

BRUTAL WAVE OF SLAYINGS HITS COUNTRY

LA GRANDE, Ore., Sept. 11. (AP)—John Allen, well known resident of Cove and father of Leonard Allen, assistant state club leader at Corvallis, was found dead in his farm home half a mile west of Cove yesterday afternoon by another son, Royal. The body was bound and garroted and the house in disorder.

A bruise on his head indicated he had been struck with a club or some other weapon, officers reported.

Robbery Believed Motive
Officers were working on the belief that Allen, about seventy years of age and somewhat of a recluse, was killed by a robber. Death is believed to have occurred Friday night, but as Allen lived alone and had no near neighbors, the crime was not discovered until Sunday when his son dropped in for a visit.

Cove People Horrified
The kitchen showed evidence of a struggle although the body was found in another room. There was no indication that Allen had had any large sum of money in the house.

This is the first murder at Cove, a little town in the southeast corner of the Grande Ronde valley, in half a century and residents were horrified at news of Allen's death.

RIPLEY, W. Va., Sept. 11. (AP)—Beaten and shot to death, the bodies of the Rev. A. M. Eddy, and his wife were found at their home at Grace Fork today.

Mr. Eddy, pastor of the Mt. Hope Church of God, had been shot to death while sleeping. Indications were that his wife was awakened by the shots and fled.

She had been pursued and shot again as she fled down the highway. Then, officers said, her assailant beat her over the head with a shotgun.

The weapon, shattered by repeated blows at Mrs. Eddy, was found beside her body in the seat of a small car.

Officers said the gun had been identified as one borrowed from a neighbor several weeks ago by the minister's son, Ralph, 16. Ralph could not be located nor could the small automobile be found. Search for the youth was started immediately.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Sept. 11. (AP)—From a 48-year-old nurse, who police said admitted "trialing" Francis Joseph Morgan Grace, Sr., retired capitalist, until she killed him, authorities here today sought a motive for the slaying.

The nurse, Miss Frida Wilhelmina Augusta Weitz, accused of fatally shooting Grace in the garden of his summer home Saturday night, refused to give a reason for the slaying, District Attorney Frank Murphy said.

Murphy said Miss Weitz, who was discharged 18 months ago by Grace from the position as his nurse, admitted she had planned to kill him since that time.

"I had good and sufficient reasons to kill him," the district attorney quoted her as saying, "but I wouldn't tell the reasons to my most intimate friend."

CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—A bridegroom of seven weeks hacked to death his bride and her daughter by a previous marriage today.

The police, summoned to investigate a turmoil in their apartment, found Mrs. Lillian Kowalsczek, 46, and her daughter Anna Nicholas, dead of axe wounds. The girl had been killed as she slept.

In the back yard the officers found Peter Kowalsczek, 42, still clutching the axe. He surrendered without a fight.

Lieut. John Farrell said the man readily admitted the crime, and appeared dazed or drunk. He said he was jealous of his wife.

"Already she go around with other men," Kowalsczek was quoted, "I can't stand it any longer so I kill her."

The road from the southern camp to Big Bay is extremely rough in spots. The trip from the camp to Detroit probably would require 14 or 15 hours, and, since the motor magnate was reported in West Branch Sunday, it was believed here that he had plenty of time to arrive today at his Dearborn offices.

FORD HIDES ON JOURNEY TO DETROIT

DETROIT, Sept. 11. (AP)—Emphatic denial was made today at the offices of the Ford Motor company of the statement that Henry Ford had eluded observers at his Huron mountain vacation lodge Saturday by departing in a trailer, concealed by a canvas covering. The statement that Mr. Ford had used the trailer to escape would-be questioners was attributed to a fellow member of the Huron Mountain club.

FORD HIDES IN TRAILER
BIG BAY, Mich., Sept. 11. (AP)—Eluding questioners by hiding under canvas in an automobile trailer, Henry Ford left his Huron Mountain vacation camp here Saturday noon for a return trip to Detroit, it was learned today.

A fellow member of the Huron Mountain lodge, where the motor magnate and his wife spent the past three weeks in a secluded region of Michigan's upper peninsula, revealed today that the motor magnate slipped away from questioning by hiding in the trailer as it was drawn through Big Bay, six miles from the camp.

Departure Quiet One
None of the camp residents, the member said, knew Ford had departed until several hours later. Advice that he spent a part of Sunday in West Branch, Mich., was the first that residents here knew of his departure.

The member indicated that in the trailer was attached were Mrs. Ford and George Burns, Ford's personal chauffeur. The trailer, he said, apparently was dropped near Marquette, 40 miles to the southeast.

Ford, it was indicated, seemingly was determined to prevent questioners from conversing with him regarding his company's stand on the NRA automotive code, and adopted the method of eluding them partially in a spirit of fun and partly as a means of preventing any attempts at questioning.

The club member, who would not permit the use of his name, said Ford got in the trailer as it neared the Huron Mountain camp, and apparently remained under the canvas covering until after the equipage passed Big Bay, where several would-be questioners were stationed.

OREGON'S WORKS PROGRAM PREPARED

SALEM, Sept. 11. (AP)—Plans for the first major public works project, estimated in excess of $5,000,000, to put unemployed in Oregon to work, will be in the hands of the federal officials Wednesday of this week.

R. H. Baldoock, state highway engineer, announced today. Specification and designs of the five coast bridges will be sent to the bureau in Portland on that day.

Baldoock stated, outside of roads, this project was the first ready for action, and the state was prepared to go ahead with the work as soon as approval was given. It was learned today the Waldport span, the first for which plans were prepared and sent to federal public works officials some time ago, had not yet been approved.

INFORMATION ON HOG PLAN BROUGHT HERE

Information has just been received at the county agent's office that meat processors at North Portland have been designated by the secretary of agriculture to purchase pigs and piggy sows from growers under the government hog reduction plan. Information received states that during the week ending September 16th, 2,000 pigs weighing from 25 to 80 pounds, and 1,500 pigs weighing from 81 to 100 pounds, or 600 visibly piggy sows weighing 240 pounds and over, will be accepted at the North Portland plants.

However, before shipment it is necessary for all original owners of the pigs to obtain permits from some commission firm at North Portland by wire or otherwise, and such permits for shipment must be evidenced by a letter or telegram to the original owner. This regulation has been put into effect at all receiving stations designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Act to prevent congesting the receiving stations.

An equal number of pigs or piggy sows, as indicated above, will be received at North Portland during the week ending September 23.

The schedule of premium prices for pigs, based on the rate at Chicago, varies from $9.50 per cwt. for pigs weighing between 25 and 30 pounds to $6.00 per cwt. for pigs weighing from 95 to 100 pounds. The price paid for piggy sows is the market price without any dockage and a $4.00 per head premium. The minimum weight of sows accepted under this plan is now taken at 240 pounds. The North Portland market will pay 60 cents per cwt. less than the Chicago price on pigs, due to the freight differential. A grower would then receive the Chicago price less the 60 cents per cwt., and also less any local transportation and commission charges.

It has been emphasized, however, that all growers must receive permits from processing firms before shipping their hogs, in order that they can be safely handled at destination.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW HELD TODAY

More than 100 garden enthusiasts and flower lovers met at luncheon Monday for the first fall meeting of the Women's Library club and annual flower show, at the city library.

Colorful late summer and autumn blossoms, displayed in charming table arrangements, artistic bouquets and gorgeous massed effects, were in profusion in the club rooms, and judging of the finest arrangements was scheduled for early afternoon.

Mrs. R. C. Grosbeck, newly elected president of the Library club, presided at the luncheon, and Mrs. V. J. Josephson was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. L. L. Hendricks was chairman in charge of the flower show.

Flowers were to be judged in two classifications, table arrangements and artistic bouquets, with every one present given the privilege of casting a ballot. The public was cordially invited to call at the library between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 o'clock to view the lovely flowers, and following the show the blossoms were taken to the library reading rooms to be enjoyed by all visitors.

MASKED ROBBERS LOOT CASH BOXES

ST. PAUL, Sept. 11. (AP)—Eight masked robbers held up two Railway Express company employes at the door of their office today, escaping with two large cash boxes which the police said contained between $60,000 and $100,000.

Cash boxes were on a hand truck outside the door of the express company office, near the union station, ready to be taken to Minneapolis.

Police said the eight men backed a big sedan under the depot concourse, not far from the express company office.

As T. J. Mansan, a guard, and S. Moles, messenger, opened the door of the office to wheel out the truck carrying the cash container, five robbers surrounded him.

The leader, armed with a sawed off shotgun, commanded the company employes, "Stick 'em up and face the wall."

Two men guarded the victims while the others loaded the cash boxes into the automobile.

Conditions look much better here, than in the mid-western states, Mattern declared. He has spent several days visiting with Klamath farmers discussing general farm conditions.

HOUSEKEEPING is unexciting work at best . . . why make it harder by lack of light, cupboards, closets, coffee? It doesn't pay to grope in the dark. Lamps cost only half what they did six years ago. Electric light costs only one-hundredth as much as the same amount of light from candles. Improper lighting makes the children's school work harder. A writer in the New York Medical Journal says, "By far the larger proportion of functional digestive disorders in the young are due to eye-strain." Some authorities even go so far as to say that poor eye-sight is often to blame for seeming stupidity, reticence and timidity.
