OREGON EDITORS PLAYING AT COAST

NEWPORT, Ore., July 15. (AP)—Today was one of recreation for many of the publishers of Oregon's daily and weekly newspapers, as members of the Oregon State Editorial Association visited Waldport and Newport for the concluding day of their annual conference. The meeting will end tonight with a dinner here. At Waldport the editors were guests at a seafood luncheon.

Harris Ellsworth, editor of the Roseburg News-Review, and vice president of the association, the past year, was elected president of the group at Friday's business meeting. Hugh Ball, editor of the Hood River News, was elected first vice president; Ben R. Liffin, publisher, The Dalles Chronicle, was chosen treasurer.

Roseburg was selected as the 1934 convention city.

District vice president are Max Schaffer, Seaside; Signal; Jack Bladine, McMinnville Telephone-Register; C. F. Gollinger, Oregon City Enterprise; Elbert Bede, Cottage Grove Sentinel; A. E. Voorhies, Grants Pass Courier; L. E. Spraker, Condon Globe-Times; Miss May Johnson, Madras Pioneer; E. B. Aldrich, Pendleton East Oregonian; and George Aiken, Ontario Argus.

The Newberg Scribe was the winner of the 1933 Paul Kelly award for having maintained the best editorial page among the weeklies for the past year. Paul R. Kelly, editor of the Oregonian, announced the award.

SUPPLIES TURNED OVER. Supplies for the special election on July 21 have been turned over to the sheriff, and are being distributed to polling places over the county.

A restful nap immediately seals up any wounds in the bark and acts as an antiseptic dressing in coniferous trees.

National, Local Markets

WHEAT SOARS TOWARD $1.25 MART TODAY

CHICAGO, July 15. (AP)—Rising faster than a cent a bushel a minute, wheat soared a maximum of 5 1/2¢ today, and closed wildly. The finish was within a cent of the day's top, $1.23 1/2, just 1 1/2¢ under the dollar and a quarter mark at which many speculators had aimed as their immediate objective.

Almost the sole influence apparent for the sensational advance of prices and for a seldom equaled attendant volume of dealings was trade forecasts that Canada's wheat production this season would be approximately 30 per cent less than last year.

Closing quotations of wheat were 48c-51c above yesterday's finish, with corn 10c-12c up, oats showing 10c-12c advance, and provisions at a rise of 2c to 15c.

Wool Prices Firm, But Trade Duller

BOSTON, July 15. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—The wool market has tended slower in the past few days but prices remained firm at the recent advances. In the last ten days trading has lifted prices 3 to 7c secured basis on western grown wools and 1 to 2c in the grease on eastern fleeced wools. This represents an advance since the beginning of July of 3 to 5 per cent, stimulated largely by the rise at the dollar opening in London last week and by the sharp decline of the dollar in foreign exchange.

Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 15. (AP)—Financial markets took on renewed hope today as wheat prices again soared and business news continued highly cheerful. Stocks, a bit irregular at first, rallied under the leadership of specialists and closed firm with many gains ranging from 1 to 3 or more points. Trading volume was not pronounced; transfers approximating 2,600,000 shares.

Peggy Shannon as the smart, sophisticated social butterfly in whom love was one thing and money was another. "The Devil's Brother," Fox.

The stage of the Pelican Theatre is set for the personal appearance today of the Arizona Wranglers, who, in their inimitable way will treat Klamath Falls to forty-five minutes of "musical show," one performance being presented with each picture program during the afternoon and evening. Showing will be continuous after 1 o'clock, and prices will not be advanced.

On the screen, James Dunn, Spencer Tracy and Peggy Shannon deliver exceptional performances in "Society Girl," a fast moving comedy, wherein James Dunn, under the management of Spencer Tracy, slugs his way right into your heart, as well as into the arms of Peggy Shannon, lovable Irish miss. Spencer Tracy performs in a manner that steals the show in many spots. A great bill!

PINE TREE

Delightful comedy, with a liberal allowance of drama, makes the "Infernal Machine," new Fox Film production which opens at the Pine Tree Theatre today, one of the most enjoyable talking pictures offered to local audiences in some months.

Chester Morris and Genevieve Tobin head the cast, and both turn in exceptional performances. Miss Tobin, first revealed to the world as an excellent light comedienne in "One Hour With You," has a much stronger role in this picture and acquires herself with honors. Morris is always dependable and he is especially good in his comedy scenes. And we believe that Victor Jory's work is one of the current season's triumphs.

Others in the cast who contribute fine performances, include Elizabeth Patterson, James Bell, Edward Van Sloan, Arthur Hohl, Robert Littlefield and Josephine Whittell.

There was continued strength in the market for cub butter at the week-end. The late session of the produce exchange was generally without change for cub butter even though there was a general idea among the trade that an advance should be forced there. The exchange has all along been the weak spot of the butter trade locally inasmuch as some of its leaders have been doing the bulk of their marketing in the north and south and can make a showing only by keeping the price at Portland artificially low.

Trade in eggs continued to gain strength locally as well as along the coast generally. Late receipts continued their decrease. Exchange has all along been the weak spot of the butter trade locally inasmuch as some of its leaders have been doing the bulk of their marketing in the north and south and can make a showing only by keeping the price at Portland artificially low.

Demand for chickens was now steady here. Prices were unchanged to a fraction better in spots with all sorts cleaning up. Turkeys continued out of market generally with demand good. Quality of lettuce throughout the country and especially the smaller sizes which were bringing a premium in the east. The market was well supplied with pork to ordinary stuff.

Market for potatoes was holding fairly well locally as to price while demand was good. Home grown stock was increasing and quality was unusually good.

Portland Livestock

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15. (AP)—Cattle: 1731, calves 148 for week. Trade showed considerable strength during the period, sales ranging 10c to 25c higher in spots for both steers and 24c in spots. Other grades also showed improvement.
Hogs: 5016 for week. Best light butchers advanced at the week's opening to $5.50, or 45c higher than last week. There was strengthening influence all through the local trade in killers, while feeders were in demand at generally sharp advances.
Sheep and lambs: $393 for week. Trade in lambs held steady to strong with $6.50 still obtainable for top quality, notwithstanding weaker and somewhat lower prices reflected in eastern and mid-western markets. Mutton continued slow and generally without quotable change.
