COOKING SCHOOL COMES TO CLOSE

A new regime of attractive, simple and inexpensive meals in Klamath homes will be the result of The Evening Herald and Klamath News' cooking school which drew to a close Friday afternoon under the direction of Hester Heath, famous home economist.

Delectable as a strawberry parfait, herself, Miss Heath in a charming pink house frock presided over her stage kitchen at the Pelican theatre before the largest audience of housewives ever gathered at a Klamath Falls cooking school.

Norge refrigerators, Graybar-Crawford and L. & H. ranges were featured by Miss Heath in her Friday afternoon program, during which she illustrated the preparation of deliciously simple one-dish meals.

Miss Heath completed her menus with a luscious chocolate cake, strawberry parfait, and a refreshing recipe for summer's favorite drink, ice tea.

The cooking school has proved the most popular ever held in this city, and for three afternoons the Pelican theatre has been thronged with eager housewives who wished to learn to keep a "happy kitchen."

Quota Of Men In 3 Forestry Camps

ALTURAS, Calif.—A quota of 147 men under the command of Lieut. Munson arrived at the Hackamore camp on the Modoc national forest, Monday, and 35 local men 18 to 25, representing Modoc county's share of the state quota, were sent out from different local points the same day.

This makes three of the Conservation Corps camps in Modoc county with a full quota of men. Crane Creek camp near Willow Ranch, Hackamore camp on the main Klamath Falls-Alturas line of the Southern Pacific and Long Bell camp near Glass Mountain.

Panama's navy consists of only one "ship o' war," a steam yacht manned by two caretakers.

LAKEVIEW FINANCE IN GOOD CONDITION

LAKEVIEW, Ore.—The city of Lakeview is perhaps in the best financial condition of any city in Oregon at this time, according to the monthly report of A. J. Swift, city treasurer, submitted at the monthly meeting of the city council.

There are no warrants of any kind outstanding at this time. Tax delinquencies are about 10 per cent. Sinking funds are available with which to retire about 25 per cent of the bonded indebtedness of the city. This will be done within the next three years.

The city has purchased several thousand dollars worth of its own bonds at a price considerably below par from parties who were forced to liquidate their securities.

Fort Grange Will Present Program

FORT KLAMATH, Ore.—Twenty-eight members and three visitors attended the regular business meeting of the Fort Klamath grange, Tuesday evening, in the C. I. clubhouse, with all officers present with the exception of Ceres, Pamela, Flora and the musician.

During the business session it was reported that a committee had arranged for a program to be presented at the Midland grange meeting on June 23rd, when the local drill team and a crowd of other grange members will attend the Midland meeting. Owing to the failure of Sergeant Carl Cook of Klamath Falls to appear as scheduled to present his talk on traffic rules and regulations affecting drivers' licenses, the lecturer had prepared no other program, and at the close of the business on hand, a pleasant social hour was enjoyed with delicious refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferguson.
