

CITY BRIEFS

The Fairhaven P. T. A. will hold the regular afternoon meeting in the school gymnasium, Friday, April 10, at 3 p. m. The officers for the ensuing year will be elected and a program will be given by pupils of the school. A full attendance is requested.

Mrs. P. H. Coker left Monday morning for Corvallis where she will spend this week visiting her daughter, Helen, who is a student at Oregon State college. She plans to remain in the college city until Friday.

Jack Stewart, roadmaster for the Southern Pacific, is visiting here for several days from his headquarters at Alturas, Calif.

Word of the death of Mrs. Anna Hilyard, mother of Mrs. C. W. Miller and of Gus Hilyard, both residents of the Lakeview route, was received Monday morning. Mrs. Hilyard resided in Severy, Kan. Her death terminated a short illness.

Loren Osborne, Elroy Call and Joe Evans with a party of friends spent Sunday visiting a number of the caves in the Lava Beds national park.

Mrs. J. Lawrence Schad is spending several days in Portland where she is visiting at the home of her mother. Mrs. Schad was in the northern city for the Easter week-end.

J. C. Johnston, who has been spending several weeks in San Francisco receiving medical attention, returned to his home in this city Saturday morning.

Miss Winnifred Winnard returned to her home in Portland Sunday evening, after spending the week-end in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. Winnard, and her sister, Mrs. Fred Fleet, at the Fleet home on Alameda avenue.

Members of the University guild will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Dennis on Pine street, at 7:30, it was announced Monday.

On the evening of April 10 a three act comedy entitled "Ace High" will be presented by the senior class of the Chiloquin high school at the Merrill community hall, Merrill. The play promises to be highly entertaining and everyone is urged to attend. The proceeds received are to be donated to the senior class of the Merrill high school.

Misses Leora Repp and Geraldine Troy returned Sunday evening from San Francisco and San Jose where they spent the Easter vacation. Miss Repp has resumed her position as teacher at the Riverside school and Miss Troy as teacher at the Klamath high school.

A regular meeting of Chapter E. P. E. O. Sisterhood, will take place at the home of Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds Tuesday instead of at the home of Mrs. Fred Fleet as formerly announced. The Reynolds home is at 521 North Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson entertained at dinner Easter Sunday. Easter lilies formed the decoration.

tions, and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edmund, Mrs. Ed Propst, Miss Mildred Triplett, Fred Biehn and Lynn Propst.

Another one of the delightful card parties sponsored by the Pelican City Parent-Teachers association will be held in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock this evening. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freit have returned to Klamath Falls after a business and pleasure trip to Medford and Grants Pass. Mr. Freit teaches in Fremont school and Mrs. Freit teaches in Roosevelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Andrew of Portland are spending the Easter holidays with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrew, and family, in Klamath Falls.

Miss Aileen Dyer, school nurse, resumed her position Monday after being confined to her home for a week with influenza.

Many bands of sheep are now moving to the Devil's Garden and Hornsby districts for the lambing season, according to J. E. Haley, of the office of Mounsey and Mounsey. Mr. Haley has been spending several days in the country inspecting sheep. He states that the sheep will be moved to summer range when lambs are four to six weeks old.

Rex Smith, who has been confined to Hillside hospital since early last December from injuries received in an accident at the shipping mill, is reported as improving nicely. For some time after the accident it was feared that Mr. Smith would lose his leg, but careful treatment brought the injured member around all right.

Howard Dilg, formerly of Portland, has accepted a position with the Standard Products company in Klamath Falls. He will be joined in a few days by Mrs. Dilg and two children. They will make their home here.

Mrs. Albert Langer of Dorris, who submitted to a major operation in St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco several weeks ago, is rapidly improving, according to word received here by relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Holloway of the Weyerhaeuser mill are leaving today on a three weeks trip through California. Mr. Holloway is general superintendent of Weyerhaeuser.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Colpono are the parents of an 8 pound daughter, born at the Hillside hospital Saturday night. The Colpono home is at 1624 Division.

Mrs. Lulu Hill, Mrs. W. P. Johnson and Mrs. H. E. Jones have been named hostesses for the Past Noble Grand meeting which will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the hall.

Carl Harding, resident engineer, and C. A. Manthe, general superintendent, local officials of the Great Northern, left Monday morning for Bend to spend the day on business.

Miss Imogene Wilson has returned to her home at Hillside brand after spending the past six months as a student at Oregon State College.

Mrs. Mary Baker of Oakland is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter of Chiloquin. Mrs. Baker formerly resided in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells have returned to Klamath Falls from a motor trip to Crescent City. Mr. Wells is superintendent of city schools.

The condition of Mrs. W. D. Miller, who submitted to a major operation in San Francisco, is improving, according to word received by relatives here.

Miss Mary Walker of the Green Stamp department in Mos's store, spent Easter Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker, in Ashland.

Mrs. Cora E. Barnum, of Ashland, is the guest of Miss Minnie Barnum at the Baldwin hotel.

Mrs. Grace Stewart motored to Ashland and Medford Monday. She will spend a week in the valley cities transacting business.

Among Klamath golf enthusiasts who enjoyed the sport on the Ashland course Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace B. Landreth, Martin Swanson and Lloyd Porter.

Miss Winifred Benton and Mrs. Emma Cole left Sunday for Portland, where they will spend a week.

Mrs. John M. Flynn, Lakeview matron, is spending several days in Klamath Falls.

The regular meeting date of the Oregon Mothers association has been changed from the first Tuesday to the second Tuesday in each month, it was announced Monday. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, March 14, at 2:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harry Sprague in the Audley apartments. Officers request all those interested in this new organization, and all interested in the Oregon Mothers work, to attend. Members are especially urged to be present as many plans for coming projects are to be discussed.

A no hostess meeting of the St. Rita bridge club will be held at 8 o'clock sharp this evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Howard, 335 Pacific Terrace. Each member is asked to bring another lady as her guest.

E. J. Hillier, former dispatcher for the Cascade Division, Seattle, Great Northern railway, is in Klamath Falls temporarily relieving Francis Watters who has been transferred to the train service department.

Miss Leah Parker, physical education teacher at Fremont and her sister, Miss Frances Parker of Ashland, visited in San Francisco and other bay cities over the holidays.

Miss Lillie Darby, music supervisor in the Klamath Falls grade schools, has gone to Spokane where she will attend the Inland Empire Music Conference which takes place there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Brearcliffe have returned from Red Bluff, where they spent the week-end visiting with Mrs. Brearcliffe's parents.

Mervin Wilde has returned to his home at Mallin from the Hillside hospital where he has been a patient for the past week receiving treatment for an infected arm.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Abbott motored to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson and children. The Abbotts returned to Klamath Falls Sunday evening.

Miss Audrey McPherson, Fremont teacher, returned Sunday from Springfield where she spent the holidays visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Ursula Culler, teacher at the Fremont school, visited in Bend with friends over the Easter vacation.

Miss Faye Gordon, accompanied by her mother Mrs. James Gordon, of Port Klamath, visited in Ashland and Medford Sunday.

Albert May, formerly connected with Mos's store, now located at Olympia, Wash., spent a few hours in Klamath Falls Monday morning visiting with friends.

Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg, wife of Dr. Oldenburg, and baby Gene Ray, returned to their home at 315 Jefferson Sunday from the Klamath Valley hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Mickey McCool, of Lakeview, were Easter visitors in this city.

Mrs. W. O. Smith has been called to Medford by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Lull.

Mrs. John Johnston and infant son, John Charles, Jr., have returned to their home on Jefferson from the Hillside hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and sons, Donald and James, returned home Sunday from a ten days motor tour through California. They left Klamath Falls a week ago Thursday and visited in Redding and bay cities before going to San Francisco. From there they motored to San Jose and Santa Clara. Enroute home they visited in Oakland with Mr. and Mrs. Rogers' parents.

Clifford Dunn, prominent Klamath Falls contractor and president of the Rotary club, was removed from the Klamath Valley hospital to his home at 1227 East street Sunday. Mr. Dunn has been in the hospital for the past two weeks recuperating from a serious operation and illness.

Miss Maryellen Bradford, Klamath student at the University of Oregon, has been named treasurer of the A. W. S. organization, according to word received here by her friends. Margaret Cummings, also of this city, is now president of the organization.

Mr. John B. Moore, Jr. has purchased one of the Homedale Garden Tracts and is planning to improve the property at once with a small home. The tract is all irrigated and served with city light and water and was purchased through the office of the Favell-Ulley Realty Co.

Mr. J. L. Soder is the new owner of a small bungalow cottage on Orchard Ave. recently purchased from C. F. O'Loughlin. Mr. Soder plans to move into the house at once. The deal was consummated in the office of the Favell-Ulley Realty Co.

The next meeting of the Klamath Falls Garden club will be held Monday, April 12, it was announced Monday by Mrs. Myra Stewart, president. At this time a further discussion of plans for the coming garden contests will be held.

Donald Vannice, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice, was taken to his home at Third and Pine, Monday from the Klamath Valley hospital where he had been a patient for several weeks following a major operation.

Easter Sunday brought more than the usual joy to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson. An eight pound son was born to them at the Hillside hospital. Mr. Johnson is connected with the Weyerhaeuser mill.

Mrs. Harry Turner of Portland has been called to Klamath Falls by the illness of her niece, Mrs. Joe Swindler, who is suffering from a gunshot wound at Hillside hospital.

Two hundred forty cars, most of them bearing Oregon license plates, were checked at Crater Lake rim Sunday, according to word given out here by Don C. Fisher who was a ranger at the lake over the week-end. There were two checkers at the lake rim and one at Anna Springs camp Sunday. Mr. Fisher reported.

Most of the cars visiting the rim were from Klamath Falls and Medford, although there were a few foreign cars. Although no check for Thursday and Friday was given, it is probable that more than 300 cars have visited the lake since Wednesday, April 1, the opening day. Twenty cars visited the rim April 1, and 25 cars the following Saturday, Mr. Fisher stated.

An Oregon mist covered the lake Sunday, making it impossible to see clearly, but the visitors enjoyed winter sports, many of them skiing along the soft snow. There are still between 8 and 9 feet of snow at the rim.

SCOTTISH RITE ORGANIZE HERE

Easter Breakfast Held; Addresses Made By Past Officers

With Maundy Thursday and Easter Sunday ceremonies brought successfully to a close, Scottish Rite Masonry in Klamath county assembled at a well appointed Easter breakfast in the Hotel Willard banquet hall and took up the matter of a permanent Scottish Rite organization in Klamath county.

The organization of such a body has long been the hope and aim of local members of that ancient Rite and their efforts Sunday resulted in the successful organization of the Klamath Scottish Rite club.

At the Easter breakfast addresses were made by Wise Master Walter H. Jones of Siskiyou Chapter Rose Croix, who presided; J. Oppert, Past Venerable Master of Key West Lodge of Perfection, Key West, Florida; T. R. Gillenwaters, secretary and A. L. Anderson, orator Cascade Chapter Rose Croix, Butte, Mont. and others.

With organization completed the following officers were elected: A. L. Anderson, 32°, president; Jas. Baker, 32°, vice-president; T. R. Gillenwaters, 32°, secretary-treasurer.

All Scottish Rite Masons in Klamath county and vicinity are invited to join the Klamath Scottish Rite Club and are asked to file their names and addresses with the secretary.

Batterymen Get Quarterly Pay At Monday Drill

In the neighborhood of $2500 was distributed last night to members of Battery D, 249th Coast Artillery, local unit of the Oregon National Guard. Pay is enjoyed every three months by this unit, whose members drill an hour and a half each week. Battery D, having a strength of 74 enlisted men and three officers, is the highest paid unit in the state of Oregon.

Intensive training is now under way preparing the men in the battery for their annual camp trip. Camp training will be held again this year at Fort Stevens.

240 Cars Visit Crater Lake on Sunday, Is Foggy

Two hundred forty cars, most of them bearing Oregon license plates, were checked at Crater Lake rim Sunday, according to word given out here by Don C. Fisher who was a ranger at the lake over the week-end. There were two checkers at the lake rim and one at Anna Springs camp Sunday. Mr. Fisher reported.

Most of the cars visiting the rim were from Klamath Falls and Medford, although there were a few foreign cars. Although no check for Thursday and Friday was given, it is probable that more than 300 cars have visited the lake since Wednesday, April 1, the opening day. Twenty cars visited the rim April 1, and 25 cars the following Saturday, Mr. Fisher stated.

An Oregon mist covered the lake Sunday, making it impossible to see clearly, but the visitors enjoyed winter sports, many of them skiing along the soft snow. There are still between 8 and 9 feet of snow at the rim.

Make Vocational Guidance Talks

W. W. Southwell, accountant; Howard Perrin, architect, and R. H. Cook, photographer, were speakers at the high school vocational guidance program yesterday afternoon. Each speaker had a large class of students interested in his phase of work. The vocational guidance program is being carried on at the high school this year under the direction of the Klamath Falls Kiwanis club.

There are especially manufactured fountain pens for those who write left-handed.

Howard R. Perrin Designs and Plans

INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS

205-207 Underwood Bldg. Phone 350-J

LIPTON'S
ORANGE PEKOE AND PEKOE
Not simply ORANGE PEKOE and PEKOE—but the CHOICEST!
All sizes... Costs No More

Marion Davies

Crashes through with a load of laughs in

THE BACHELOR FATHER

Her daddy was a bachelor—and she won her way into his heart!

Merry Marion's happiest hit! Upstairs, richly human! Something new in comedy situations!

It enjoyed a sensational run at the Belasco Theatre in New York. It is already the most talked of picture of the year!

New Reduced Prices!

RAINBOW

NOW

Marie Dressler

— in —

"LET US BE GAY"

with

Norma Shearer

The Most Important Picture ever Produced

Raoul Walsh's The BIG TRAIL

A moving and inspiring romance of the union of East and West—graphically and dramatically depicting the hardships of daring men, women and children...battling and overcoming sand deserts, perilous mountains, roadless country, savages, beasts, sand storms, tornadoes, deluges of rain, fever, sickness...deprived of water, food...wandering, praying, hoping...for the valley of their dreams...

Vividly Enacted on Fox Movietone by a Cast of 20,000 including JOHN WAYNE, MARGUERITE CHURCHILL, EL BRENDEN, Tully Marshall • Tyrone Power • David Rollins

Pelican
STARTING TODAY

A Noteworthy SALE

Of 150 New Spring Dresses In 3 Groups

Group 1	Group 2	Group 3
$9.90	$13.95	$21.75

Contains New Dresses of printed crepe, plain flat crepe, and jacket suits. Dresses that sell regularly up to $16.75.

Contains Street and Afternoon Dresses of printed crepe, flat crepe, silk suits and lace. Values up to $22.50.

Contains several of our better Dresses in afternoon and street models.

This is not a Special Purchase but every Dress is taken from our regular stock and Reduced for this sale. All sizes 14 to 44.

This Sale for Wed. Thurs. & Fri. Only

Clifton's