HAGEN KEEPS TOURNEY LEAD

Shoots Sub-Par Golf In Second Round Of British Meet

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 6. (AP)—Walter Hagen, the American veteran and four-times holder of the title, kept a one-stroke lead in the British open golf championship today by shooting a 72, one under par, for his second round, and a total of 140 for 36 holes.

Other Americans in Densmore Shute of Philadelphia, with another par-equalling round of 73; joined Horton Smith of Chicago, with identical scores of 73-74—146 for the two rounds. Gene Sarazen, the defending champion, who had a first round 72, was in hot pursuit of the leaders with an out-going 33, three under par. He thus gained two strokes on Hagen and three on Dudley.

AIRPLANE RECORD FOR SPEED BROKEN

CHICAGO, July 6 (AP)—Johnny Livingston of Aurora, Ill., unofficially broke the speed record for planes with motors of less than 500 cubic inches displacement at the American air races yesterday by driving his Cessna racer at a speed of 237.49 miles an hour. The speed was made over a course of 1.932 miles.

The time being unofficial, Livingston said he would try soon for an official record. In another speed attempt, Jack Wright of Utica, N. Y., unofficially set a new record for a two-seater plane weighing less than 1,000 pounds. He was timed at 152.06 miles an hour; the official record is 139.6 miles an hour, held by France.

Vancouver Yacht Wins Lipton Cup

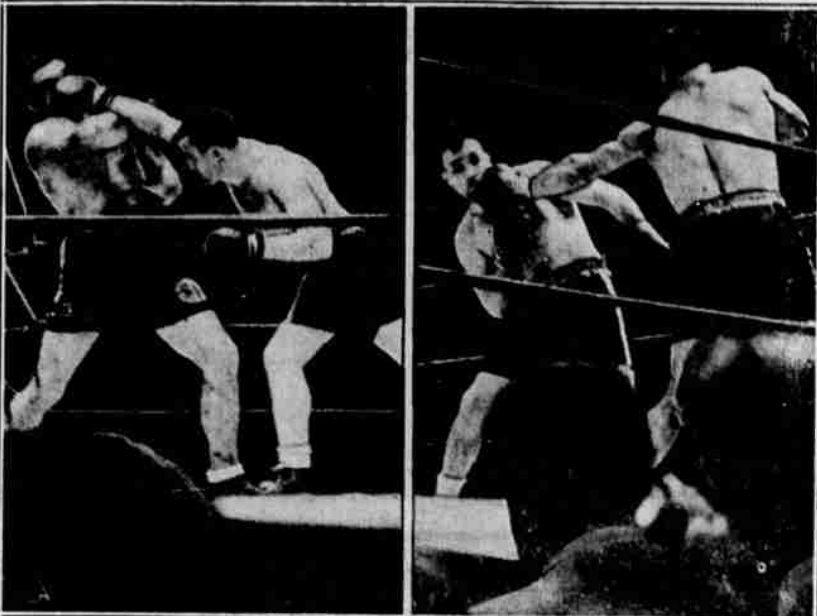

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 6. (UP)—Lady Pat, the Vancouver yacht club's defender, defeated the challenger, Sir Tom of the Seattle yacht club today and won the first of the Lipton Cup races on English bay. The winner swept the six-mile triangular course to win by a margin of 17 minutes and seven seconds.

Lady Pat nosed over the starting line 20 seconds ahead of the challenger and increased the lead, scudding before a nine-knot breeze. During the earlier races, the Yawl Onoma lost her mizzen mast while the Seattle sloop, Gypsy Heart, split her mainsail.

The forlorn on a large lightship requires an engine with 72 horsepower to work; it can be heard for 20 miles.

PHILADELPHIA TEAMS GAIN IN LEAGUE RACES THROUGH STELLAR HURLING OF ROOKS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer The Philadelphia major league clubs, both of which have been sadly in need of more pitching strength, have discovered some of it in unexpected places.

A couple of weeks ago the Phillies, more or less in desperation, tossed Johnny Jackson, fresh from the University of Pennsylvania, in as a starting pitcher. He won the game, and has been taking his regular turn since then. Now the Athletics have made a similar successful experiment with Dick Oliver, a young right hander from the local sand lots.

Beats Red Sox Oliver, who has had a few tryouts in relief work, drew his first starting assignment yesterday and turned it into a personal triumph by beating the Boston Red Sox 4 to 2. He gave only seven hits and fanned eight to shatter Boston's six game winning streak.

The victory kept the A's a game and a half in front of the Chicago White Sox, who moved into fourth place with a 19-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians. With weak pitching on both sides, the Sox won by putting together six blows for seven runs in the sixth inning. Tommy Bridges was invincible except in one inning and Detroit Tigers walloped the St. Louis Browns 9-4 in the third American league game. He granted only six hits and whiffed nine while his mates poled out 16 safeties.

The Pittsburgh Pirates accomplished the day's best task in the National league by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a 26 hit swatfest, 7 to 6. The victory left the Pirates only a game out of second place as a three run burst in the seventh decided the game and finished the Cards' disastrous tour with a record of 12 defeats and only six victories since they struck the eastern portion of the circuit June 19.

Washington Coach Makes Prediction For Crew Races

LOS ANGELES, July 6 (UP)—Al Ulbrickson, coach of the University of Washington's Pacific coast intercollegiate championship crew, made what probably was his last prediction when he picked his own oarsmen to win the national intercollegiate race here July 8.

Certainly he left himself wide open and rival coaches have made the most of his forecast, razing him unmercifully. Ulbrickson said some time ago he thought his Huskies would finish first, trailed by Yale, California and Harvard, in that order. He prophesied that Cornell and U. C. L. A., the other two entrants, would be eliminated in the preliminary heats Friday.

Shaw-Bertram Wins Tule Lake Contest

The Shaw-Bertram nine defeated a strong combination team composed of players from Merrill, Malin and the All Stars by a score of 12 to 8 at the celebration at Tule Lake. The game was seen by a large crowd of 1,500 fans. The opposing team fought hard but was unable to touch Cleek or Gilman for enough hits.

ANGELS GAIN, BEAVERS WIN

League-Leading Senators Drop Close Contest To Oakland

By The Associated Press Ruthian activities of First Base man Jim Ogelsby had today boosted Los Angeles to within three games of the first place Sacramento Senators.

Big Jim banged out a homer with one aboard in the seventh last night to tie the score with the Missions. In the last of the ninth he lifted another long one over the center field fence to give the Angels their fifth run and a 5-4 victory. Last night's game was the 26th in which Ogelsby has hit safely. Oscar Eckhard, leading Coast league batsman, hit four singles in a futile effort to save the Reds from their 13th defeat in 34 starts.

Sacramento Loses Sacramento ran into a stubborn defense at Oakland and lost after 14 innings 6-5. In the fifth extra inning Leroy Anton poked the ball over the left center fence to score Malhot and break up the game. It was Anton's fourth hit of the game but failed to give him the day's hitting honors as Henry Steinbacher, Solon second sacker, cracked out a double and five singles in seven trips to the plate.

Rudy Kallio marked up his ninth victory of the season as Portland scored its third series win over Seattle 5-2, last night. "Prince" Oama hit a double and single for the winners and stole two bases.

Joe Demaggio hit safely in his 40th consecutive game yesterday, but the hit, an eighth inning double, was not enough to keep Hollywood from beating San Francisco 4-3. Tom Sheshaun held the Seals to four hits in the first seven innings and checked them with four hits and two runs when they put on the pressure in the last two frames.

GOAT REVIVED CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UP)—One of six goats rescued from a fire-swept barn here was unconscious from the effects of smoke. But Patrolmen John Falvey and David Walsh pressed six lungs in the approved police resuscitation fashion, and 20 minutes later the goat was on its feet, apparently none the worse for its experience.

O.S.C. ANNOUNCES COACHING LINEUP

CORVALLIS, Ore., July 6 (UP)—Athletic coach appointments for Oregon State college the coming year were announced today by Carl Lodell, director of athletics. The entire program will be handled by five men.

Lon Stiner, assistant football coach since 1928, will be head grid mentor. He will be assisted by George Scott, ex-Beaver backfield ace and later Baker high coach, who will pilot the backs. Big Jim Dixon, another former Stater, will handle the line.

Slats Gill will coach freshman football, as well as varsity basketball. Scott will take over the rook basketball squad. Grant "Doc" Swan, Oregon State's Iron man on the track several years ago, will relieve Coach Stiner as head track mentor. Swan also will succeed Vera Eilers as trainer. Eilers will be coach at Baker. Dixon will assist both varsity and rook tracksters. Slats Gill will handle varsity baseball again and Scott the freshmen.

Max Baer Joins Hollywood Colony

HOLLYWOOD, July 6 (UP)—Max Baer, curly haired California heavyweight who is next in line for a title bout with Primo Carnera, joined the movies today as a star. He signed a contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to appear opposite Joan Crawford in "The Lady and the Prize Fighter." It was a one picture contract and the amount Baer will receive was not disclosed.

Helen Wills Moody Wins From German Star, Gains Wimbledon Final Round

WIMBLEDON, England, July 6. (AP)—Miss Dorothy Round, second ranked British girl, scored a surprising victory over Miss Helen Jacobs, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, in the semi-final round of the women's singles in the annual Wimbledon championships today. The victory qualified her to meet Helen Wills Moody, defending champion, in the final round.

WIMBLEDON, England, July 6. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody today advanced to within one match of her sixth Wimbledon title as she defeated Hilda Krahwinkle, Germany's ranking player, 6-4, 6-3, in the semi-finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

She will meet the winner of the other semi-final between Helen Jacobs, United States champion, and Dorothy Round, No. 2, in the final and if successful will tie Miss Suzanne Lenglen for number of victories won on the famous London courts. Started in 1927 Mrs. Moody won her first Wimbledon title in 1927, and repeated in 1928, '29, '30 and '32. In defeating the tall German girl, Mrs. Moody fell behind only at the start, where Fraulein Krahwinkle led 2-1. In the main she kept the ball in play and letting her opponent beat herself. Fraulein Krahwinkle started rushing the net at the start, with some success, but she could not cope long with the tennis machine across the net. The galleries marveled at the certainty of Mrs. Moody's returns as the match progressed, Queen Helen keeping her opponent continually on the run after balls hit just inside the back or sidelines.

Control Wins Mrs. Moody had her strokes well under control, starting the second, and with Fraulein Krahwinkle becoming more nervous by the minute, ran into a 5-1 lead. Mrs. Moody's concentration was broken as an awning on the press box caught fire, and with both playing raggedly, the German girl picked up two games, but then Mrs. Moody steadied and ran out the set on her own service.

The critics saw nothing in Mrs. Moody's game to enthrall over, but it was apparent she was not playing at her best, retaining her reserves of energy for the play to come, as she also is still in the running in mixed doubles.

LAKEVIEW TOSSERS WALLOP ALTURAS

LAKEVIEW, Ore.—Lakeview defeated Alturas Tuesday at Alturas by a score of 11 to 6, and the team came home with close to $200 of California money. The two teams played for a $100 purse, which was offered by the Alturas Round-Up association, while side bets equalled the amount of the purse. The two teams will play a return game in Lakeview at the time of the Lakeview round-up.

Lakeview will play the team of the Hines Lumber company of Hines, Ore., here next Sunday. The Harney county team is the only one in Eastern Oregon to score a victory so far this season over the Bend Shamrocks. On July 16 Lakeview will invade Bend for another game with the Shamrocks.

It took only 48 hours to solve the two cases of murder in the city of London last year; they were the first such cases since 1917.

Max Schmeling Wed to Actress

BERLIN, July 6. (AP)—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion of the world, and Miss Anny Ondra, screen and musical comedy actress, were married in a civil ceremony at the Charlottenburg city hall today. Their honeymoon will be at Hellighendamm. A religious celebration of the marriage will be conducted later at Saabow, where Schmeling resides.

Max, at the wheel of his own car, was cheered by a large crowd at the city hall. He wore a blue sack suit. His bride was clad in a rose colored dress. The bridegroom's trainer, Max Machon, was the best man. Schmeling returned to Germany June 14, after losing a fight to Max Baer.

Graft of larger or smaller proportions, seems to be widely accepted as a more or less inevitable incident of government. —President James Rowland Angell of Yale.
