National, Local Markets

WHEAT PRICES LOWER; RYE STOPS CLIMB

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—Except for incorrigible enthusiasts for $1.00 a bushel wheat, about all grain traders showed willingness today to take time to breathe, and prices averaged lower.

All grains except oats, nevertheless, edged upward at times to fresh top record prices. Fever to purchase calmed down in the rye market after a transient early advance of about 2 cents. Advices from Argentine said the rye crop there was the largest in several years.

Wheat closed easy, ½c to 1½c under yesterday's finish; rye, ½c to ¾c off; corn, unchanged to 1¼c lower; oats at ½c to ¾c decline, and provisions showing setbacks of 5c to 25c.

GRAIN QUOTATIONS

CHICAGO, July 13. (AP)—Wheat, No. 2 red, $1.06½ to $1.07; No. 1 hard, $1.07 to $1.08½; No. 2 yellow hard, $1.05½.

Corn, No. 1 yellow, 63½c to 63¾c; No. 1 white, 64½c.

Oats, No. 1 white, 46½c.

Credit Firm Move Protested To Chief

PORTLAND, July 13 (AP)—A protest against reported plans to move the Portland branch of the regional agricultural credit corporation to Spokane was filed with Henry T. Morgenthau, Jr., federal farm commissioner, in a telegram last night signed by Congressman Walter Pierce and Charles H. Martin, and Carl C. Donaugh, chairman of the state democratic central committee.

Mentioning rumors that the change was contemplated, the telegram stated: "In view of the very great inconvenience that would be visited upon the majority of the farmers of the northwest, we plead for a hearing before such a move is made, believing that our people would deeply resent such an executive order at this time."

Almost 14,500 new books and new editions were published in England in 1928.

SHIPMENTS OF SHEEP LARGE THIS SEASON

BIEBER, Calif.—Thousands of spring lambs, fattened on ewe's milk and mountain grasses, have been driven with their mothers this summer from far-stretching ranges east of Bieber to the railroad. Herded forward only a few miles in the cool of each day, so as not to lose valuable pounds, some of the bands take two or three weeks for the overland trek.

Arrived at the stockyards here, fat lambs are separated from the rest of the flock and shipped to the southern California market. L. J. Cotton, buyer for a Los Angeles packing concern, said his shipments from Bieber and from Bogunda, next station south, last month and this would total about 9000 lambs. They brought the growers up to a cent and three-quarters per pound over last year's prices.

Jack Metzger of Red Bluff has been buying lambs on the range and selling the fat ones at the railroad. The procedure left him some 2000 feeder lambs which he is shipping to Rio Vista to be fattened on the Delta Islands. Before loading the feeders into cars, Metzger is having them sheared, as their wool just off the range grades higher and commands a better price than it would at downstate feeding grounds.

At Metzger's request, J. H. Patrick of Ilderton, Ontario, recently brought to Bieber a carload of registered purebred Suffolk rams. Over half a hundred of the animals, which were raised in Canada from English parents of the celebrated mutton breed, have been sold to sheepmen in this territory, and Metzger predicts that a marked improvement in the quality of future lamb crops will result.

Meanwhile, flocks of ewes without their lambs are walking back to the hills, led by packburros carrying the herders' equipment, and kept in line by wise dogs. They will stay in the high pastures till cold weather.

Hood River Man Is Seized For Threats

HOOD RIVER, July 13 (AP)—J. E. Cozad, former Hood River orchardist, was held here today on a charge of attempting to obtain money by threats, after police announced last night that he had confessed sending an extortion letter to C. Dethman, a banker, threatening death unless $10,000 was delivered at an isolated place east of the city.

Detectives said Cozad told them he was made desperate by his inability to find employment.

CUBE BUTTER AT PORTLAND HOLDS FIRM

PORTLAND, July 13, (AP)—Slight betterment in the cube butter situation was reflected for the last 24 hours locally and along the coast generally a fully steady feeling was suggested.

A fractional advance in standard cubes on the produce exchange was shown, but others were unchanged. Demand was best for the 90 to 91 scores in the local trade.

Butterfat May Change

There is again growing suggestion in the trade for a reversal of buying prices on butterfat to be based upon standard grade cube prices instead of extras, as recently. Up to a short time ago all butterfat values here were established on the basis of standard grade cubes, inasmuch as the bulk of the make is of that sort. It is said to more nearly represent trade conditions.

Market for eggs continued to reflect gains in trading activity within the immediate local section. Prices were steady to firm for good stuff, but somewhat easy for the junky short held storage offerings.

Poultry Better

Somewhat better tone was apparent in the market for live poultry, with improvement in the California demand and price. Prices were so low as to induce a greater demand for movement into storage. Spring stuff was really firm.

Leading turkey distributors indicated they expect practically no furthering offerings of old crop turkeys here, and that new crop was not likely to move in volume until near the holidays. Prices were therefore nominally quoted.

There was a better situation in the market for country killed calves, with a general top of 8c per pound. Although some were reported at talking of higher values, which were not generally being paid.

There was a better tone also reflected in the market for hogs and lambs, but prices show little change, with top hogs 7c to 7¼c, and best lambs 11c to 11½c per pound. Beef was in much better call.

Chicago Livestock

CHICAGO, July 13, (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs, 25,000; market slow, 5c to 10c lower. Bulk 200 to 290 lbs., $4.70 to $4.80; top, $4.85.

Cattle, 8,000; calves, 2,000; market for medium weight and weighty steers moderately active and steady; long yearlings and light steers slow, steady to weak; other killing classes under slight pressure; vealers, 25c or more lower. Largely fed steer run, with in-between grade, light kinds, predominating at $5.75 to $6.50. Best medium weights at $7.25. Weighty bullocks, $7.10. Heifers, $5.25 to $6.25. Vealers, $5.00 to $6.50.

Sheep, 11,000; market slow; fat lambs weak to mostly 25c lower. Bulk $7.50 down. Closely sorted lots bid $7.75 to $7.85. Lambs, 90 lbs. down, good and choice, $6.50 to $8.00. Ewes, $1.25 to $2.75.

MARSHALS NAMED

WASHINGTON, July 13, (AP)—President Roosevelt today appointed Gilbert Mecham to be United States marshal for Utah and George Metlan to be United States marshal for Idaho.

Tiny Patient—Baby Marjorie Smith, 11-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, of the Klamath brick yards, is a patient at Klamath Valley hospital.

Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 13. (AP)—Led by the alcohol group, stocks today staged one of the most buoyant performances of the 1933 bull market. All categories followed the so-called "wet" issues into new high territory for the past two years, with gains of 1 to 5 or more points. The close was firm, although extreme advances were pared in the last half hour by profit taking. Transfers approximated 7,560,000 shares.

Unemployed Chief To Be Tried Again

SALEM, July 13 (AP)—O. H. Goss, unemployed council organizer, will be retried here beginning July 20. The five-man jury was unable to reach an agreement on a vagrancy charge against him, so his first trial ended yesterday.

Goss was arrested when unemployed council members were evicted from the court house lawn where they had bivouacked for a week, displaying placards and listening to speeches daily.

Cash relief and other demands were made of the county court. Alleged personal remarks about the court members were the basis for the trial of Goss.
