WHEAT PASSES DOLLAR MARK, THEN SETTLES

CHICAGO, July 7. (AP)—For the first time in 1933, all deliveries of wheat here sold above $1.00 per bushel today, and some climbed as high as $1.61. Big profit taking and timely rains caused reactions later. The main immediate impulse toward higher prices came from wild fluctuations in foreign currencies following President Roosevelt's stand as to the money policy of the United States. Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 7. (AP)—Stocks surged through a 7,000,000 share market today to an irregular closing after a strenuous early rise of $1.00 to $4.00. Heavy profit taking swept through the list most of the afternoon, but prices lifted again just before the close. With the dollar dropping to 79 per cent valuation as measured by gold currencies, speculative pulses beat wildly, especially on the stock exchange, where the tape fell as much as 2 1/2 minutes behind. Volume was one of the largest of the past three months. Today's closing prices: Air Reduction, 92 1/2; Alaska Janss, 22; Alchem & Dye, 13 1/2; American Can, 95 1/2; American Coml. EGG MARKET AT PORTLAND IS IMPROVED

PORTLAND, July 7. (AP)—There was some improvement suggested in late trading in the local egg market. While there has been no change noted in quotable prices insofar as top quality was concerned, much of the recent shading has been eliminated. Most sales of extras are being made today at 15c per dozen, while up to now most of the business had been around 15c to 16c, although the association has reported that it has rigidly maintained its 15c mark. The improvement in the undertone of the trade was suggested by the fractional betterment in the buying prices from producers. In fact, some of the former very low resale prices have been boosted at least 1c per dozen. No change in price was announced by the Pacific Co-ops. Market for butter continued to reflect steadiness, and even strength, at the latest advance in price forced here by sentiment against those who were holding down prices on the exchange. While the general buying price on No. 1 butter here was 24c, as high as 25c was being paid locally. Occasional reports from the country suggest premiums also available there. Chickens markets continued more or less of steady character. An active demand was suggested in late trading along Front avenue continuation row. Dressed turkeys continued in call. Market for killed meats continued good. Better prices were met in spots for veal, hogs and lambs, with a rather fair movement of beef into consuming markets. First peaches out of The Dalles to reach the wholesale trade were reported. The stock came at 11c for wrapped and packed. First supplies of home grown carline of the season were reported, with sale of 14c per lb. The market had been exceptionally good of late, with only California offering. The Franciscan monks own the Garden of Gethsemane.

BUYERS GRABBING UP SHEEP, LAMBS

PORTLAND, July 7. (AP)—In anticipation of a sharp advance in sheep and lamb prices, an army of buyers is invading the Willamette valley with instructions to grab every offering. Lambs, especially, are in keen demand. This activity was confirmed here today by one large packer and several others. Sales of great volume are reported in the valley at prices somewhat below what is available at the stockyards here. Friday carload receipts of all lines included 4 loads of sheep and 3 lambs, direct from a valley point to a killer. There was yet no change in general quotations. There was more moderate excitement in the sheep and lamb alleys at the stockyards. Lamb prices were steady to firm here, although sharply higher prices have been reported daily at Midwest and Eastern points. The Journal said today "that further advances which may influence the entire mutton trade will be forced, in the opinion of leaders here, and sheepowners are being warned about grabbing the first offers available."

Rotary Installs Officers for '33

Friday marked the beginning of a new year at the end of an old for Rotary, and installation of officers was the feature of the day's program. New officers installed were Dr. J. Harding Carter, president; Dr. C. V. Rugh, vice president; R. D. Eller, secretary; Olive Keat, treasurer; J. E. Johnson, sergeant-at-arms; and H. P. Bosworth, Marshall Cornett, Fred C. Murphy and Lee D. Jacobs directors. The program was in charge of past presidents of Rotary, with M. S. West as program chairman. Past President Wilson S. Wiley spoke in appreciation of the outgoing officers and Past President John Boyle, formerly of Klamath Falls and now of Medford, welcomed the incoming staff. Retiring President Ralph Stearns gave a report of the past year's work and thanked the committees that have worked under him, and incoming President Carter spoke briefly during the coming year. A special feature of the program was a group of two songs, composed by Fred Fleet, one introducing the new officers and the other congratulating the old ones. These songs were sung by the Rotary chorus, directed by Mrs. Don J. Zamwalt. Dr. Ralph Stearns, retiring president of Rotary, returned on Thursday from a month spent in the East attending the World's Fair in Chicago and the international convention of Rotary in Boston. While in Chicago, he visited Northwestern University, of which he is an alumnus. Mrs. Stearns accompanied him as far as Chicago, returning from there to Klamath Falls about two weeks ago.
