National, Local Markets

WHEAT DROPS TO 90 CENTS PER BUSHEL
CHICAGO, July 20, (AP)—Wheat fell to 90 cents a bushel today, and only one delivery—May—rallied to close above $1.00.

Three separate outbreaks of panic selling or speculative holdings of wheat took place, one at the opening, another about noon, and a third as the market closed. The severest break in any delivery of wheat was in September compared with yesterday.

Coincident with the latest downward plunge were reports that the administration was considering measures for the regulation of the country's exchanges.

Wheat closed excited, at prices ranging from the day's bottom figures to 2 1/2 above. Last quotations were 12c to 16c under yesterday's finish for wheat, with corn 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c down; oats, 5/8c to 5/16c off, and provisions showing 3/8c to 1/16c decline.

Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 20, (AP)—Stocks plunged downward on the basis of thick clouds of gloom today as grains and cotton suffered their worst collapse of the year and the dollar soared in foreign exchange markets. There was a moderate comeback in the morning and in the last hour, but the close was weak. General losses ranged from 2 to 10 points, with some of the alcohol off 7 to more than 20. Transfers approximated 4,600,000 shares of common stock.

OPEN MARKET PRICE HIGHER FOR BUTTER
PORTLAND, July 20, (AP)—Sales of butter were no longer being generally made on the basis of the prices quoted on the produce exchange for the reason that open market prices were higher than the former officially listed.

The differential between top and bottom scores was considered too great, and the latter were selling at a wider premium on the open market than other offerings. Butterfat values were firmer, with premiums continued.

Trading in eggs appeared steady, but there remained a mixture of prices. Despite the assurance of the trade that storage eggs were not being withdrawn, the official report showed otherwise.
