

ROLPH BUDGET TO BE PASSED

California Prepares to Spend $265,841,591 in Biennium

SACRAMENTO, April 20 (UP)—A rejuvenated state budget providing for the expenditure of $265,841,591 during the next biennium tonight appeared assured of passage in the senate.

Governor Rolph's administration won a signal victory when, by a vote of 21 to 14, the upper house approved a minority report of the senate finance committee which reduces the original budget by only $169,400, instead of $551,000 as recommended by the majority of the finance committee.

The acceptable reductions take $149,000 from the division of finance and $30,000 from the fund to print sponsors' pamphlets. An amendment giving Lieutenant Frank F. Merriam, Long Beach, $600 for clerical expenses during legislative sessions, was added.

In approving the minority report, the senate refused recommended reductions which would have taken $310,000 from the University of California's appropriation; $588,424 for anti-trust salary increase of state employees, and various other sums from state institutions.

A number of committee members, voting originally for the reductions, changed when it was pointed out that the proposed slash of the salary increase fund would affect only those employees receiving $135 a month or less.

OFFICIAL TO RECEIVE PAY

fixed salary, the council may prescribe additional duties and give extra pay. Various other cases, as stated in McQuillin's Municipal Corporations, stress the idea of extra pay for extra work.

"In all of the Oregon cases directly upon this point, the general rule seems to be as stated above, that, for extra services a public official is entitled to extra compensation, so, in the present case, if a councilman performs services that he is not obligated to perform, and which are outside of his duties as a councilman, and can be classed as extra services, he is entitled to receive compensation therefor."

An opinion on the matter was requested due to the fact that Councilman Van Camp had received extra compensation for services performed in connection with the cleaning and landscaping of Linkville cemetery.

STREET IMPROVEMENT

A petition from property owners for the improvement of Main street east of the canal bridge to the city limits was referred to the street committee for investigation. Preliminary money to the amount of $200 was presented with the petition.

MAY OPEN UPHAM

Councilman Van Camp brought up the subject of opening Upham street and stated that owners of two small buildings which now obstruct the street agreed to move them for $1200, or for $1000 if the city moved the buildings. It was the opinion of Van Camp and other members of the council that this price is too high, but it was pointed out by Councilman Vannice that the street which parallels one side of the cemetery must be opened.

The city attorney was authorized to investigate and determine the necessary legal steps for removal of the buildings.

ORDER HYDRANTS

Following a recommendation from E. A. Taylor, fire chief, that several new fire hydrants be installed at sites where the present hydrants are considered obsolete, the police judge was instructed to inform the California-Oregon Power company to install the hydrants as soon as possible.

ORDINANCE FOR SIGNS

An ordinance was passed to second reading authorizing the mayor and police judge to enter into a contract with the Miles Sign company for furnishing 100 new street signs at $2.50 a sign.

LIABLE FOR WALKS

A report from the city attorney concerning the liability of a city for the condition of sidewalks stated that the city has the power to repair defects in streets

Maguire Out of Local Hospital, Driscoll Freed

F. L. (Mickey) Maguire, local taxi driver, who was seriously injured in a fight Wednesday night, has been discharged from the Klamath Valley hospital, where he was taken after the battle smoke had died away.

For a time it was feared that Maguire was fatally injured, but he rallied, and although he is still under a physician's care, he is recovering rapidly, according to reports.

Michael Driscoll, who was held in the county jail, in connection with the fight was released Monday. Driscoll was arrested after officers had carried on an investigation of the affair. He admitted having fought with Maguire, whom he said started the fight over money.

In a statement taken from Maguire before he was discharged from the hospital, he admitted that he started the fight, but denied money was involved.

Mills P.-T. A. Will Supply School Lunches

To make it possible for undernourished children of the Mills school to have hot lunches at noon the Mills-Parent Teachers association has been carrying on a program of benefit card parties and entertainments during the year to provide ingredients for the lunches. It is now necessary for them to give up the program and to sponsor a carnival in order to make up the deficit in their treasury and to meet their debts.

They plan in the future to serve milk to the students at noon in place of the hot lunches.

The work was carried on for many months with the result that the association is badly in debt and must find some way of raising money.

In order to carry on their work and to pay their debt the P. T. A. is sponsoring a carnival at the school Friday evening, April 24, beginning at 7:30 and lasting as long as the crowd will remain.

Rev. T. Davis Preston, pastor of the Congregational church, Mills addition, is directing a play which will be the main feature of the carnival. Parents and teachers of the school will participate and will be kept busy this week making preparations for the carnival.

Anyone having carnival material which they will donate is asked to call Mrs. W. T. Dean, 2024J, before Friday.

Mrs. Dean, president of the association, stated Monday that it was absolutely necessary to provide milk for at least 40 students of the school since their parents were unable to provide them with even the simplest kind of lunches.

Dobrusky Will Plead To Charge Today In Court

R. C. Dobrusky, former cashier of the Malin State Bank, was arraigned in circuit court Monday on the fourth indictment brought against him by the Klamath county grand jury. The charge read on March 24 by the grand jury as a secret indictment and is for the forgery of endorsement.

Dobrusky was recently returned from Denver, Colo., to face three indictments, charged him with larceny by embezzlement, false entries on books or reports, and forgery of endorsement. He was later released on bail of $1,000 for each count.

Scout Program Tonight at Mills Addition School

A program for the parents and friends of Boy Scouts will be given this evening at 8 o'clock at the Mills school auditorium.

Scoutmaster J. H. Adamson of troop 4 of the Community Congregational church announced last night.

All scouts and the public is invited to attend the program which will be free. Paul Schnur will speak and a play will be presented by boys of the scout troop. Members of the cast include Bert and Burl Bagley, Jimmy and Raymond

To File Suit For Recovery Of Insurance

PORTLAND, April 20. (UP)—Suit to recover on a $10,000 accident and life insurance policy written by the Commercial Casualty Insurance company of Newark, N. J., for Charles Y. Wigfall, 41, Portland attorney, will be filed in circuit court here Tuesday. It was said today by W. W. McCredie.

McCredie was associated with Wigfall in the practice of law. He declared that it was his belief that Wigfall was murdered, although a coroner's jury held that Wigfall shot himself. McCredie and other friends of Wigfall said that there was "considerable evidence" to support the theory that he was murdered by a hitch hiker in a holdup.

McCredie's wife, Mrs. Alice H. McCredie, is sole beneficiary under the policy, which was taken out less than a month before Wigfall met death.

CAMEL CONTEST WINNERS soon to be announced

Entries in the Camel cigarette $50,000 prize contest were received so fast that it was more than a week after the close of the contest before all the mail could be opened. In this pile were more than 500,000 letters awaiting reading by the judges and their staff.

What keeps a cake fresh and moist?

It's the millions of tiny bubbles released by cream of tartar in your cake batter. The cream of tartar should be in your baking powder.

Instead of the tiny bubbles, sometimes you find big bubbles in the batter. That makes big air holes. No wonder the cake dries out quickly. These big bubbles come from using substitutes for cream of tartar in a baking powder. Oh yes, such a baking powder costs less, but what are a few cents a year to keep your baked foods fresh?

Ask any dietitian, any domestic science teacher.

It is expected the judges in the $50,000 Camel Cigarette Prize Contest will be able to render their decision within a short time and that public announcement of the prize winners can be made soon.

At this time the officers and directors of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company wish to thank the nearly a million men and women for their interest in entering this contest. We wish to assure you also, most emphatically, that every single letter received, despite the enormity of the task, is being carefully read and studied.

It is because of the extreme care being taken to insure the absolute fairness of this contest that we ask you to be patient just a little longer.

Smoke a fresh cigarette

If you haven't tried Camels since the introduction of the new Humidor Pack, switch to this famous brand for just one day, then quit them, if you can.

An air-sealed wrapping of moisture-proof Cellophane keeps Camels always in factory-fresh condition. It keeps dust and germs out and all the flavor and natural moisture in.

No stale, dried out tobacco in Camels to sting the tongue or burn the throat. All the joys of choicest Turkish and mellowest Domestic tobaccos, in fresh, prime condition.
