

DAMAGE TO CROPS INCREASES PRICES

CHICAGO, June 23, (AP)—All future deliveries of wheat, oats and rye jumped late today to beyond season high price records. Reports were current indicating tremendous crop damage had been done in the Northwest by recent heat and drought, especially in the Dakotas and Minnesota. Unofficial estimates were that the 1933 probable production of wheat in the United States would fall below the actual domestic disappearance in recent years.

Wheat: 1933 probable production of wheat in the United States would fall below the actual domestic disappearance in recent years. A rush of general commission house purchasing lifted prices sharply late, and for more than offset early declines. Wheat closed buoyant, at the day's top level, 1 1/2c above yesterday's finish; corn, 1/4c to 1/2c up; oats, 1/4c to 1/2c advanced, and provisions 5c to 10c down.

NEW YORK, June 23, (AP)—A late rally in grains brought support to a rather shaky stock market today, and several leading issues gained 1 to 3 or more points. The close was firm. Extreme dullness prevailed until the final dash. Approximately 2,400,000 shares changed hands.

Proposals of the advance, as well as the move of bearish contingents, were disposed to stand on the sidelines until wheat spurred on reports of further serious crop damage. Cotton recovered substantially. Buyers appeared for the pivot stocks in large numbers near the close. Throughout the forenoon an atmosphere of nervousness pervaded the market, and most recent favorites moved in a narrow range. Currency stabilization uncertainties apparently uppermost in trading calculations despite the official disinclination of the government to peg the dollar at this time. The dollar advanced moderately in foreign exchange markets after early weakness.

Among the more buoyant shares was Celanese, which stepped up around 6 points. Case got up about 4, as did National Distillers. Other issues up 2 to 4 included American Telephone, Dupont, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Allied Chemical, Southern Pacific, Delaware & Hudson, Union Pacific, Western Union, Liggett & Myers, B. American Can, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Owens-Illinois and Johns Manville.
