Cast in the mould of the pictures which have been Ruth Chatterton's most consplictous successes, and have made hers a name to conjure with wherever lovers of fine acting are assembled. "Frisco Jenny," at the Rainbow theatre today, ranks as her outstanding work to date. "Frisco Jenny" is the story of a woman who ruled the vice element of a city. The sweep of the drama takes it across a quarter of a century of human life. Opening on the eve of the Great Fire that laid San Francisco waste in 1906—the days when the Barbary Coast flourish—the competition, followed by sky-rocketing prices.

"There has been much discussion throughout the country in regard to gasoline prices."

"Gasoline is a natural resource and a public necessity in this period of our civilization. It would seem that if the legislature would declare dealers in assoline to be public utilities, the sale would be under the regulatory body.

"The sale price would be limited to the basic theory of refuging the prices was an accessary expenditures in connection with the business have been provided for." Rainbow -- Now playing, Ruth Chatterion in "Tiseo Jenny."
