

Dempsey May Head Garden

Rising Promoter Center of Boxing Activities in New York. Ex-Champion Visits Jack Sharkey's Training Camp.

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., June 15. (AP)—Jack Dempsey paid a social call today at Gus Wilson's training camp, where Jack Sharkey is training for his defense of the heavyweight boxing championship against Primo Carnera, June 29.

That's all it was, apparently—just a social call.

But the Sharkey Carnera bout is being staged by Madison Square Garden, and Dempsey is a rival promoter.

So the visit revived rumors of a shake-up in the New York boxing situation. Reports that Dempsey and the Garden would get together have been current for some time.

Dempsey refused to commit himself on the reason for his visit.

"Just a visit," he said. "That is all. I just wanted to see Sharkey in action again."

"Did you talk with Sharkey about defending his title for you in September?"

"Oh, we talked about that a long time ago. But September is a good piece off."

Here are some of the rumors heard where boxing men gather:

- 1—William Francis Carey has resigned as president of Madison Square Garden, to take effect after the Sharkey-Carnera fight.
- 2—The Garden is trying to shelve Jimmy Johnston, its boxing manager.
- 3—Dempsey and the Garden will join forces on a percentage basis in promoting the Sharkey-Carnera show June 29.
- 4—Johnston has broken with his once staunch friend and supporter Jimmy Johnston, boxing manager.
- 5—Dempsey and the Garden will give up boxing entirely.
- 6—Dempsey will become president of Madison Square Garden.

The last rumor is the most difficult to believe. It would be reasonable to suppose that the Garden would "cut" Dempsey into a show because of the drawing power he has. But the presidency of the Garden corporation is a job for a hard-headed business man.

Nor does it seem likely that the Garden would be able to get rid of Johnston. James J. Corbett is supposed to have a contract even a Houdini couldn't crack. He knew, when the Garden hired him, that he was being taken into the fold solely to remove the competition he was offering.

Assuming that Johnston and the Garden do part company, and that Dempsey and the Garden do not come to any formal agreement, it's easily possible that the New York field would contain three outdoor boxing promotional forces.

In such a case, the Garden would show at its best in Long Island City. Dempsey would show at the uptown lake parks, and Johnston at Elmhurst in Brooklyn or at the Queensboro stadium.

Whatever is in the cards, it's plain that a deal is being brewed between the Garden and Dempsey. He paid a visit to Carnera at Pompton Lakes on Monday. Garden publicity material is jammed with references to the great William Harrison Dempsey.

SONNENBERG WINS PORTLAND MATCH

PORTLAND, Ore., June 15. (AP)—Taking two falls out of three, Gus Sonnenberg of Boston defeated Wong Bock Cheung, Chinese, in the main event of last night's wrestling matches here. Sonnenberg weighed 290 pounds and Cheung, 212.

The Boston grappler won the first fall in 15 minutes with a crotch and half nelson. The Chinese evaded the match 7 minutes later with a Manchurian choke. Sonnenberg took the deciding fall in 17 minutes with a flying tackle followed by another crotch and half nelson.
