Braucher's Sport Gossip

NEW YORK, July 22.—A good time was had by all when Lyle "Bud" Tinning reported at the training camp of the Cubs in spring.

Baseball writers called him the Fatty Fothergill of the National league. Stories which pictured Tinning as a baby blimp, a ten-ton truck, an overstuffed sausage, were sent out to amuse the readers. One wrote that Bud needed only plete the illusion of a box car. some number like 486927 to complete the illusion of a box car.

Tinning ate and ate, and when through eating ate some more. Then Manager Charlie Grimm, after scanning the grocery checks, ordered a moratorum on mastication. Tinning was placed on a diet. He was given a rubber shirt to be his constant companion.

Serious things began happening to the Cubs, and Tinning was lost to public scorn for a time. Cuyler snapped a bone, Grimm came up one morning with a lame back which would not unwind itself, Babe Herman went into a tailspin. There were many things to write about besides Tinning's tonnage.

• • •

Tinning took off the pounds, one by one, and as he shed the superfluous flesh he began to pitch better ball. After he had won three games in a row, the scorekeepers started to forget that he looked like Falstaff.

He inspired his brother Cubs to a comeback as he won game after game with airtight pitching. The Chicagoans, almost counted out of the race, suddenly began to figure in the heat of the drive. Tinning won eight games in a row. The Cubs regained the poise of champions.

• • •

Tinning came to the Cubs last year when Rogers Hornsby was manager. He had come up from Des Moines with a record as fat as himself, 24 games won and two lost. During most of the Rajah's regime, however, he was kept in the bull pen. When Grimm became manager he gave Tinning a starting assignment, and was rewarded with the right answer.

Tinning got into the world series last fall as relief man, and his calm pitching in two crises was admirable. In the ninth inning of the third game, he replaced Jakie May with two men on bases in the ninth. The fat boy disposed of Crosetti and Piperas easily.

Again in the fourth game he was called in when the Yankees ran wild in the seventh inning. The bases were full and there was one out, with Lazzeri, a dangerous hitter, at the plate. Tinning took Tony's roller and forced Sewell at the plate. Then he struck out Dickey. He followed that up by pitching a scoreless eighth inning, and left the game in favor of a pinch hitter.

If the Cubs finally do reach the top when October comes, Tinning may be one of Grimm's best bets to start a ball game.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 22 (U.P.)—Carlos Gonzales, 132, Phoenix, won a fourth round kayo over Clint Yarbeough, 133, of El Paso, Tex., in the main event fight here last night. Gonzales won easily after solving Yarbough's style in the first round.

EQUIPOISE IS RACE WINNER

Great Horse Overcomes Weight Handicap at Arlington

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, July 22. (UP) — Down the stretch, Equipoise, 135 pounds and all, came bounding to victory today in the $10,000 added Arlington handicap before a throng of 25,000 persons.

At the end of the mile and a quarter route, Equipoise, an odds-on favorite, had negotiated the distance, under one of the greatest weight handicaps ever placed on any horse, in the astounding time of 2 minutes 2 3-5 seconds, one of the greatest achievements in American turf history.

"Watch Him" Next

C. V. Whitney's 5-year-old thoroughbred, ranked by many as a greater horse than Man o' War, finished a length and a half ahead of Mrs. John D. Hertz's 4-year-old colt, Watch Him, with Norman W. Church's entry of Gallant Sir and Plucky Play, third and fourth, respectively, five lengths back of the second horse. Gallant Sir, Agua Caliente handicap winner and champion of the west, finished a nose in front of his stable mate, Plucky Play, which won the Arlington handicap last year.

The victory, which was the fourth straight this year for Equipoise was worth $9,260 and increased his total winnings to $294,820, making him fourth largest money winner on the American turf and the fifth largest in the world.

Sun Beau is the world's largest money winner with a total of $376,644, followed by Phar Lap, Gallant Fox, Zev and Equipoise.

Real Champion

With Sonny Workman, in his Eton blue jacket and brown cap, snuggling close to Equipoise's chestnut neck, C. V. Whitney's great racing steed galloped to victory like a real champion.

Equipoise broke in fifth place, and reached the first turn in that position. Dark Secret was the early leader, followed by Gallant Sir, and Watch Him. Gallant Sir moved ahead as the field rounded into the back stretch, but held it only momentarily as Watch Him, a 151-shot, went to the front.

Watch Him rounded the last turn ahead, with Equipoise at his flanks, and Gallant Sir third. Earl Steffen, upon Watch Him, which carried 102 pounds, 32 less than Equipoise, went to the bat in an effort to keep his mount ahead. But Equipoise was coming by leaps and bounds.

At the 16th pole, Equipoise took the lead, and moved away to win by a length and a half. Gallant Sir just barely lasted to take third money from his stable mate, Plucky Play, who had loosened a shoe in the paddock and held up the race 10 minutes while he was being reshod.

Equipoise paid $3.50 to win, $3.72 to place, and $2.58 to show. Watch Him paid $9.52 to place, and $3.56 to show. Gallant Sir paid $2.54 to show.

A field of seven went to the post, including the two-horse entry of Norman W. Church. A total of $93,774 was wagered on the Arlington handicap, with the day's wagering estimated at more than half a million dollars.

DUTCH COURAGE . . . . By Laufer

After winning something like 127 fights in a row, Bep Van Klaveren, an invader from Holland, naturally was irked when a New York boxing commission physician ordered his recent bout with Billy Petrolle stopped in the fourth round. Bep had a little cut over his eye, and begged to be allowed to continue, but Doc said no. Now the Rotterdam Windmill wants another crack at Petrolle and a chance at the championship. He was leading the Fargo Flyer on points when the bout was stopped.

TWO RECORDS BEATEN AS WOMEN STARS MEET IN N. Y. SWIM EVENT

JONES BEACH, N. Y., July 22. (U.P.) — Two world records were scuttled and sent to the bottom of Zach's Bay last night as the country's greatest mermaids churned the sheltered waters before 15,000 spectators in the second day of the women's national A. A. U. swimming championships.

Eleanor Holm

The first, and most noteworthy record smashing performance came when Lenore Knight, the Homestead, Pa., sprite, splashed her way to victory in the 440-yard free style in the amazing time of 5:33.6. Her mark was almost six full seconds under the standard established by Helene Madison of Seattle who before she turned professional to delight the world's fair crowds, was rated as the greatest woman swimmer this country had ever produced.

The second world mark fell when Eleanor Holm of New York and Hollywood, successfully defended her 220-yard backstroke championship. Miss Holm's victory was a complete answer to those critics who said her visit to the movie lots would cost her the title, for she negotiated the distance in 2:57.2, six tenths of a second faster than the mark she set in Arizona last year.

BOSTON'S BALL CLUBS HIT WINNING STREAKS; BRAVES BLANK CARDS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Boston's two ball clubs are winning, puzzled fans wonder why they aren't higher up in the standings.

They offered a sample of what they can do at their best when the Braves blanked the St. Louis Cardinals 7 to 0 Friday on the three hit pitching of Huck Betts and the Red Sox whaled Chicago's White Hose 12 to 2. But when the returns were in, the Nationals were in fifth place, 7½ games behind the league leading New York Giants and the Red Sox, in seventh.

Yanks, Solons Locked

Meanwhile the Yankees and Senators continued their deadlock by winning lopsided victories and the Giants increased their National league margin by taking an exciting game from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6 to 5 when Mel Ott's single with the bases loaded brought in the tying and winning runs in the ninth.

Starting with Lou Gehrig's 18th homer, his first in a month, in the first inning the Yankees pounded out a 10 to 2 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Russell Van Atta held Cleveland to three hits until he was rendered hors de combat by Odell Hale's liner in the seventh, then Wiley Moore finished, giving two more. Van Atta suffered a broken blood vessel in his pitching arm and probably will be out for a couple of weeks.

Reds Advance

Earl Whitehill pitched steadily to give Washington a 7-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers while Buddy Myer's triple with the bases full in the second started the scoring.

Cincinnati moved from eighth place to sixth in the National league with a 2 to 1 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The St. Louis Browns went 12 innings to gain a 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics when Bruce Campbell started a three run rally by making his fourth hit after two were out. Max Bishop's homer brought in all the A's runs.

HOLLYWOOD, July 22 (U.P.)—After dropping the first three rounds, Baby Arizmendi, Mexican boxer, got down to business and took the remaining seven rounds and an easy decision over Baby Palmore, Ventura, Calif., in the main event at Hollywood American Legion stadium last night.

Ducks Capture Contest Of Three Blows; Marks Boosted

By The Associated Press

Portland and the Missions held the Coast league spotlight despite the fact that Joe De Maggio of San Francisco and Jim Oglesby of Los Angeles had run their consecutive hitting marks to 57 and 43, respectively.

The 1932 champions and the Reds played one of the greatest games of the year last night at San Francisco with the Beavers winning 1-0 on an unearned tally. The two teams collected only three hits, the Portlanders getting one and the Missions two.

Babich in Form

Johnny Babich turned in one of his finest pitching performances, holding the Beavers hitless until Earl Sheely singled in the ninth. The young Mission right-hander literally threw the game away in the second when he walked Johnny Monroe and then threw wide to second. Monroe went to third and scored on Palmisano's long fly. Orv Mohler's triple and Louie Almada's single were the only hits off Sam Gibson.

De Maggio made it 57 straight with an infield single as Sacramento nosed out San Francisco, 7-6.

Oglesby banged out a double and single and scored three runs as Los Angeles captured a slugfest at Oakland, 11-10.

Hollywood lost ground in the pennant race, dividing a doubleheader with Seattle. Vance Page's 5-hit tossing gave the Stars the opener, 4-2. Although outhit 10-4 in the 7-inning nightcap, the Indians came back to win 5-4.

Schmeling, Baer May Fight Again

FRESNO, Calif., July 22 (U.P.)—Plans for a return match between Max Baer and Max Schmeling, former world heavyweight champion, to be held in San Francisco or Los Angeles, are merely in the formative stage, Jack Dempsey said today as he paused here while enroute to Los Angeles with his beautiful blonde bride.

"They may fall through," he said, "unless we can arrange the right kind of backing."

Dempsey, former champion turned promoter, said he may go on a tour with Baer after his honeymoon with Hanna Williams, the "cheerful little earful" of Broadway.

While he answered questions and helped mechanics replace a broken fan belt, Mrs. Dempsey dozed in their expensive car. They did not indicate how long they would remain in southern California.

LAVA BEDS ROADS WILL BE REPAIRED

Sixty years ago the Modoc Indian war raged around the lava bed country and within sight of the new Bearpaw camp and soldiers of the First U.
