Editorials —on the— Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

PRICES, as you have read repeatedly in this column and elsewhere in this newspaper, are going up steadily—partly as a result of inflation and partly as a result of changing conditions of supply and demand.

That, as this writer sees it, is a hopeful sign. Prices have been far too low—below the cost of production in most cases. That means operation at a loss, and we can't have prosperity when business is operating at a loss.

IF PRICES keep on going up without being FOLLOWED UP by wages, here is what will happen: It will take more of the pay check to buy what people have to have—the necessities of life.

There is no other way to have prosperity. IF PRICES keep on going up without being FOLLOWED UP by wages, here is what will happen:

It will take more of the pay check to buy what people have to have—the necessities of life. So, you see, instead of having more to spend for the comforts and the luxuries of life, they will have LESS TO SPEND.

Pittman's Plan for Rehabilitation of Silver Accorded Support

LONDON, June 20. (AP)—High French quarters said tonight that a proposal to adjourn the world economic conference would be brought before the conference steering committee tomorrow if there were no clearer indications that stabilization of the dollar could be effected.

Included on the steering committee are Secretary of State Cordell Hull and James M. Cox of the United States delegation and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain of Great Britain.

LONDON, June 20. (AP)—Senator Key Pittman's monetary resolution, the main purpose of which is the rehabilitation of silver, was the dominant issue before the world economic conference today and received such support that both Secretary of State Cordell Hull and the senator later declared they were very much encouraged.

In connection with the discussion of this important resolution, the American representatives made two vital points definitely clear.

That the resolution not only has the approval of the American delegation but "meets with the approval of the president of the United States."

Lost Man's Body Found in Remote Place in Valley

The body of Bill Shine, sheepherder employed by Morris Quinlan of Langell Valley, was found in a wild, rocky country near Langell Valley Tuesday by Earl Brown of Malin, who came across the body while looking for strayed sheep.

An investigation was made by the coroner and sheriff. It showed that Shine had been ill for about three days prior to June 15, and that on that day he decided he would go to his brother's home in Malin to seek medical aid. He turned down an offer of a horse and set out on foot. He had gone but three miles, and indications are that he became exhausted and lay down and that he died the same day he set out.

"The indications are that the man had pneumonia," said Dr. George Adler, county coroner, "because exhausted and died from the burden placed upon his heart."

Railroads Asked To Delay Slashes In Labor's Wages

WASHINGTON, June 20. (AP)—Railroad management today rejected a suggestion from administrative sources that proposed wage reductions be postponed.

Joseph B. Eastman, co-ordinator of transportation, conferred in an unofficial capacity this morning with the management committee of the carriers which is handling a proposal for a permanent reduction of 2 1/2 per cent in railroad wages.

Meeting Satisfactory

At the close of the conference Eastman indicated he has suggested to the railroad managers that the issue be postponed.

"The course of events," he said, "will depend on subsequent developments. He had a most satisfactory conference, and there probably will be more meetings."

"The wage situation was discussed from the management viewpoint. One of the questions considered was whether there should be a postponement of the issue. At this time, no information is possible as to what will occur."

MEDFORD, June 20. (UP)—Lee Hugg, son-in-law of Mayor Walter Jones, on trial for alleged ballot theft, denied late today testimony by state witnesses implicating Jones in the hold courthouse robbery.

Hugg testified that Wesley McKittrick, J. A. Ladieu and Virgil Edington did not come to the Jones home at Rogue River with a carload of ballots the night of the robbery. He also denied talking to Deputy Sheriff Phil Lowd about seeing the officer's car there. The state asserts Ladieu borrowed Lowd's car to carry stolen ballots in.

LUMBER WAITS FOR ACTION ON RECOVERY LAW

Three Companies, However, Put Men Back to Work in Local Mills

2200 Workmen Employed On Present Low Production Scale Here

Lumbering in Klamath county, including sawmills, box factories, planing mills and woods work, is marking time awaiting the outcome of action expected which might vitally concern operations in the industrial recovery act.

A survey Tuesday morning showed the majority of Klamath operators in an uncertain condition as to the extensiveness of summer operations. Practically all are running enough to care for current orders. A very few seemed unconcerned as to future restrictions and are moving along in the best way present financial conditions will permit.

Changes Effected

Three major changes in operations will be noticed this week. Tuesday morning the Pelican Bay Lumber company started sawmill work, putting men of the mill back to work, who have been unemployed since a short run which lasted only for a few days the latter part of April.

The Ivory Pine company, operating at the present with 29 men and one shift, expects to start another shift in the sawmill during the week. The present shift is running on a 10-hour basis.

The Ewansa Box company cut a shift in the planing mill Monday morning to six hours and put another crew of about 25 men to work on a second six-hour shift. Two six-hour crews are also operating in the sawmill and one crew shift in the box factory with a total employment of between 450 and 500 men.

2200 Employed

With the mills and factories running "on the fence," a rough estimate of approximately 2,200 men are employed at the present.

The Big Lakes Box factory is operating one nine-hour shift in the sawmill and one eight-hour shift in the box factory. A total of 240 men are employed in the (Continued on Page Eight)

LOS ANGELES, June 20. (UP) Plump Oliver Hardy, screen comedian, late today filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Myrtle Lee Hardy, accusing her of absenting herself from home for long periods and then returning intoxicated.

The rotund comedian claimed that he had forgiven his wife too many times for her alleged conduct upon her promise to "behave." The promises, Hardy claimed, were not kept.

Mrs. Hardy's mode of conduct, the actor complained, was detrimental to his motion picture career.

Recovery Program Czar Promises Action To Put Millions Back On Job

By THOMAS L. STOKES United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 20. (UP) Promising in a 2 1/2 hour action, Brigadier General Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of President Roosevelt's recovery program, expressed belief that it would put "several million men back to work this summer."

"The main idea is to get the people back to work," Johnson declared.

"There has been too much promising and too little performing throughout this depression," he told newspaper men in outlining his objectives in the gigantic tasks.

Idea Unprecedented

He described it as something "that has never been done before, any time, any place, so far as I know."

Swinging his legs from a table and gesturing forcefully, the former army officer pledged the whole influence of the government to bring about higher wages, shorter working hours and order in industry. He will depend upon the psychology of patriotism that won the war.

He announced a "truce" would be sought among industries to prevent expansion and to prohibit new industries which would retard the program by increasing production beyond set levels.

The general objective in the administrator's industrial control plan is a 34-hour week, though this may vary in certain localities and for some industries. It will be somewhat flexible. The first "code" submitted, that of the cotton textile industry, proposed a 40-hour week.

The wage proposed in the various "codes" must provide a "decent standard of living in the locality where the workers reside," he declared.

Hunt for Missing Flier Switches to Silverton Woods

PORTLAND, June 20. (UP) Search for William Young, missing Portland Airways pilot, shifted late today to heavily wooded section near Silverton.

Permission to use three planes from the 321st Observation Squadron, stationed at Vancouver, Wash., was given today.

By WEBB MILLER United Press Staff Correspondent

In an exclusive interview with the United Press, Baron von Neurath declared that the Nazi government at Berlin intends to maintain a strictly "hands off" policy with regard to Austria's suppression of the party within her borders. He insisted that Austria's action could be regarded as a domestic political affair, and added significantly:

"We do not think of interfering in Austrian matters. For one thing, it is doubtful whether Chancellor Dollfus there will be the strong man and hold his office very long. In fact, I don't think he will."

Senator Predicts Dollar for Wheat

NEW YORK, June 20. (AP)—Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas looks for dollar wheat by the end of 1933.

Cheerfulness about the future was the keynote of an interview given yesterday by the republican senator, a veteran in the fight for remedial farm legislation.

He said commodity prices should continue to rise, thus increasing employment and wages. Wheat that sold at 30 cents a bushel last year at this time now sells around 60 cents, and he said that by the end of the year it will yield the farmer $1.

Wheat Countries Reach Agreement About Production

LONDON, June 20. (AP)—Definite progress in negotiations by the "Big Four" wheat producing countries toward reaching an agreement for control of production was reported authoritatively in world economic conference quarters today.

Premier Hendrick Colijn of Holland told the economic commission he hoped to have a plan, supported by the United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia, ready for presentation soon for the adherence of the smaller wheat producers.

Control Chief Problem

In the meantime talks among representatives of the "Big Four" have progressed, with the method of attacking crop control the chief problem. The United States is the only country with a definite plan legalized and ready for action.

Will Rogers Says:

SANTA MONICA, June 20. —Editor The Klamath News: So father had a day today, did he? Where? But you figure it out and he didn't deserve any more of a day than he got. There is a lot of hokey about poor father being imposed on.

Dear old father gets away with quite a bit of murder just because he is father. If he was some outsider and pulled the junk he does, they would chuck him in the alley.

There is nothing outside of an economist that's been any more over estimated than a father. He is a necessity and that about lets him out.

Yours, Will Rogers.
