KLAMATH HI CONFERENCE DARK HORSE

Pelican Forward Out With Flu; 2 Others Injured; Bend Has Veterans

By HOWARD CRAVEN
Klamath High Correspondent

The Pelican cagers are off in a cloud of dust. Scarcely a week after Christmas vacation in which practice was held the basketball team is turning their attention to Bend high. With good new material on hand but only two veterans back from last year, the outlook is none too bright. Klamath, however, has a hard-fighting team and may be the dark horse of the conference.

The league season, as far as the K. U. H. S. is concerned, gets under way at 7:30 Friday night against the Bend quintette in the high school gym. Another game will be held same time, same place, with the Bend aggregation Saturday night.

FIRST DEFENSE
The team has been having a vigorous workout daily since its return to school. Coach "Dutch" French has been drilling the squad here on the fundamentals of both offense and defense. French teaches a fast-breaking offense and a man-for-man defense with the opposing players picked before the game.

Bend plays a five-man set defense and a five-man offense. The Klamath outfit will go into the fray with Bend at a disadvantage because Triplett, star forward, is out with the flu. Wakeman has a wrist and knee injury and Crawford has a bruised leg.

BEND HAS VETERANS
Bend has four lettermen back from last year while Klamath has three including Triplett, from Hood River.

"If Center Ray Allen casts away some of the excess lead and we don't have any more injuries or illness, we will have a good team," quoted Coach French. The coach stated that he was thinking of putting Jack Knight in at center.

PROBABLE LINEUP

The probable starting lineup for Friday night is as follows: Wakeman, f.; Triplett, c.; Parnell, f.; Allen, g.; Knight, c.; Swigert, g.; Crawford, g.

The conference season for the Pelicans follows:

January 9, Bend at Klamath.

January 10, Bend at Klamath.

January 16, Klamath at Medford.

January 23, Klamath at Grants Pass.

January 24, Klamath at Grants Pass.

January 30, Klamath at Ashland.

February 6, Klamath at Bend.

February 7, Klamath at Bend.

February 13, Ashland at Klamath.

February 20, Medford at Klamath.

February 27, Grants Pass at Klamath.

Mickey Walker's Title Revoked In Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7. (UP)—Mickey Walker was deprived of his middleweight boxing title insofar as Pennsylvania was concerned at a meeting of the state athletic commission today.

The fighter was shorn of his championship because "he has failed to defend his title and has shown no inclination to do so."

Len Harvey Is Favored Over Vince Dundee

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (UP)—Len Harvey, European middleweight champion, has been established as an 8 to 5 favorite to defeat Vince Dundee in the foreigner's first American appearance to take place here Friday night. Harvey's record of 200 knockouts scored in 175 fights has influenced the betting.

That new caddy listed only three days. After the caddy master fired him I asked the kid what was wrong. He said, "I could do the work all right but I couldn't learn not to laugh."
