

Golden Bear Changes Policy

Open Solicitation of High School Athletes Demanded by Varsity Men. Policy Praised by California President. Klamath Opens Against Ashland.

The University of California, making known its aim through a subtle announcement coming directly from the "Big C" club, has opened the way for an active and vigorous athletic policy, the proselyting of high school athletes. This policy of solicitation among the prep school youths has been a frequent cause for controversy up and down the Pacific coast. No school has escaped the "condemnation" charge of proselyting, but no school has wholly refrained from the practice.

California has excellent reason to cajole athletes to the Berkeley campus, for the Golden Bear teams have been unfortunately mediocre since last years of the late Andy Smith. Nibs Price, succeeding Smith, failed miserably in his attempts to carry on the era of "wonder teams." "Navy Bill" Ingram, following Price, has done nothing remarkable, and Bill Ingleson has not brought to the line of its former glory.

This "Big C" club, an organization composed strictly of California varsity men, has acted honestly in the matter of proselyting youngsters from the high school, although the situation is not brought to the front. There can be no doubt that method would be the most admirable.

This is what the athletic society considered. "The society believes success in college athletics should go hand in hand with worthy standards. It is interested in keeping the athletic traditions of the university on a high plane."

"We propose, therefore, to appoint a representative of this society whose business it shall be to present to secondary school boys interested in sports the appeal of California as a place of clean athletics and high scholastic standards."

"We do not want athletes who are not also students, nor do we wish anyone to come to California for athletics alone." They followed the strategy of the school's administration in accepting the announcement. Fred A. T. Robert, Gornard Sproul made this comment:

"I shall prefer, of course, that athletes should come to the university without any solicitation whatever, even on the basis of the superior educational advantages we have to offer. The fact is, however, that high school stars are seldom, if ever, permitted to select a college or university on any such basis."

"In these circumstances, the program of the Big C society shows the merit of being open and above board, with an executive who will be known and who may be held responsible for his acts."

These statements, of course, include a lot of nonsense not pertinent to the situation. California only wants its athletes and it is willing to start the ball rolling to remove deception and replace it with open dealings between university and athletic candidates.

"Frisco" Edwards, succeeding in establishing himself as the leader of Klamath Falls baseball activities by reason of experience and interest, will bring the newly formed Klamath Pelicans against Ashland here next week in the opening game of the Southern Oregon league. Edwards does not know yet whether the game will be played at the fair grounds or Medford field.

But the important thing is that Klamath Falls is back in baseball. The hit and miss organization of amateur and semi-pro teams in the last few years has mutilated all interest in the sport. The only shame of an organization has followed the American Legion Junior baseball teams.

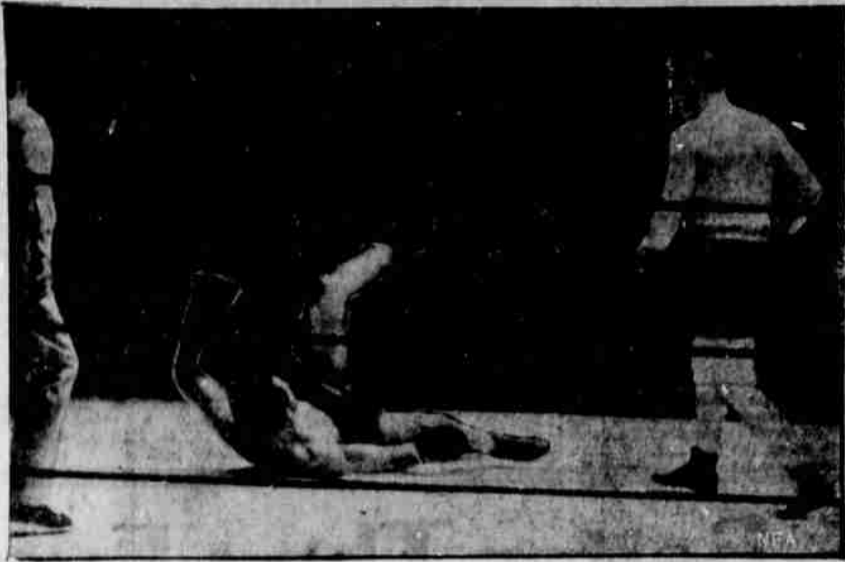

Edwards, not yet considering what profits can be made for the league, has directed his entire attention toward building a championship. He is convinced his Pelicans will finish first or second in this first year of the league's formation.

Four Fighters Set for Fights At Legion Hall

Four featured fighters on Mack Lillard's Legion hall card night will finish a week of training Thursday. Lillard, confidant of the most sensational program of the year, has made arrangements to take care of a record attendance.

Herb White, young lightweight from Medford, was ready for his return match against the Klamath negro, Young Jack Wills, winning by a knockout last week, was favored to repeat.

As McLarnin Walloped Corbett to Win Welter Title!

It took Jimmy McLarnin just two minutes and 37 seconds to win the world's welterweight crown from Young Corbett III in their scheduled 10-round championship fight at Wrigley field in Los Angeles. McLarnin, of Vancouver, knocked out the champion in the first round after sending him to the canvas for the nine count a few seconds previously. Photo shows Young Corbett on his back as McLarnin backs into a neutral corner.

PELICANS TRIM SHAW-BERTRAM

Edwards' Boys Capture Second Game From Lumbermen.

The Klamath Pelicans, powerful baseball combination built up by Frisco Edwards, made it two straight over the Shaw-Bertram team at the fair grounds Tuesday afternoon. The Pelicans won 12 to 10, in a game full of errors and loose play.

The contest, witnessed by more than 200 fans, was a direct contrast to the perfect game of the week before. Lefty Molatore, once subbing the Shaw-Bertram boys without allowing a single run or a hit, was almost knocked out of the box Tuesday.

The young southpaw was given poor support in the field, but held up by Edwards behind the plate, managed to struggle through nine innings to a victory. Shaw-Bertram lost the game in the first two innings, when an epidemic of errors permitted the Pelicans to chase across seven runs.

Harry Bray of Shaw-Bertram cracked out a home run at his first trip to the plate in the opening inning.

The score was 10 to 1 for the Pelicans at the start of the sixth, but evening the following rallies failed to bring Shaw-Bertram to the front.

The summary: R. H. E. Klamath Pelicans—15 11 9 Shaw-Bertram—10 13 10 Molatore and Edwards; Cleek, Gilman and Hanks.

Chiloquin Beats East Klamath

The East Klamath Improvement club lost a close game to the Chiloquin Tomahawks at the South Sixth street diamond Tuesday, 19 to 7. A large crowd witnessed the contest.

The summary: R. H. E. E. Klamath—7 10 Chiloquin—10 8 Schultz, Newton and Boyd; Brown; V. Wilson and L. Wilson; Kirk.

Free-for-all Follows Game Between Yankees, Senators

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer

The struggle between the New York Yankees and Washington Senators in the American league may develop into one of baseball's classic rivalries if the teams play a few more close games.

Visiting the capital for the first time since April 25, when the rival teams engaged in a free-for-all on the field, the Yankees came out with a 3-2 victory Tuesday but it was only after much argument and a bit of pop bottle dodging that they won and even then the game was protested.

The trouble started when Ben Chapman, one of the leading figures in the April Donnybrook, went to bat for the first time against the erstwhile fistic rival, Earl Whitehill. The fans boomed and the pitcher rubbed his hand in the dirt and then on the ball and an argument arose when Umpire "Brick" Owens tossed the ball out. Then a couple of bottles were heaved towards Chapman as he went into the outfield.

Things settled down to a peaceable duel between Whitehill and Russell Van Atta until the eighth when hungry Lou Gehrig belted one over the fence close to the foul line and Umpire Owens ruled it was a homer that put the Yanks ahead. The dispute raged for ten minutes before Manager Joe Cronin decided to finish the game under protest. And after a ninth inning tally had won for New York, Clark Griffith, owner of the Senators, entered a formal protest on the grounds that Owens had refused to consult with Roy Van Graflan, who was stationed along the first base line.

The second game of the holiday doubleheader was rained out and the single defeat left Washington with a precarious hold on second place. The Philadelphia Athletics, only American league team to win both halves of a double bill, wound up only

Merrill Boxers Ready for Card Thursday Night

Tony O'Dell and Pat McFadden, completing their training over the Memorial Day holiday, marked time in preparation for their main event encounter at the Merrill Community hall Thursday night. McFadden, considering his recent victory over O'Dell, loomed as a prospective winner.

O'Dell, known in Klamath county as a winner, will fight Thursday night to put down any rumors that he might be slipping. His loss to McFadden was his first here in several months.

A newcomer in the Klamath pugilistic profession, Grant Snow will test his ability against a veteran, Steamboat Jackson. These light heavyweights will go on in the six-round semi-windup. The preliminaries will be as follows:

Russell Howard vs. George Butts.

Ernie Enders vs. Frankie Nelson.

Mickey Flynn vs. Jimmy Compagne.

ANNUAL LADDER TOURNAMENT STARTS

The annual ladder tournament of the Klamath Falls Tennis club started this week and a position board posted at the Service Electric and Sporting Goods store. Tournaments for both men and women have been arranged.

Club officials have announced that all players must report the result of their matches to the board. Each player will be permitted to challenge two placed above his own position.

Results of the most recent matches in the women's section were: D. Derby defeated M. Cole 2-6, 7-5, 6-1; E. Driscoll defeated K. Gaylord 6-4, 6-0; M. Rugh defeated P. Dixon 10-8, 6-1.

All dues in the ladder tournament and for membership in the club must be paid to Harold Robertson.

Ohio law requires all persons served with beer must be seated, but customers seem to be willing to stand for it.

BEAVERS BOW TO ANGEL NINE

Visitors Go On Spree In Two Fatal Innings; Herrmann On

By United Press

Scoring heavy in two innings Los Angeles defeated the league leading Portland club Wednesday 9 to 6. The Angels scored four times in the second inning and added four more runs in the eighth to clinch the contest.

Herrmann went the full route for the Angels while Portland sent in four hurlers—Koupol, Cohen, Boone and Jacobs—to the mound in a vain attempt to stop the slugging visitors.

Sacs Beat Reds

Piling up a six-run lead in the first four innings the Sacramento Senators easily defeated Mission Reds 7 to 3. Led by Borzagaray, the Senators pounded out 15 hits. The Sacramento outfielder hit safely four times in five times at bat.

"Buz" Wetzel stopped the Oakland Oaks with nine scattered hits to lead Hollywood to a 7 to 0 victory. The win brought the Stars a step nearer the leading Ducks.

The scores: R. H. E. Los Angeles—9 14 3 Portland—6 10 4 Herrmann and McCullen; Koupol, Cohen, Boone, Jacobs and Palmisano.

R. H. E. Oakland—4 9 1 Hollywood—7 10 5 Joiner, McEvoy, Fieber and Veitman; Wetzel and Summers.

R. H. E. Sacramento—7 12 1 Missions—3 12 3 Bryan and Wirtz; Cole and Fitzpatrick.

250,000 Witness Hyperion's Win In English Race

EPSON DOWNS, Eng., May 31. (AP)—Lord Derby's Hyperion, the second choice at 100 to 11, today won the 160th running of the English Derby before a crowd of 250,000, including the King and Queen.

King Salmon, carrying the silks of Sir Cuffie-Owen was second and Victor Emanuel's American owned Statesman third. Twenty-four ran.

Hyperion, ridden by Tommy Weston, gave Lord Derby his third victory in the event founded by his ancestors in 1780. The last time he won was in 1924 when Sansovino carried the famous silks to victory.

The winner is by Gainsborough out of Silve.
