

The Title Returns To Europe

Once Unbeatable America Having Difficulty Maintaining Heavyweight Supremacy. Public Waiting for Carnera-Baer Fight. Who Won the Tennis Match Here Last Week? Medford To Play Pelicans.

Not many years ago the strongest fighters from abroad could neither knock out nor outpoint the leaders of America's prize ring profession. Now the story is discouragingly different.

Primo Carnera, an excellent example of the traditional bulk and sub-intelligence accompanying the fighter, will be the second European to remove the heavyweight title from the outstanding being title in the world—to Europe. Carnera, known generally as the "Man Mountain," will return to Venice in Italy and perhaps only his own tiny brain can tell when he will bring his great bulk back to America.

The boxing public sincerely hopes it will be in the fall. It hopes the circus-like size of this vast Italian will be brought into the ring against Max Baer, the upstart of that other European star, Max Schmeling of Germany.

If Primo Carnera, the man whose left-hand punch killed Ernie Schaaf, has nothing else, he has size. Jack Sharkey was no infant in the ring, but the Italian towered him into a half-grown youth by contrast.

There is little doubt but that Sharkey could hit terrifically hard and could outbox and outmove this monster from across the seas. But all that went for nothing.

Henry McLimore, the United Press' leading sporting writer, saw the championship fight from a ringside press bench, and it required but one round for him to observe the futility of Sharkey's punches on this Italian.

The Italian's grunting and snoring, not a particularly colorful nor exciting champion, crashed a right onto Carnera's chin in the first round. It would have knocked out an ordinary man, but it didn't even dent the Italian's grin.

What happened in the fifth; it soon became apparent Sharkey could never win. Sid Wolke, a young man who used to hit a few tennis balls for the Klamath Tennis club, has filed a protest against the published results of last week's meet between Klamath and Grants Pass.

Wolke, now living in the valley, is one of the ace players on the Cave city squad. His letter was as follows: "I have a protest to make concerning a story in the Klamath paper which states that the Klamath Falls Tennis club beat the G. P. team last Sunday. The reverse, to be exact, is true.

"Grants Pass took six of the 10 men's matches played. I had an understanding with Buzz Huls that the women's matches would be played but would not be counted in determining the results of the tournament. I am sure Buzz will bear me out in this.

"Then later the story says the game with Grants Pass was a second and return match. And that Klamath defeated Grants Pass several weeks ago. The truth of the matter is that the match played here was a practice match and did not count. And in this practice match Grants Pass defeated Klamath instead of losing.

BOXING Dazed Carnera Happy Over Sensational Win Against Jack Sharkey

By Gayle Talbot NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—The new heavyweight fighting champion of the world, Primo Carnera of Italy, sat back in the corner of a blistering little room out on Long Island last night and beat his great hands together like a delighted child as he chanted in rough shod English.

"Boy, oh boy, oh boy! Now my mamma and papa be happy! Now my mamma and papa be happy! Primo's champion! Now they be happy!"

Assured of Truth. Over and over, as though dazed, the tremendous man who a few moments before had battered Jack Sharkey into helplessness, assured himself it was true. He would stop long enough to shake the hands of those who had fought his way into the cubbyhole dressing room, only to lapse again into his chant of victory.

It was hot in there. Sweat poured down his enormous frame in rivulets, but Primo was too delightfully happy to mind it. He shook hands with a little dentist who had fashioned the mouthpiece he wore in winning the title; to the best of his ability he answered any question shot at him. The native man mountain is likely to make a popular champion.

Between draughts from a bottle labeled "beer" he told how he won from the super-boxer, Jack Sharkey. "I hit with a left and he fell into the ropes. I know he's hurt and I follow him. Pret' soon my right uppercut catch him, and that is all. He go down and I know he stay there."

Thill Mauls. Thill's forte last night was his ability to catch blows and still go on fighting. The young man from the midwest punished him badly through the eighth round, and Thill was near the second knockout of his career in the seventh and eighth.

The Dutchman's attack was concentrated on a mauling rush. He presented no clear-cut blows but succeeded in wearing down Brown on the ropes. Once Thill, charging from the center of the ring, crowded Brown into the slack cords and both men fell into the first row of the ringside seats.

The large Legion hall attendance was completely partisan for Brown, and the newcomer to Klamath Falls was given vigorous applause when he was awarded the decision.

Was a Wis. Ad Cadena, veteran lightweight from Los Angeles, failed to come back in his second fight with Jack Willis, Klamath negro, and lost a six-round decision. The Mexican fought an uphill fight and almost earned a draw after a right hand punch to the chin put him down for seven in the first round.

Jack Hibbard, of Klamath Falls, outboxed Van Getty of Bend in the second six-round fight and took a decision. It was Hibbard's fight all the way. Hibbard's fight all the way.

Next week Al Karasick of Portland will meet George Kovsky of Los Angeles and Bob Kruse of Portland will meet Scotty Dawkins of Boston in a double main event wrestling bill.

Chicago Women Win Track Title. SOLDIER FIELD, Chicago, June 30 (UP)—The women's national A. A. U. track and field team championship was won today by the Illinois Women's Athletic club of Chicago in a dull meet devoid of thrills.

With Babe Didrikson, Dallas, Tex., no longer able to compete among the amateurs, the women's meet developed into a tired and weary prelude to tonight's climax, the National A. A. U. men's senior track and field championships.

Atkin was for many years associated with James T. Coffroth at the old Tlalajuna track.

Klamath Dutchman Loses Main Event in Fast Struggle

A new boxer landed on the featherweight throne of Klamath county last night at the Legion hall and sent rugged Paul Thill, known as the high hat Dutchman smartly down to his first defeat in a year.

It was Elmer Brown, the boy from St. Paul, who came to the front as the first man to upset the triumphant string of Thill's victories. It was done thoroughly, for after an even round the Dutchman had no show in the following seven.

All-Star Team Plays Eastside Here on Sunday

Two teams will join the independent struggle for the championship of Klamath county Sunday when the Eastside Improvement club meets the Klamath All-Stars. The game will be played on the South Sixth street diamond at 12:30.

Both teams match up well in strength, but the season's record maintained by the Stars indicate superior strength. The Eastside men, however, have added more power in the field and at bat this week than they had before.

This will be the first meeting of the two teams. Knute and Brown probably will be the Eastside battery.

KLAMATH TO JOIN GREAT LION HUNT

Thrilling lion hunt adventures will be told and retold to wide-eyed Klamath Falls youngsters by brave fathers, and possibly even mothers and sisters, following the capture of numbers of those charging animals Saturday. Hundreds of red lions have been released throughout Oregon and Saturday the public may join in the biggest lion hunt in the wild and woolly west.

But they are friendly lions because the finder of one will be entitled to five gallons of the new "Fortified" Gilmore Red Lion gasoline free. Earl Gilbert, local Gilmore manager explained, "They will be easy to find because they are being hidden tonight in private yards, in public buildings, in public parks and along the streets. When one is found, with certificate attached, take him to the nearest Gilmore dealer and be rewarded with five gallons of the new Red Lion gasoline."

YANKS AND CARDS RESUME COURSE TOWARD LEAD IN MAJOR LEAGUE STRUGGLE

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer. Taking divergent paths toward the top, the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals have resumed their courses toward the leading places in the major leagues which they lost not so long ago.

Seizing upon the first sign of slackening in the major league winning streak, the Yanks battered their way back into a tie for the American league lead Thursday at the expense of the Cleveland Indians. The Cards opened a direct attack on the New York Giants, and walked the National league leaders 7-3.

Gomez Effective. The Yanks did a great job of bunting their blows against Cleveland to win 9-3. Lefty Gomez was effective in the pinches and Babe Ruth set the hitting pace for the fourth straight New York victory.

The Senators, meanwhile, bowled 5-4 to the Detroit Tigers. After tying the count in the ninth, the Senators kicked the game away in the last half of the frame when Bill McAfee gave a walk and booted Heinie Schaub's sacrifice to set the stage for Gerald Walker to drive in the deciding run.

The Cardinals assault consisted largely of a six run assault on Lefty Bill Clark in the third inning. Philadelphia Wins. With Lefty Grove on the hill, the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the St. Louis Browns 4-1. Jimmie Fox hit his 15th homer.

The revived Phillies, paced by Chuck Klein, continued to knock off the National league's first division clubs as they hung a 6-4 defeat on the third place Pittsburgh Pirates. Klein knocked in all six runs with two homers and two singles.

The combination of Guy Bush's steady pitching and an 11-hit attack on Walter Beck gave the Chicago Cubs a 7-3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers as Babe Herman, a former Dodger, hit a homer with two aboard to start his team off toward victory.

Rain halted the Boston-Chicago American league encounter while the Braves and the Cincinnati Reds had an off day in the National.

Mrs. Moody on Way to Sixth English Title. WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 30. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody continued her serene way toward her sixth Wimbledon tennis title today with a 6-3, 6-0 victory over the experienced French woman player, Mme. Sylvia Hanrotin, in the quarter-finals of women's singles.

BEAVER-DUCKS BEATEN AGAIN

Lanky Oakland Hurler Shuts Out Champs, 4 to 0.

By The Associated Press. Glenn Gabler, lanky graduate of the now defunct Arizona league, had pitched himself into the Coast league's hall of fame with a two-hit shutout of the champion Portland Beavers.

The Oakland hurler showed little mercy for his Portland hosts Thursday night, giving them only a single and double three innings apart as he won, 4-0. His mates gave him strong support in the field and bunched five of their hits in the first and third innings for all four Oakland runs. Junk Walters blanked the Oaks in the last six innings and held them hitless in the last four.

Sacramento slipped back a bit in the pennant race as Seattle marked up its second win of the series 9-3. Jimmy Welch, Indian center fielder, drove in five runs with a four bagger and single as the Burns men pounded Tom Flynn for 12 safeties.

George Carter, stopped the Solons with six scattered blows. Hollywood went into a second place tie with Portland through its third straight victory over the Missions 7-5. Sloppy fielding again cost the Reds the game, three errors helping the Stars to two of their runs.

Staked to a 7-run lead in the second inning, Leroy Hiermann beat San Francisco, 11-7, to make up his 14th triumph of the season. Jim Oglesby, Angel first sacker, climaxed the second inning assault with a homer with one man on. Joe Demaggio, youthful seal outfielder, hit safely for his 33rd game in a row, getting a single in the fifth.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., June 29. (UP)—Midget Wolgaat, world's flyweight champion, scored an easy decision over Marty Gold of Philadelphia Thursday in a 10-round bout at Meadowbrook arena.

Wolgaat weighed 114 1/2, Gold 115 3/4. Wolgaat had the bout by a wide margin in every round. Steve Carr, Hartford, Conn., 160, knocked out Kayo Casper, 157 1/2, in the third round of their scheduled 8-round semifinal.

Il Duce Pleased With Carnera's American Stand

ROME, June 30. (AP)—Primo Carnera's victory over Jack Sharkey was the first piece of news communicated to Premier Mussolini when he arose today.

His secretary told him Italy now holds the world's heavyweight boxing championship for the first time in history. Il Duce expressed himself as being delighted with the success of the huge Italian fighter.

The international boxing federation, meeting here this week, definitely pronounced Carnera an Italian, despite his application for French citizenship.

Newspapers devoted most of their front pages today to the match, although the fight ended too late to permit editorial comment.

Tom Loughran, Veteran Boxer, Didn't See It! NEW YORK, June 30. (AP)—This will give an idea of the swiftness of that right uppercut that snuffed out Jack Sharkey's brief reign as heavyweight champion last night.

Tommy Loughran, one of the clearest boxers in modern ring history, didn't even see it! And he was peering intently at the pair when it was struck.

Sitting next to an Associated Press writer at the ringside, the Philadelphia phantom gasped as Sharkey went down under Carnera's blow.

"What hit him?" he asked. GREENWICH, Conn., June 30. (UP)—Jack J. Munger of Dallas, Tex., no longer able to compete among the amateurs, became eastern interscholastic golf champion today by defeating Maurice Nea, of Georgetown Prep, 2 and 1.

Munger had defeated Fumitka Komuro, of the Japanese Imperial family, a student at Lawrenceville, 5 and 4, in the semifinals.
