

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Avery, accompanied by Victor Palmer, left Thursday evening for Portland, where Mr. Avery will enter Jones' hospital. Mr. Avery has been in ill health for some time. He is employed at the Klamath office of the United States reclamation service.

Dr. George Adler is expected to return this morning from a business trip to Portland.

Officers and members of the Order of the Eastern Star will meet at the Masonic hall Sunday afternoon at 1:30, in order to attend the funeral of Mrs. A. L. Leavitt.

A clever display of lingerie has been attracting much attention in the window of LaPointe's the past few days. The window represents a grassy backyard, and on a clothesline are hanging an array of undergarments of gorgeous colors and materials. A clothes basket and a few clothespins scattered about lend reality to the scene.

A regular meeting of Aloha chapter, E. O. E., will be held at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening, January 27. The meeting will be followed by a skit to be put on by members of the Hawaiian and Professional Women's club. Visitors are cordially invited to attend.

J. M. Baxter, secretary of the Canadian Legion, which is a branch of the British Empire Legion and an organization of some four million members, was a visitor in Klamath Falls Thursday. He told of plans being made to organize a chapter of the Canadian Legion in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hulet are the parents of an eight pound, six ounce baby son born at the Hillside hospital, Friday evening. Mr. Hulet is employed at the Mecca pool hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clark plan to leave within a short time for a two weeks' motor trip through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaw of Klamath Falls were recent guests at Hotel Del Monte, Del Monte, Calif.

Mrs. E. D. Hartmann is spending a short time in Klamath Falls as a guest at the Wilford hotel. Her home is in Salt Lake City.

A meeting of the Happy Hour club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Jones, 514 Lincoln, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Deal, Medford residents, are guests in the city.

J. C. Reed of the Columbia University, New York, is in Klamath Falls today.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Geare of Colusa, California, are visiting in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kimble of Klamath Falls have returned from a brief Grants Pass visit.

Mrs. Jack Finney has been confined to her home for several days with illness.

The national supervisor of Campfire Girls is planning to make an official visit in Ashland some time next week and a group of the Klamath Falls girls are planning to be in attendance at the meeting and are making plans for the trip. It is possible that the Campfire committee of the Kiwanis club will attend or send a representative with the girls.

Those wishing to make reservations to sit at the Oregon table at the State's Dinner, January 29 in the Methodist church, should call Mrs. Rachel Solomon Good or Mrs. George Newton at 1605 W. Reservations should be made as early as possible.

H. E. Jones of Medford arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday to spend several days here. Mr. Jones motored over and stated that he had no difficulty on the green Springs highway, although it was snowing at the time.

Arthur Fish, state game law enforcement officer, Portland, and Game Warden Roy Parr of Ashland, have returned north after attending the annual duck feed of the Klamath sportsmen's association held here Wednesday.

Mrs. Glen Ferguson of Fort Klamath is spending a few days in Klamath Falls visiting her mother, Mrs. Joe Kinney.

The many friends of H. S. Wood, well known resident of Alameda, will be gratified to hear that he is recovering satisfactorily from a major surgical operation to which he submitted in a San Francisco hospital the early part of this week. Mrs. Wood accompanied her husband to the Bay city and after he is able to leave the hospital they will spend a month or six weeks at the home of their son, Attorney H. Stanley Wood in Oakland.

Ed Robinson of the Klamath Cabinet Shop is confined to his home recuperating from a minor throat operation to which he submitted Thursday evening. His condition yesterday was reported favorably although it will be necessary for him to remain home for some time.

Hubert Totten, David Totten and S. Von Berthelsdorf, Klamath students at the University of Oregon, took part in the formal concert, which was presented last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Potter, formerly of The Dalles, have arrived in Klamath Falls and plan to locate here permanently.

The state board of management of the Oregon society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its January meeting next Saturday at the Benson hotel in Portland. The state conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at Newberg in March.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Abbott of southern California are spending a short time in Klamath Falls and Klamath County looking over business possibilities. Before coming here they stopped in Ashland and plan to return there before going to their home in the south.

A district meeting of managers and salesmen of Safeway stores in Klamath Falls, Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Myrtle Point, Coquille and Marshfield will be held Sunday at Grants Pass in the Del Roque hotel. It is expected that 40 men will attend the meet.

TWO GRANGES ORGANIZED

Bonanza and Bly Join Pomona; Another Is Nearly Formed

Two new granges have been organized in Klamath county during the past few days, and plans are almost complete for the organization of others, according to an announcement made Friday by Arthur Brown of Roseburg, deputy master of the stategrange for the Southern Oregon district.

The latest grange to be organized was at Bonanza Wednesday night, when 21 charter members were initiated. Organization of the Bly grange, with 12 charter members, was effected last week, according to Mr. Brown.

Mrs. B. V. Bradshaw of Beatty, and Deputy Master Brown acted as organizers in the formation of the new granges.

Organization of a Port Klamath grange is well under way, and plans will be completed at a meeting there scheduled for Monday evening, January 26.

Officers in the Bonanza grange were elected as follows:

Master, Earl Brown, overbrook; Henry Schumacher, lecturer; Mrs. Dorothy Evers, steward; Harry Lytle, assistant steward; Chester Evers, chaplain; A. D. Hubbard, treasurer; Henry D. Horn, secretary; Mrs. Lizzie Schumacher, gatekeeper; Carl Henry; Ceres; Mrs. Mary Sparks; Pomona; Mary Dixon; Flora; Mrs. Evadne Schumacher; lady assistant steward; Mrs. Ada Parsons; executive; Richard Dixon; Charles Harvey and H. O. Hamaker.

Officers in the Bly grange are: Master, O. H. Osborn; overbrook, Basil Hall; lecturer, Mrs. Veda Dixon; steward, Gerald Keffler; assistant steward, Frank Oberchain Jr.; chaplain, Mrs. Georgia Caschauer; treasurer, Geo. Boyd; secretary, Mrs. Ora Boyd; gatekeeper, N. T. Garrett; Ceres, Mrs. Nima Keffler; Pomona, Mrs. Ida Richardson; Flora, Mrs. O. H. Osborn; lady assistant steward.

Engineer Dies After Operation In City Hospital

Edgar Allen Hunter, engineer of the Southern Pacific, who made his last run just a few days ago, died at 9:20 a. m. yesterday in a local hospital. His death followed a major operation.

Hunter was born in Washington March 1867, and is survived by his wife, Mary L. Hunter of this city; three sons, Kenneth Jr. of Oakland; T. D. of Oroville and Lee White of San Francisco; a daughter, Mrs. I. C. Stevens of Menford; one brother, Bert Hunter of Sebastopol, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. J. Hartley Crooks of Shastah, Wisconsin.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers and Ashland lodge of Masons.

Remains are in the gold room of the Earl Whitlock funeral home where friends may call. Announcement of funeral arrangements will be made later.
