

CITY BRIEFS

I Saw—

The most beautiful crop of dandelions going to seed in the court house lawn, while up on Third street, a block away an old lady was industriously digging this weed out of her lawn.

Why not put a few of the county prisoners to work, instead of letting the seeds from this obnoxious weed, scatter over the lawn of residents who take pride in keeping their lawn beautiful? —L. C.

FAMOUS ORCHESTRA COMES TO KLAMATH

Ted Fio-Rito, whose educated fingers picked out the notes for such popular songs as "Laugh Clown, Laugh," "King for a Day," "Charlie My Boy," "Three on a Match" and "Poor Marietta," will appear on the stage of the Pelican theatre, Wednesday evening, June 14, with his famous Hotel St. Francis orchestra, and company of radio and screen personalities, features of the MJB and Magic Carpet hours.

Of particular note among Fio-Rito's artists of music and song, is Miss Betty Grable, formerly a famous player with Wheeler and Woolsey and lately appearing with Barbara Stanwyck and Frank Fay in "Tattle Tales." Other notable entertainers of this company are Lief Erickson, Bill Carey and Muzzy Marcellino. This appearance in Klamath Falls is made possible by a special arrangement between H. W. Poole and the Home Corporation of America, and promises a very unusual and elaborate musical treat.

Women must learn to be independent. In the past they have been dependent on men, but the day of gold-digging is over.—Dr. Stuart A. Curtis, education consultant of Detroit public schools.

June Marriage Is Solemnized At Walker Home.

One of the prettiest of the early June weddings was solemnized Sunday, June 4, when Elaine Walker became the bride of Vernon Hughey at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Walker, 430 High street, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. B. Sigle, pastor of the First Baptist church.

As Mr. Milam and Mrs. George O. Welch sang the wedding music, the groom and his attendant, Mr. Mitchell, his brother-in-law, took their place in front of the minister.

At the same time, the bride, beautifully gowned in pastel pink, and carrying a shower bouquet of white baby gladioli and lilies of the valley, came to meet the groom upon the arm of her father, Mrs. Bryan Hawkins, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor.

After the marriage ceremony, the bride cut the wedding cake, and the wedding supper was served.

The rooms of the Walker home were decorated with roses and carnations.

Both the bride and groom are popular members of the younger set of Klamath Falls, where they will make their home in the McCarthy apartments.

SALES TAX TALK GIVEN AT B. P. E. W.

An interesting and well-attended talk on the proposed sales tax for Oregon, which will be voted upon at the July special election, was given by Mr. Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, at the meeting of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club, Monday evening, at the library club rooms.

Reports of the state convention of the Oregon Federation of B. and P. W. held at Eugene in May, when Mrs. Leda E. Parker was elected president of the state federation, were presented by the delegates—Mrs. Anne Early, Mrs. Isabel Brixner, Mrs. Dena Backes, Miss Ethelwynne O'Flaherty.

Isabel Brixner presided at the short business meeting after the dinner hour, in the absence of Miss Etta Farr, who has left for Seattle for the summer months.

The Malin Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church had as a special guest of the last Sunday evening meeting Harold Van Duker, Klamath-Lake Christian Endeavor Union president, who spoke on the April convention.

He was also in Malin on union business and conferred with union officers who reside in Malin.

A Japanese arrangement of flowers in vases made by members of the Japanese colony in Medford was another attractive feature of the flower show, and a fine exhibit of wild flowers from the Siskiyou mountains and lower altitudes aroused a great deal of interest.

An exhibit of miniature gardens entered by a group of children was a unique feature of the evening which particularly interested the local visitors.

Sweepstakes prizes were taken by a perfect "Tallman" rose of a clear yellow color.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCollum, (Mayle Warfield) bride and groom of the past week, were honored with a miscellaneous shower late this week at their new home on Cypress street when twenty employees of the Klamath Falls post office called to honor the newly married couple.
