Railroad Men Return to Work

HOUSTON, Texas, Jan. 5, (UP)—More than 200 former Southern Pacific employees returned to work in the Houston shops today. Re-instatement of the men came as a part of a 1931 program which will provide employment of former shopmen at El Paso and other points on the southern system of the railroad. Re-employment gradually will be carried out during the year, with men being put back to work as often as conditions permit, officials announced.
