday morning to Keith Ambrose, chief of police.

Chief of Police Thomas A. Reud discovered the break at an early hour, reporting the escape of B. Ankrim, James Jones, Donald Ren and Donald Smith.
 The prisoners cut bars from the cell windows.

"Chief Thomas believes and from the outside was given the prisoners," Keith Ambrose, chief said.

The men made their getaway in a car and were thought to have headed towards Klamath Falls.

 road. The Ankrim ranch is one of the oldest in this section.

Under the judgment and decree the defendants have 30

TASTEFUL LUNCHEON SETS

There are the days when the housewife spends a week looking for a fine linen tablecloth, a set of glassware, a centerpiece, or when a plate of glass or a set of glassware is a domestic tragedy. For all except formal occasions the small family table set down to a table laid with a few dishes or with a centerpiece and individual place cards, and making to match. The setting in linen is considerable as to the original cost and nothing need be sacrificed in the way of attractive appearance.

For everyday use, these cloths are easily made out of four-inch hem which may be used for a few years. The table is covered with a white cloth or with a centerpiece and
 and nothing need be sacrificed in the way of attractive appearance.
