I BELIEVE—that "THE MAYOR OF HELL" is a masterpiece of the screen.
I BELIEVE—
this is JAMES CAGNEY'S most powerful picture with his greatest dramatic performance since "Public Enemy."
I BELIEVE—it will raise greater furore, will arouse more hot discussion and inspire more editorials than any other motion picture ever made.
I BELIEVE—that its measure of dramatic appeal has justified its presentation to Klamath Falls audience, at the Pelican Theatre, Sunday and Monday, less than thirty days after its world premier.
Sincerely,
H. W. Poole

LEGION OFFICERS VISIT KLAMATH

Paul B. McDonald and H. L. Bromley, well known Legionnaires of Medford, Ore., are spending a few days in Klamath Falls assisting the local convention commission in formulating final plans for the state Legion convention to be held here next month.

McDonald was chairman of the convention commission, and Bromley post commander of the Medford post in 1928 when that city staged one of the most successful state conventions ever held in Oregon.

McDonald, who is state vice-commander of the department of Oregon, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for state commander at the annual election to be held during convention.
