

ELKS OBSERVE CHARTER DAY ON THURSDAY

Twenty-four charter members of the Elks lodge when organized here 22 years ago attended the 22nd anniversary banquet at the Elks Temple Thursday evening. The number of charter members present was considered an unusual occurrence as only 25 of the 12 original charter members are living. Many of the 24 charter Elks had not been seen in the lodge rooms for many years. At least four dropped out of Elks activities 15 years ago and appeared to swap stories Thursday evening for the first time. The program, in addition to music by Pat Patterson and his Kiwanis chorus and community singing led by John Houston, consisted of the "old timers" telling of different incidents during the installation of the charter and other early history happenings of the order. A Dutch lunch was served during the program which lasted for several hours, to 150 members and former members alike who have dropped from the good standing membership lists.

Thaddeus McMillan, charter member and one of the best known pioneer residents of the county, sent a letter regretting his inability to attend. He is now mining in the hills of Jackson county.
