

Max Baer Dempsey's Favorite

Ex-Champion Selects G. L. Hembree to Beat Schmeling. Hulton Photo. Roland Warren to Referee Friday's Mat Program.

Jack Dempsey, the man who lifted Max Baer out of the play boy stage and turned him into the most promising heavyweight candidate in years, confidently expects his protegee to make an end to Max Schmeling of Germany. There is a recent roll of fat about the old mauler's middle, but he still can pick his fighting men.

"Yes, sir," Jack told newspaper men at New York recently. "If I were a fighting man again and I had my choice of opponents I'd certainly take Schmeling—he looks easier to me."

"This cock-eyed Baer, is something I can't correctly figure. Not even Baer himself knows what he is going to do next. But he can fight. One blow from his right hand and the work is done."

That makes the score even for the selection of the Dempsey-Schmeling winner. Dempsey looks to the Californian and William Bracher, NEA sporting editor, knows the German will triumph.

Every man in Klamath Falls who has had even the slightest interest in athletics knows well the name of William Muldoon. But few have heard the story of the colorful life of the sportsman, who died at New York Saturday, was the exemplar of all that was good in athletics.

The course of Muldoon's life was shaped when he was but 15 years old. As a boy he enlisted in the Union army and fought through the Civil war. Later he served on the New York police force and became an exponent of physical perfection. He amassed a fair-sized fortune conditioning and rebuilding the bodies of business, financial and political leaders.

Muldoon himself was a magnificent constructed man. Back in the '90s he captured the wrestling title when the game gloried in its scientific accomplishments. Those were the days when wrestling had not yet acquired its football tendencies.

He quit the wrestling profession to go on to a particular there he became a particular friend of the Barrymores. He trained the infant Ethel Barrymore while her parents waited and while he himself waited in the wings for his cue.

The mighty John L. Sullivan feared this man Muldoon more than he feared any living athlete. Muldoon, as Sullivan's trainer, was the only man who could make this ferocious champion persevere in the routine of conditioning.

Muldoon's relations with Sullivan are famous. A good, husky baseball bat was the method he used in coaching the heavyweight boxing champion to take his morning hike. "If you'll drop that club I'll knock your head off," Sullivan once roared. Big Muldoon tossed aside the bat, grappled the giant from Boston and in a moment had him helpless on the floor.

A bitterness developed between the men, but when Sullivan died Muldoon was one of his most sincere mourners.

Muldoon was eccentric in the things he disliked. He was a violent foe of tobacco and no man dared to smoke in his presence. Through his demands smoking was barred from Madison Square Garden, and once, it is reported, he angrily knocked a cigar from a friend's lips when his rule had been disobeyed.

Muldoon was an admirable figure in the professional athletic world of America and it still may be many years before his influence passes.

Roland Warren, the only real wrestler who makes his home in Klamath Falls, will work at the Legion hall next week as a referee. It will be the first time the growing number of wrestling fans will have seen this Copco engineer appear in the ring in any capacity other than a wrestler.

He'll have a difficult job inasmuch as it will be heavier than he will have to keep on the straight and narrow path.

Five matches remain to be played in the first round of the President's Cup tournament of the Reames Golf and Country club. First rounds were expected to be completed Sunday, and will be finished within the next two or three days.

Few matches of the ladder tournament were played Sunday because of play-offs for the President's cup. Following the completion of the cup tournament, a large number of the ladder matches are expected to be completed, according to Sam Coul, chairman of the tournament committee.

Almost 9,000,000 women were employed in the United States in 1920; in 1930 that number had increased to 11,000,000.

KLAMATH WINS FROM MEDFORD

Netmen Progress Unde-feated in Inter-City Play

The Klamath Falls Tennis club, undefeated in inter-city tournaments this year, added Medford to its series of conquests on the Klamath courts Sunday. Klamath won eight matches and lost five.

Robertson took his singles contest from Carter Boggs in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2. His driving and placements were the outstanding contributions to the day's play.

Rugh, playing No. 2, lost a bitter three-set match to Deneil of Medford. Rugh captured the first set 6-2, and then lost the following two.

Dent Wins
Jack Dent, playing a steady game, defeated Pruitt of Medford in straight sets, 9-7, 7-5. Merriman lost a bitter three-set match to Wilson, 9-7, 8-10 and 3-6. Massey's sharpshooting smothered Gale in two straight.

Conclusions of the ninth week's play saw Portland still driving towards a second straight Coast league pennant, a game ahead of the close-packing Hollywood Stars and Sacramento Senators.

The Beavers took two of three week-end clashes and the series from Los Angeles, 5-3. Joe Bowman held the Angels to six hits for 6-1 win Saturday, and Rudy Kallio bested Win Ballou 3-2 in a 13-inning duel in yesterday's opener for his sixth consecutive victory.

Missions Falter
After smashing their way into the first division, the Missions failed to lose all three of their week-end games with Sacramento and the series, 6-2. The Solons won Saturday, 9-6, and captured both ends of yesterday's double-header, 15-10 and 7-5.

After dropping the Saturday game, 9-5, Hollywood came back to win yesterday 12-5 and take the series from Oakland, 6-2.

The second half of yesterday's double-header was postponed because of rain. With his mates getting three homers and nine other blows, Archie Campbell had an easy time winning the Sunday game. Jacobs, Tobin, Carville all hit for the circuit, as did Lavagette of the Oaks.

Northside Boys Capture Surprise Victory Sunday

The Northside American Legion Junior baseball team defeated the Southside team Sunday in the only league game of the day by a score of 17 to 1, at Modoc field.

Both the Altamont-Chiloquin and Keno-Mallin games were postponed.

The Southside team has been considered the strong team of the league, having several members of the district championship team of last year.

The pitching of Howie, left-handed Northside welder, was one of the high features of the game. He allowed only three hits. Pastiera and Deering, pitchers of the Southside, were unable to hold the opposing team under control.

Musselman, center field, and Adkins, shortstop for the Northside, displayed brilliant field work. The entire team hit well.

Southside Oregon Results:
Klamath Falls 9, Ashland 2.
Medford 10, Roseburg 7.
Coquille 8, Eagle Point 2.

The Klamath Pelicans, playing their first league game of the season, went into a tie for the leadership of the Southern Oregon circuit on Modoc field. The Pelicans, headed by Frisco Edwards, playing manager, halted the powerful Ashland Town team, 9 to 2.

Several hundred fans saw this introduction of organized baseball into Klamath Falls.

Molatore In Form
Lefty Molatore, that young man who already this season has pitched a no-hit, no-run contest, held the valley outfit to five scattered blows. Three of these hits were accumulated in the seventh inning after the Pelicans were practically assured of victory.

The Pelicans, going into the lead in the first inning, were never headed or tied. They scored one in the first, three in the fourth, four in the sixth and another in the eighth. Ashland scored one run in the seventh and another in the eighth.

Woods, Pelican third baseman, cracked out a home run, in the sixth inning to score two men ahead of him.
