

Promoter Signs New Cities

Mack Lillard Extends Matchmaking Activities. Wong Bock Cheung Leaves for Hawaiian Islands.

Individual enterprise has established Mack Lillard as the leading promoter in Oregon outside of Portland.

Lillard has contracts in Medford, Roseburg and Klamath Falls and within the next few days he expects to add Marshfield to his increasing string.

Lillard came to Klamath Falls directly from Marshfield where he built up a record of attendance.

Now Marshfield is a little dissatisfied with his professional athletics and may ask Lillard to return.

Klamath Falls and Medford probably will stand as the two southern Oregon cities maintaining weekly shows.

Unfortunately, Klamath Falls wrestling fans won't have an opportunity to see Wong Bock Cheung again for some time.

Wong's match with Karasick, no need to mention, was one of his most difficult on the Pacific coast.

Frankie Monroe, the most outstanding boxer produced for some time in this district, will fight for the light-heavyweight championship of the state Friday night.

There is nothing official about these "state title bouts," but this one will be sufficient to prove that Monroe has risen rapidly in northwest boxing since he left Klamath Falls several weeks ago.

He has conducted a successful tour of the northwest, winning the majority of his matches by knockouts.

Eugene Burrows, the red-headed boy who played blocking back for the Pelicans last season, has returned to Klamath Falls ready for another football season.

Barrows spent the summer at Lassen National park and will be in excellent condition when the first practice is called in about three weeks.

The red-headed boy, handicapped last season by an injury, may become a candidate for quarterback. This will be one position badly in need of candidates, for it will take an outstanding boy to replace Louis McAlinch.

Barrows appears to have the necessary qualifications.

Sitting in a draft does not cause a cold; the chilling of the body which the draft produces lowers the powers of resistance and germs which were hitherto harmless then produce their disastrous effects.

BRAVES PUSH TOWARD LEAD

Boston Clips Another Half Game From Giant Margin

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

With a crowd of 40,000 urging them on, the Braves hung up their eighth successive win as Tom Zachary pitched a 7-0 shutout over the Cincinnati Reds in the first game of a double-header Sunday but the Reds came back to snare the second, 5-3.

Giants Lose Two Their even split still enabled the Braves to pick up a half a game on the Giants who dropped the first game to a twin bill to Dixie Dean and the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-1, and then were lucky enough to get a 5-5 draw in the second battle, halted by darkness after eight innings.

The veteran Zachary turned in one of his most impressive performances as he blanked the Reds with four hits while his teammates clubbed Paul Derriinger out of the box with a six-run attack in the fifth.

Dean stopped the Giants with six hits and fanned six in the opening game while his mates bombarded Hal Schumacher and Glenn Pender for 15 safeties, one a homer by George Watkins.

Cubs, Robins Split Dean stopped the Giants with six hits and fanned six in the opening game while his mates bombarded Hal Schumacher and Glenn Pender for 15 safeties.

Brooklyn divided a double-header with the Chicago Cubs, bowing 2-9 to the two-hit pitching of Ray Smith, the opener but winning the second, 9-2 on a 13-hit attack on Bud Tinning and Leroy Herrmann.

Senators Move On The American league situation remained unchanged as both the Washington Senators and New York Yankees split double-headers, leaving the Senators still eight games in front.

A crowd of 80,000 saw the Senators bunch 13 hits with nine Cleveland errors to win the first game 14-1 as Earl Whitehill scattered nine Indian hits.

Al Simmons collected five hits and drove in six runs as the Chicago White Sox took both games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-3 and 9-8. His double in the fifth inning of the opener drove in two runs and gave the Sox taking the first game, 7-5, and St. Louis the nightcap, 5-3.
