

CITY BRIEFS

Webb Kennett of Kirkpatrick and Kennett left last evening for San Francisco to spend several days purchasing spring merchandise.

The degree staff and drill team of the Royal Neighbors will not practice Sunday afternoon as was previously announced on account of the ski races. The date of practice will be announced later.

It was announced yesterday by C. M. Biggs, district passenger agent, that in line with the policy of the Southern Pacific, the Main street ticket office will be closed February 23, in observance of Washington's birthday which falls on Sunday this year.

C. H. Foster, traveling agent for the Southern Pacific, spent Friday in Dunsmuir, Calif., on business, from his headquarters here.

Teddy Benton of the Ambassador hotel at San Francisco, left last night for his former home in Hedding, Calif., to spend several days. Mr. Benton will return to Klamath Falls Tuesday. He has been spending a short time here on business.

F. S. Vettle of the Golden West Meat Packing company at Oakland, is again registered at Hotel Willard where he makes his headquarters in Klamath Falls.

C. H. Wallace, traveling auditor for the Southern Pacific, returned to his home at Dunsmuir, Calif., Thursday evening after spending several days here on business.

W. E. Barr who has charge of travelers' insurance company policies in railroad offices was a business visitor in the city Friday. Mr. Barr announced that effective June 1, his headquarters will be moved from Omaha, Neb., to Portland.

Mrs. Ida Grimes left last night for San Francisco where she will spend several days visiting.

Mrs. Eva Bergendorf, proprietor of the Valley hotel, left last night by train on a short business and pleasure trip. She expects to return the fore part of the week.

O. D. Ralph, employee of the W. D. Miller Construction company, is reported as getting along satisfactorily. Ralph was cutting stakes Thursday afternoon when the axe slipped and chopped off his left hand. He is a patient at the Hillside hospital. Mr. Ralph who is well known in this city resides at 302 East Main.

Chester Klock who submitted to a major operation at the Hillside hospital several days ago is reported as recovering satisfactorily.

Dr. Thomas E. Strong, well known physician of San Francisco, passed away suddenly at his home in the southern city Thursday morning. Mrs. Strong is a sister of Henry Joyaux, deputy coroner of this city. Dr. and Mrs. Strong have visited here at the Joyaux home on a number of occasions, and the doctor was well known here. Mr. Joyaux left immediately for the south.

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church held an interesting social gathering and party last evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. A. Theodore Smith and Miss Mary McComb are in charge of the young people and direct all their activities.

Klamath Falls will be well represented at the performance of the Chicago Civic Opera company at the Portland auditorium March 12, 13 and 14. Among those who have purchased tickets so far are Kathryn Marsh, H. D. Woodruff and Nova Howard De Spain.
