KLAMATH FALLS, ORE., SUNDAY, JULY 16, 1933

(Every Morning Except Monday)

Editorials on the Day's News

BY FRANK JENKINS THE KLAMATH COUNTRY, if present prospects are realized, will produce a million and a half sacks of potatoes this year.

That will mean a total return of around TWO MILLION dollars for the potato crop.

ADD TO THIS the money brought in by the hay crop, the grain crop, the lamb crop, the wool crop and the beef crop and it becomes apparent that agriculture alone will put a lot of new money into the Klamath country this fall.

Then add to this total the money that is being brought in by increasing payrolls.

You will get an interesting picture.

WE HAVE BEEN asking ourselves when business will really begin to get better, and the answer has been: "When more money gets back into circulation."

With the amount of new money that will be put into circulation in the Klamath country this fall, there should be no doubt about business being better.

THIS PARAGRAPH in yesterday's news must have caught your eye:

"The stock market whirled upward today in the heaviest trading in more than THREE YEARS. The day's turnover of 7,450,000 shares was the biggest for any rising market in the history of the stock exchange."

NOTE this further sentence: "Prices, showed by what seemed to be an insatiable demand for stocks from MAIN STREET and Wall street, were carried $1 to more than $16 higher at the best."

"Demand for stocks from Main street." Our grandfathers wouldn't have believed that, would they? They looked upon stock speculating as a vice peculiar to Wall street.

But then a lot of things are happening that our grandfathers wouldn't have believed.

CONTROL of all business by the government, for example—including price fixing, wage fixing and the frankly announced determination to put out of business the price cutter, the wage cutter and the chiseler so that legitimate business may no longer be called upon to meet this type of competition.

The world is moving. Where it is going, we don't know. But we are hoping.

ANOTHER sentence from the financial news:

"Without help from commodities, which were mostly sluggish, or from business and trade news, (Continued on Page Four)

COUPLE MARRIED VANCOUVER, Wash., July 15. (UP)—Ralph E. Moody, assistant attorney general of Oregon, and Regina Johnson, city editor of the Ashland Tidings, Ashland, Ore., were married here tonight.

Will Rogers Says: BEVERLY HILLS, July 15. —Editor The Klamath News: This fellow Roosevelt can close the banks, he can tell industry how much to pay, and how many hours to work. He can hold back the sun, he can evaporate the water, but when he demands that a postmaster has to be able to read, that's carrying dictatorship too far.

When he takes the postmasters out of politics, he is monkeying with the very fundamentals of American political parties. How is the army going to fight if they don't get any of the loot.

I tell you this suggestion of his in bordering on treason. The idea of a postmaster being able to read, it looks like an undemocratic move to favor the college man. I tell you he will ruin the Democratic party. We mustn't let him get away with it. Yours, Will Rogers.

STEEL INDUSTRY SUBMITS HELPS PROGRAM

Roosevelt, Johnson Will Meet Today on River For Wage Discussion

Blanket Emergency Call Reaching to Smallest Business Man Planned

WASHINGTON, July 15. (UP) A tremendous boost to President Roosevelt's recovery program came today from the great iron and steel industry, whose roaring furnaces have moulded the backbone of America's industrial and business structure.

The industry, announcing a 15 per cent increase in wages effective Monday, came forward with a recovery act of fair competition striking directly at many controversial issues, some aggravated during the years of depression.

WASHINGTON, July 15. (UP) Somewhere down on the quiet Potomac, near where George Washington chose to build peace, the effects would extend from the city stenographer to the village clerk.

Plan Blanket Call President Roosevelt, away on the week-end, poking around isolated backwoods country on Maryland's quaint eastern shore, asked General Hugh S. Johnson, national recovery administrator, to fly down the Potomac and (Continued on Page Three)

Kidnapers Pick Wrong Salesman, Dumped at Eureka

EUREKA, Calif., July 15. (UP) Four men who allegedly kidnaped E. T. Wiggins, 60, Stockton salesman, released their prisoner when they learned he was the "wrong man," Wiggins told the sheriff's office here today.

The salesman staggered into the office with a story that on Thursday night at Berkeley two men took him prisoner and after blindfolding him held him for two days, presumably in Berkeley. Last night they gave him a sleeping potion and dumped him near Eureka, Wiggins claimed.

The alleged kidnapers believed their captive was W. Q. Wright, San Francisco head of the realty firm which employed Wiggins, he said.

In San Francisco Wright told of receiving a note addressed to his firm demanding $50,000 for "Mr. Wright's release" and containing a page bearing his name torn from a notebook which Wiggins had been carrying.

After reporting the kidnaping, Wiggins went to his home at Quimby Island, near Stockton, while police started search for the four men, two of whom Wiggins described.

European Powers Sign Guarantee To Keep Peace

ROME, July 15. (P)—The Four-Power European peace pact was signed here today by Premier Mussolini, and representatives of France, Germany and Great Britain.

The accord which is designed to guarantee tranquility among European countries for a period of ten years, facilitates reduction of armaments and lead to improvement in economic conditions, was given official approval in the Duce's hazy office in the Palazzo Venezia.

No Change Made No change was made in the text as initiated in the same office June 7.

Besides the head of the Italian government, Ambassador Henry De Jouvenel of France, Ambassador von Hassel of Germany and Sir Ronald Graham, the British ambassador, all of whom attached their initials to the document early last month, signed it today.

American Sailor Arrested on Leave

YUMA, Ariz., July 15. (UP) Loren F. Fuika, 24-year-old sailor on leave from his ship at San Diego, Cal., was arrested tonight in connection with the death of Elliott Wood, 24, of Walls, Wash., in an accident near Astec, 42 miles east of here.

Fuika was held for investigation on orders of County Attorney Glenn Copple following an inquest at Astec where a coroner's jury found the University of Washington graduate died as result of negligent operation of a truck allegedly driven by the sailor.

Urges Annual Recess

DELEGATION WILL INSIST ON DEFINITE ADJOURNMENT

LONDON, July 15. (UP) — The American delegation will insist on indefinite adjournment of the world economic conference to avoid interference with President Roosevelt's determination on a domestic recovery program, it was learned authoritatively today.

The delegates were represented to feel that a set date for re-assembling after the "recess" to be taken on July 27 would amount to indirect pressure on the United States to stabilize its currency by whatever date might be named.

Await Announcement This it was said would interfere with the domestic recovery program.

Previously it had been said that the United States favored adjournment to a definite date. At that time it was said that the delegation also had asked President Roosevelt for such instructions whether he intended to institute a "commodity dollar" with a sliding gold content or go back on the gold standard. Unless he committed himself, it was said, there was danger that the conference might adjourn for good.

Boat Ragatta Set for Today

Six Sail Crafts to Enter 1st Race of Its Kind On Upper Lake Water

Six skippers will compete for first and second prize pennants at Klamath Falls' first sailboat race to be held on the Upper Klamath Lake Sunday at 3 o'clock.

A trumpet call by the Sea Scout drum corps will assemble the contestants behind the starting line at 2:45 where they will jockey for position. At 2:55 two shots will be fired as warning, and at 3:00 the final gun will start the race. Any boat crossing the line before the gun is fired will be penalized with a handicap of double the time gained.

The race will consist of two laps around a triangular course marked by buoys. The boats will be in full view of spectators from the Oregon Boat Co. docks, Moore Park, and the West Side road for the entire distance.

The list of entries with their numbers which will be sewed on their sails, are as follows: 1. Nelson Reed, skipper of W. 2. A. D. Lambert, skipper of Me-2. 3. Innis Roberts, skipper of El Diablo. 4. Phil Brixner, skipper of Gull. 5. Dr. A. O. Roenicke, skipper of Zephyr. 6. Roland Watt, skipper of Hell Diver.

World Record on Mile Run Smashed By New Zealander

PRINCETON, N. J., July 15. (UP)—When he turned the first quarter in 0:51.4 they said "he will collapse pretty soon."

When he called his time at the three-quarter pole, 3:08.7—they said "he's a wild man, but he can't do it."

But when he did do it—when Jack Lovelock smashed the tape for a 4:07.5 mile, breaking the mark the experts said never would be bettered—they, meaning the 5000 spectators in Palmer stadium, rose to their feet and gave the young New Zealander a cheer that is still echoing and re-echoing through the New Jersey hills.

French Anthem Has Unpublished Verse

PARIS, July 15. (UP) — A new and previously unpublished verse of La Marseillaise, French national anthem, is included in a yellowed copy of the song which came into the hands of Thomas Sexton, young American painter widely known on the Pacific coast.

Sexton, a native of Goldfield, Nev., was given the old script by Georges Andre Klein, French artist who found it in an antiquated trunk purchased from a Marseilles peasant.

California Plans To Spend 3 Million

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (UP)—The state emergency relief committee met here today to discuss plans for spending $3,000,000 during the first quarter of the present fiscal year. Funds for the purpose will be made available through the $20,000,000 bond issue voted in the June 27 special election.

Italian Fleet Achieves Scientific Air Record

CHICAGO, July 15. (UP) — Italy's winged armadillo glided to rest today on the bobbing waves of Chicago harbor, goal of their $100 first flight.

The first dual-motored seaplane in the fleet of 24 was that bearing General Italo Balbo, Italian air minister, high counselor of Mussolini and one of the world's foremost aviators. The lone black star on Balbo's plane had blazed the way in the first mass flight across the north Atlantic.

Rolph Orders State Search

MAN WANTED IN CONNECTION WITH DISAPPEARANCE OF YOUNG GIRL

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 15. (UP)—Police throughout the entire state were asked today to look for Eddie Doyle, Stockton, in connection with the disappearance of Helen Lyons, 13, Sacramento girl whom state authorities believe may have been slain.

Search for Doyle was spurred by Charles Stone, acting chief of the state bureau of criminal identification, who said a man seen with the girl near Merced a week ago may have been Doyle.

Girl Never Returns Doyle entered the case through his alleged identification as the man who helped the girl's father, William Lyons, Sacramento contractor, repair his automobile, then took Helen to lunch while the father awaited completion of the repairs.

The girl never returned from the luncheon trip. Five days later an automobile abandoned in Salinas was identified as the property of Doyle. Police also learned he had sent a telegram and a postcard from Watsonville to a Stockton girl.

Following Stone's announcement of the slaying theory, Governor James Rolph, Jr., directed a statewide quest for the missing man.

Filipino Cult Lodge Records Remain Secret

MARTINEZ, Cal., July 15. (UP)—Frustrated in its attempt to locate records of a Filipino lodge meeting wherein Mrs. Cecilia Navarro allegedly was sentenced to death, the state was expected to rest its case when the murder trial of seven Filipinos is resumed here Tuesday.

Minutes of the lodge meeting have been sought since Pablo Bustamante, chief prosecution informer, told authorities Mrs. Navarro was buried alive after being charged with infidelity. Officials and members of the lodge denied knowing what happened to the records.

The minutes, it was felt, would serve to bolster the state's claim that the lodge sentenced Mrs. Navarro to die because she violated a sacred code of the mysterious cult.

STATE CONTENTS YOUTH ADMITTED KILLING BAUCOM

Barrier Identified While On Stand As Killer of State Highway Officer

GRANTS PASS, July 15. (UP) Evidence that John Barrier, 17-year-old California boy, admitted killing Milo Baucum, state police officer, was presented in court today, the second day of the youth's trial on a charge of murder.

State Police Officer Raleigh Taylor, who took Barrier and his companion, Harry Bowles, 21, into custody after the shooting, July 1, told the court of a conversation he had with the boys at that time.

To Taylor's question of who shot Baucum, Taylor said Barrier answered, "I did."

Confessions Read When asked why, Taylor added, the youth replied, "I was afraid my mother would find out I had stolen a car."

Separate confessions of the two asserted slayers were read. Barrier, in his admitted killing the shots that caused Baucum's death, Bowles, in a 10-page statement, took none of the blame for the crime.

GRANTS PASS, July 15. (AP) Positively identifying John Barrier, 17, as the taller wearer of the darker overalls whom he recalled as the one who fired the shot that shot into State Policeman Milo Baucum's form slumped onto the highway from a bright-barreled revolver, L. E. Klump of the Greenback mine today set the stage for the evidence in the youth's murder trial in which the state is seeking a verdict calling for capital punishment.

He was followed to the witness stand by Jailer Fred Housh. (Continued on Page Three)

Forest Fire Near Olene Threatens Yellow Pine Stand

A forest fire which had its origin in a wood-cutting operation on the Jim Sumpter ranch two miles north of Olene Friday afternoon, swept through 150 acres of yellow pine reproduction and threatened large feeding yards on the Marshall place, as well as some of the Rex Borden holdings before it could be checked by the Klamath Forest Protective association crews and equipment and reinforcements called out from C. C. Camps.

According to Duncan McLean, district fire chief, the pine reproduction area, which has been looked upon as one of the finest future areas, was a total loss.

"Army" To Rescue. With fifteen recruits from the Civilian Conservation camp near Bly, caterpillar tractors, and the huge fire line drag, the destructive blaze was put under control early Saturday morning.

About 10 recruits were left stationed in the fire zone to guard the lines.

This is the first major forest fire of the 1932 season. (Continued on Page Three)

Higher Education Board Will Elect New Heads Monday

PORTLAND, July 15. (P)—Officers of the state board of higher education will be elected at the regular July meeting of the board to be held here Monday afternoon.

The officers of the present, vice-president and treasurer, now are held respectively by C. L. Starr, C. C. Colt and E. F. Irvine, who have served since creation of the board in 1925.

The Associated Press learned that it is possible that a secretary of the board from outside its membership may be selected to succeed Dr. E. H. Lindsey whose term expired July 1. For the past several months, during Dr. Lindsey's illness, Charles D. Byrne, director of the informational service of the entire educational system, has been serving as acting secretary.

Plane Hits Power Line, Lands Safely

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (UP)—An airplane with its propeller three inches out of line survived a terrific impact with a heavy power cable across Carquinez straits today and landed safely at Livermore airport.

Lester Nichols, Berkeley pilot, told the story of the midnight crash after searching parties spent hours in the vicinity of the straits seeking a plane that was thought to have fallen into the water.

Airmen expressed amazement at Nichols' feat in keeping the plane aloft after the accident.

Scandal Hits Jackson Hole

ROCKEFELLER, WORK AND ALTBRECHT CHARGED ON ILLEGAL ACTIONS

JACKSON, Wyo., July 15. (UP)—Within this little town of 532 persons—1930 census—a scandal assuming nation-wide proportions and involving famous figures of finance and public affairs may soon flare forth.

On July 31, there will assemble in the courtroom of the little courthouse in Jackson, county seat of Teton county, the most distinguished assemblage ever to gather in the Jackson Hole country.

Court of Senators Sitting as a court of inquiry will be half a dozen United States senators, and appearing before them as witnesses will be men whose names are known in every corner of the nation.

KIDNAPERS SEND NOTE FROM LUER

ALTON, Ill., July 15. (UP) August Luer, 77-year-old retired banker and meat packer who was kidnaped from his home here last Monday night, still is alive and a note signed in his handwriting has been received by negotiators from the kidnapers, the Luer family disclosed tonight.

In a statement issued by the family here it was made known that the kidnapers' note had been received too late to comply with the demands.

The abductors were asked tonight by the family to send new instructions immediately.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 15. (UP) The O'Connell kidnaping case remained a mystery tonight as the handsome young captives' politically-influential family continued its patient waiting for further word from the abductors.

Meanwhile, legislators told the United Press they were ready to support any movement to change the penalty for kidnaping from the present 10 to 50 year term to life imprisonment or even capital punishment.

Polar Explorer Leaves on Trip To Unmapped Area

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. (UP)—Lincoln Ellsworth, polar explorer and explorer, sailed today on the first leg of his great adventure, a flight over 3,000 miles of untracked, unmapped wastes in the Antarctic region.

Ellsworth was accompanied by his wife on the S. S. Lurline, bound for Australia and the Bay of Whales. The latter will be the base for the daring flight which the explorer and Bert Balchen, noted pilot, will make about December 15.

A Northrop low-wing monoplane powered by a single Wasp engine of 300 horsepower will be used in the trip, which, if all goes well, Ellsworth plans to complete in 20 hours.

One of Ellsworth's most noted Arctic expeditions was the Amundsen-Ellsworth-Noble trans-polar flight to Alaska in 1926.

THREE ARMEN OVER ATLANTIC FOR NEW MARKS

Wiley Post Flying Alone, Takes Off to Lower Around World Record

NEW YORK, July 15. (UP)—Wiley Post, flying alone, and Stephen Dairus and Stanley Girenas, in another plane, were somewhere over the Atlantic tonight, presumably running into light easterly winds in their separate attempts to new records.

Post was off on an ambitious try at circling the globe in less time than he made two years ago when he flying the grand tour with his flying companion, Harold Gatty.

Post Over Ocean Dairus and Girenas were attempting a non-stop flight to Kammas, Lithuania.

In a clear sky and with prospects of excellent weather ahead, Post passed the town of Brigus, on Conception bay at 1:30 p. m., then headed over the last strip of land to begin the Atlantic stage of his flight.

TORBAY, Newfoundland, July 15. (UP)—Wiley Post, American round-the-world flier, passed seaward from here on his flight toward Europe.

Post's airplane passed Torbay at 3:40 p. m., Newfoundland daylight time 1:10 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time), and headed out over the Atlantic.

CLAREVILLE TRINITY BAY, Newfoundland, July 15. (UP)—An airplane believed to be that piloted by Captain Stephen Dairus and Stanley Girenas, bound for Lithuania, passed over here at 1:45 p. m. (E. S. T.) today.

NEW YORK, July 15. (UP)—The monoplane Lithuania took off on a projected 4,000 mile non-stop flight to Lithuania today, without approval of the American government and with the prospect its co-pilots will subject themselves to a "spanking" if they should land in any country short of their goal.

President's Son Linked With Girl From Fort Worth

RENO, Nev., July 15. (UP)—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the president, will leave by airplane for Chicago Monday, immediately after his wife, Elizabeth Donner Roosevelt, obtains a divorce, the United Press learned today.

Co-incident with this information, it was reported without confirmation, that Young Roosevelt would meet Miss Ruth Googins of Fort Worth, Texas, in the Reno fair city.

The Fort Worth girl's name was linked with that of the president's son this spring when it first became known that there was a rift between Elliott and his wife, daughter of a Philadelphia steel magnate. He stopped off at Fort Worth while en route to the Pacific coast to become an airplane executive.

The Roosevelt-Googins reports were denied by circulated but subsequently.

Reward Offered On Information Of Lost Flier

PORTLAND, July 15. (UP)—In the hope woodmen or tourists might find the wreckage, a description of the missing plane flown by William B. Young, Portland pilot, was given out today.

Young took off from Medford June 18 last on a night flight to Portland and has not been seen or heard of since. A $500 reward is offered for recovery of his body.

His ship was a single-motored, silver and black Stinson monoplane bearing department of commerce numbers NC10820. The fuselage is black. Young was wearing an orange sweater and a tan leather jacket.
