

Interesting Pictorial Highlights from Here and There

GIDDAP THERE, MOTOR!

Astride special wooden steeds equipped with outboard motors, the boys of the Metedeconk Club, Lakewood, N. J., recently met a team from Ventnor City, N. J., in a snappy chucker of polo. A fall means a bath and the players may change to bathing suits before long.

Painting Brings Protests of Women

This painting, called "Daughters of Revolution," has created a storm of protest in Cedar Rapids, Ia., where members of the Daughters of the American Revolution have demanded it be removed from an art gallery. The painting is by Grant Wood, foremost Iowa painter, resident of Cedar Rapids.

Heads Morgan Power Group

George M. Howard, above, is head of the United Corporation, utilities holding company organized by J. P. Morgan and Co., and studied by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee. Howard, who has a yearly salary of $75,000, was a witness in the Morgan hearing.

"Finger Woman" in Jelke Case

Here's the "finger woman" in the Jelke divorce case, Mrs. Louise Blies, who is said to have led private detectives of wealthy F. Frasier Jelke to Mrs. Ethel Hartman. Mrs. Hartman testified that after accepting $5,250 from the oleo magnate, she had refused to participate in what she called "the framing of a good woman." Mrs. Blies is shown leaving court at Newport, R. I.

Mother Fights to See Slain Son

Rivalling the perpetrators of Chicago's "St. Valentine's Day massacre" for brutality, gunmen invaded a cafe in New York and opened fire at a dozen cardplayers, killing Charles Dominico, 22, and wounding four others. This photo, taken a few moments after the raid, shows Mrs. Camille Dominico fighting her way through the crowd to view her son's body. Police could give no motive for the crime.

When Western Tracksters Swept I. C. A. A. A.

Western athletes fared exceedingly well in the I. C. A. A. A. meet at Boston, with Southern California taking first place and Stanford second. Above, Les Ball, Trojan, winning a 100-yard trial heat. He placed second in finale. Left, Jimmy Luyale, U. C. L. A., who won a sensational victory in the 400-meter event, with Blackman, Stanford, second. Right, John Lyman, Stanford shotputter, who took this event, his heave of 52 feet 3 inches being an I. C. A. A. A. mark, and an unofficial record.

Leads Convicts In Kansas Break

Murderer of three men, Wilbur Underhill, above, is one of 11 convicts hunted in Oklahoma after their break from the Kansas penitentiary. Underhill, one of the ring leaders, abducted the warden and two guards as hostages. The picture was taken when Underhill was wounded and captured after breaking Oklahoma's penitentiary.

Directs Hunt For Convicts

Lacey M. Simpson, above, is the new warden of Kansas state penitentiary. He succeeds Kirk Prather who was abducted by 11 fleeing convicts on his last day in office. Warden Simpson is aiding in the hunt for the felons.

Roosevelt's Kin Joins Picket Line

Here's a new Roosevelt demand for a new deal—Mrs. Nicholas G. Roosevelt (right), sister-in-law of Henry L. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and distant kin of the President, picketing with strikers before a Philadelphia clothing factory. The factory has held out against an agreement between manufacturers and the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. Mrs. Anna Gelsinger, union organizer, is holding the banner.

Put-Put-Put—BANG!

The cameraman was right on the spot when this speeding motorboat went out of control in a race at Venice, Calif., crashed against the bank and exploded. Al Thompson, indicated by the arrow, at the wheel of the craft, somehow escaped injury.

Hunts Son of Slain Widow

Charles Raab, above, detective in charge of juvenile work in Flint, Mich., has provided clues through which Duff MacDonald is hunted as the murderer of his wealthy, widowed mother, Mrs. Grace MacDonald. Young MacDonald is missing with his chum, William Terwilliger.

Sentenced to Die in Chair

Mrs. Mary Daeb, above, is the first woman to be sentenced to die in the electric chair in Texas. She confessed to the murder of a hired man on her farm near LaGrange, Texas. She is 32, a widow, mother of three children.

Bang Go Two More Tank Marks!

Jim Gillula, University of Southern California freshman swimmer, not only set a new world mark when he traveled 500 meters in 6 minutes 19.1 seconds, but he set a national record in the 500-yard course. His mark, 5:45.2, betters Johnny Weismuller's 11-year-old mark by 2 seconds.

New Tunnel Gives New Yosemite Park Vista

Completion of a tunnel on the new Wawona road entrance to Yosemite National Park not only gives easier access to this wonderland from Fresno and Merced, Calif., but gives this new view of the floor of the valley, El Capitan, Half Dome, Cloud Rest, the Three Graces, Bridal Veil Falls and other scenic points are easily seen. An historical Pageant of Progress will be held June 10 at the eastern portal of the tunnel to celebrate the new entrance.

Campus Wife's Death Probed

The mysterious death of Mrs. Alene Lamson, above, wife of a Leland Stanford University official, is being investigated by police who questioned her husband. Lamson said he discovered his wife's body in the bathtub of their campus home. A head wound had caused her death.