

California Opposes Split

Visitors in Klamath Falls Express Dislike for Rumor of Divided Conference. Lakeview Challenges Pelicans

Herbert Dana, commissioner for the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate conference, and the three athletic officials dividing themselves between Stanford University and Southern California—all of them passed through Klamath Falls Tuesday—consider particularly remote schools of the southern and northern division should split.

They viewed the suggestion with the typically California attitude: "The northern schools will find themselves better taken care of if the conference is maintained at its present status."

This, however, is not the sentiment in the northwest. Of all the schools in the northern division, Washington alone appears set upon present in a division such as there is in basketball, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Idaho, Montana, and the host of smaller schools in this region which might become applicants for positions in a major northwest conference favor the proposal.

There is little in favor of maintaining the conference as it now stands. But there is everything in favor of a split.

These are times of difficulty in the average college and university. This suggests will make it a fight to carry on efficiently through the 1933 season, and the northwest schools have the unfortunate prospect of going into the south once more not for victory and financial profit but for defeat.

Oregon and Oregon State, for example, might succeed, in drawing a satisfactory purse from a California game. But the certainty of overwhelming defeat immediately reduces attendance and interest in the northern games a few weeks later in the season.

Washington State college, consistently placing a powerful team on the field under the dynamic and tooth-grinding Mr. Babe Hollingberry, has been the only northern team to attain a coast conference championship since the days of Enoch Bagshaw at Washington.

A northern division conference would give the northwest teams a championship to fight for, it would stimulate the football activities in the northwest as it did the basketball, and in no way interfere with the scheduling of games with California teams.

Forrest E. Cooper, secretary of the Lake county chamber of commerce, willingly will wager 1,000 of Lake county's famous antelope and the Lake county courthouse against two live pelicans and a couple of ducks in a championship fight for it would stimulate the football activities in the northwest as it did the basketball, and in no way interfere with the scheduling of games with California teams.

The actual fighting was confined to a brief battle between Jerome and Dixie of the Cards and Parzy Derringer of the Reds during batting practice but before the game was over, disputed decisions led to the ejection of two men, two pop bottles were tossed from the stands, one hitting Burgess Whitehead, Card sub, on the shoulder, and private police provided an escort from the park for the umpires.

The Cards won the game, 6-2, pounding out 16 hits while Bill Halahan and Sylvester Johnson limited the Reds to four, and remained only five points behind the league leading New York Giants.

SEATTLE SUDS GET NEW LIFE

George Burns Turns Tail-End Team Into Coast Surprise

(By The Associated Press) Just how Manager George Burns has made a winning club of his Seattle Indians no one seems to know, but that he is evident from the results.

Deep in the league's lower regions three weeks ago, the Indians took a new lease on life and since then have played better than 500 baseball. Showing across five runs in the eighth inning Tuesday the Burns' men beat the second-place Hollywood Stars 7-6 for their twelfth victory in 21 starts.

Burns Aids Victors The scrappy Seattle manager had a part in that winning rally, working a double squeeze along with Homer Summa to score on Coscarelli's bunt. Singles by Frank Cox, Mel Almada and Chick Ellsworth brought in the final three Indian tallies. Burns contributed four singles to the Seattle attack. Herman Blatts went the route for the winner.

Los Angeles jumped on Herb Saunders, Sacramento rookie, in the tenth inning at the Sacramento capital to capture the series opener, 8-4. Believing Tom Flynn at the beginning of the eighth, Saunders held the Angels scoreless for two innings and then willed to let in four runs in the extra inning. Buck Newsom struck out nine Senators in the 9-2-3 inning; he pitched and received credit for the victory. Forr Camilli homered for the Senators.

Ducks-Seals Delayed Jimmy Zinn, San Francisco veteran, welcomed the Oaks home to Emeryville with five-hit hurling that cost them the series opener with the Seals, 3-1. Roy Jolter hurried evenly for Oakland and was responsible for only one of the three San Francisco scores. Harlin Pool's four-bagger in the ninth spoiled a shut-out for Zinn.

Tuesday night's Portland-Missions game in San Francisco was postponed until Saturday when the lights went off.

Stormy Scenes Enliven Game Between Cardinals and Reds

(By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer) The stormy scenes of this year's "aggressive" baseball, hitherto monopolized by the New York Yankees and Washington Senators, have reached the National League as an accompaniment to the St. Louis Cardinals' drive toward the top.

Some stiff resistance by the Cincinnati Reds, plus the "riding the life" out of him by a former teammate led the Cards into an embroiled Tuesday that approached the best of the Senator-Yankee scraps.

Two Ejected The actual fighting was confined to a brief battle between Jerome and Dixie of the Cards and Parzy Derringer of the Reds during batting practice but before the game was over, disputed decisions led to the ejection of two men, two pop bottles were tossed from the stands, one hitting Burgess Whitehead, Card sub, on the shoulder, and private police provided an escort from the park for the umpires.

LILLARD RESUMES WRESTLING CARDS

Mack Lillard, Klamath promoter, will resume his campaign to establish wrestling in Klamath Falls with an all-heavyweight program at the Legion hall, Friday. The card, Lillard said, will be the first of a series leading up to the introduction of some of the most prominent heavy-weight stars in the country.

The Klamath promoter is confident he will be able to bring in Gus Sonnenberg, one of the leading contenders for the title. Harry Demetral, Seattle, has been matched against Ray Frisbie, Medford, in the main event. Frisbie was on the first heavy-weight card and drew in a sensational bout with Pete Belcastro. Both men weigh over 200 pounds.

Pete Belcastro, Sacramento, will meet Herman Olson, Seattle, in the half-hour preliminary. Roland Warren, wrestling-engineer, will referee the matches.

GERMAN READY FOR BAER BOUT

Year's Greatest Fight Will Be Staged in N. Y. Thursday

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, June 7. (AP)—For the first time since he arrived in this country, perhaps for the first time in his career, Max Schmeling is being asked to give away chunks of weight to a young, tough rival, Max Baer, and on his success in solving that problem in the Yankee Stadium tomorrow night rests his chance of becoming the heavyweight champion in history to regain the title.

For if he whips the brawny Californian decisively in Jack Dempsey's first New York promotional venture, few experts doubt his ability to "take" either the aging Jack Sharkey or the mammoth Primo Carnera, who will meet for the title in Madison Square Garden's outdoor bowl in Long Island City June 29.

Even those ringworms who believe the 2 1/2 to odds or better in Schmeling's favor are justified, agree that in Baer the German will be facing his stiffest test. The 214-pound Livermore, Calif., youngster has made tremendous progress in the last two years and his great strength and stamina, coupled with surprising speed in so big a man, make him a formidable foe for any heavyweight in the business.

The contention has become general that whatever the outcome of the 15-round tussle, Baer and Schmeling offer a "natural" that will bring close to 60,000 fans into the big ball park.

Both fighters have completed training for the match and are waiting for the signal to swing into action. Baer left his Atlantic City camp for a private home in New York today but Schmeling planned to remain at Lake Swannanoa, N. J., until tomorrow, arriving in New York just before the weighing-in at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

A steady stream of customers filing past the box office windows strengthened Dempsey's expectations of a crowd of 60,000 and receipts of nearly $300,000 granting favorable weather.

Workmen, operating under Dempsey's supervision, were busily engaged in setting up the ring and arranging the seats to day and all was to be in readiness by nightfall. The gates will be thrown open at 3 p. m. (E. S. T.) Thursday afternoon.

The first preliminary was scheduled for 7 p. m. (E. S. T.) and the main bout between 8:30 and 9 p. m. There will be no broadcast.

The Giants held their slim lead by battering the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-2, touching Owen Carroll for four runs in the second inning. The Pittsburgh Pirates dropped their sixth decision in seven games when Leon Chapman gave the Chicago Cubs four runs in the eighth and a 5-3 victory. The Phillies and Boston had an open date.

The Philadelphia Athletics climbed back into the first division with an 8-4 triumph over Washington as home runs by Ed Coleman and Mickey Cochrane produced three runs in the seventh.

Herb Penneck gave 11 hits but pitched a shutout and Babe Ruth took the major league home run with his eleventh. The Yankees strengthened their hold on first place with a double victory over the Boston Red Sox, 4-0 and 8-4.

Chicago's White Sox hammered out another decision over the St. Louis Browns, 5-3, and Cleveland fell into fifth place when the Indians surrendered to "Schoolboy" Rowe and Detroit, 5-2.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7 (AP)—Taking two straight falls, one of them on a foul, Wong Hock Cheung, Chicago Chinese, won the main event of last night's wrestling matches here from Abe Kaplan of New York. Cheung weighed 214 pounds and Kaplan, 219.

The Chinese was given the first fall in 25 minutes when Kaplan dropped him with an uppercut to the jaw and the referee called it a foul. Cheung took the second and deciding fall in 10 minutes with a Manchurian choke hold.

Richard Stahl, 218, Berlin, won the five-round semi-windup from Nore Jerstrom, 215, Chicago, getting one fall. Larry Bennett, 171, Portland, and Helnie Olson, 172, Portland, went three rounds to a draw in the preliminary.

Klamath All-Stars To Play Mill Nine The Klamath All-Stars will play the Shaw-Bertram baseball team at Medoc field Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A great battle is expected by followers of the two clubs, as the game is an acceptance of a challenge issued a short time ago.

Both teams have strong pitching staffs.

In L. A. Contest Frank L. Shaw, who is running for mayor of Los Angeles in opposition to the incumbent, John G. Porter.
