

Frank Monroe Has Unlucky September

Rarely Defeated Klamath Lightweight Loses Two Bouts. Pittsburgh, Southern California, Tennessee and Michigan Selected as Winners.

Two uncommon things have happened in the life of Frankie Monroe, Klamath lightweight, this last month. He has been beaten twice, and each time it was a decisive defeat.

Frankie's bad month of September started in a ten-round struggle against Ah Wing Lee, the Chinese youth who set down Billy Townsend at Portland on Tuesday night. Ah Wing, of course, was a favorite, but no one considered he would put Frankie on the floor four times.

Monroe's second loss of the month came Tuesday night in a preliminary to the Ah Wing Lee-Townsend main event. Tiger Cody, a lightweight from Butte, Mont., technicalized this rarely defeated Klamath boxer in the first round of the six-round schedule.

Just what happened to Frankie has not been discovered, but apparently it was something very potent wrapped up in a leather glove.

They say Monroe had never been knocked off his feet until he met Ah Wing Lee's left hook.

Another boxer, who has appeared quite frequently in the Legion hall ring, was walloped for the second time this month. This was Johnny Smith of Portland, and the man who trimmed him twice was Elmer Brown, the St. Paul featherweight.

Brown scored his first victory here in the windup to the Ah Wing Lee-Monroe bout and the knockout came just after the start of the opening round. The St. Paul lad, as hard a hitter as he is fast, crashed another across to knock out Snell again in the first round.

Three United Press football writers, representing the Far West, Mid-West, South and East, have selected what they describe as the outstanding teams for the season. Since the season hasn't even started, they apparently have based their opinions on lines drawn last season.

Pacific coast—Southern California. Mid-West—Michigan. South—Tennessee. East—Pittsburgh.

George Beale, coast writer, speaking on Southern California:

"Jones has tackles galore to replace Ernie Smith and Tay Brown. Chief of these are Houston Harper, George Lady and Bob Erskine, all of whom are lettermen and capable of making the grade as well as Ernie and Tay. Besides, Jones still has Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, brilliant ends; Homer Griffith, ace quarterback, to mention only a few of his stars."

Beale ranks Washington State next to the Trojans, and mentions Oregon, St. Mary's, Stanford and U. C. L. A. as contenders.

Hopes of Pittsburgh to retain its high eastern and national ranking depends largely upon Coach Jack Sutherland's ability to find or develop a man to take the place of Warren Heller, who ran the 1932 team from halfback position. Leo Maloney, versatile quarterback, is being groomed for the job. Pitt's other major loss came in graduation to Ted Dalley, the end who scored the second touchdown in the Panther 12-0 victory over Notre Dame. Harvey Rucker is expected to fill the job.

Colgate, undefeated, untied and unscored on in 1932, had its smooth clicking eleven ridden by graduates, and Coach Andy Kerr will have a tremendous job to make another showing as brilliant as last year. There are plenty of aspirants for major eastern honors. Army is one, but Coach Gar Davison said recently that the team was "coming along only so-so."

Navy, believing it has its best chance in years to beat the Army, has a number of veterans which may go far. New Yorkers are divided between Fordham and N. Y. U., and both should be strong.

George Kirksey, Mid-Western expert, predicts plenty of competition for the leadership in his section. Michigan, Big Ten champion last year, again will be a favorite, despite the loss of Harry Newman, all-America quarterback.

Notre Dame, according to Kirksey, will have another great team.

If the Notre Dame crop of sophomores live up to expectations the South Bend team will maintain its status as champions," Kirksey says. "Some of the sophomores are expected to crowd some of last year's regulars out of their jobs. Among them are Andy Pliny, halfback, and Don Elser, fullback.

Tennessee and Auburn were the "tops" of the South last year. Valde Lyle of the United Press Atlanta office predicts that Tennessee will repeat, and names Alabama and L. S. U. as others probable to figure in the fight. L. S. U. was unbeaten and untied last year, but its schedule was none too imposing. However, this year's tests will be more difficult.

Like many others, Coach Bob Neyland at Tennessee has tackle trouble. He lost Aikens and Franklin, two real stand-

BOXING AH WING LEE WINS IN NORTH

Chinese Athlete Scores Decision Over Bill Townsend

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20. (AP)—Coming from behind after losing the opening rounds, Ah Wing Lee, 138, Portland Chinese, finished strong to win the referee's decision from Billy Townsend, 141 1/2, Vancouver, B. C., in the 10-round main event of last night's fight program here.

Lee drove a hard left to Townsend's chin in the first round that had the Canadian wobble, but he failed to follow up his advantage, and Townsend took the round, scoring long rights to the head.

Lee Outboxed Townsend outboxed Lee thru the fourth and fifth. In the sixth he switched to a body attack that had Lee gasping, but the Chinese fighter rallied in the seventh, then launched an attack in the eighth round that finally resulted in victory.

Lee piled up enough points in the eighth and ninth to even the match, then added the deciding points in the last round, with a series of steaming lefts to the body and the chin that had Townsend covering in all corners of the ring.

Monroe Beaten "Chalky" Wright, 127, of Los Angeles, and Allan Foston, 125, of Vancouver, B. C., fought eight rounds to a draw in the semi-windup. Each appeared cautious throughout the fight.

Johnny Higgins, 137, Portland, won a four-round decision from Roy Oelley, 127, Portland. Ray Cody, 127, Portland, won a technical knockout over Frankie Monroe, 126, Klamath Falls, in the first round of a scheduled four-round bout. Ray Morgan, 154, Portland, and Jack Drews, 147, Portland, went four rounds to a draw. Rollie Westerman, 122, Popland, took the decision from Rosy Montag, 140, Portland, in the four-round opener.

Dempsey Seeks King Levinsky For Baer Fight

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—Jack Dempsey wired King Levinsky in Chicago offering him a bout with Max Baer Nov. 21.

The former heavyweight champion said he was negotiating with Anell Hoffman, manager of Baer, with an offer of 25 per cent of the gate. Levinsky was offered 20 per cent.

"If we can line up the two fighters we will hold the bout at Wrigley Field ball park," Dempsey said.

Dempsey believed Levinsky would accept the offer but anticipated more trouble from Baer because of his hopes for a title bout with Primo Carnera. Baer won the decision over Levinsky in a 20-round bout at Reno last year, but Levinsky has materially improved since then as seen by his victory over Jack Sharkey.

Chinook Salmon Return To State Fish Hatchery

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20 (AP)—Proof that salmon return to their birthplaces to spawn was found when 1000 big Royal Chinook salmon returned to the Bonneville state hatchery.

The fish which averaged 30 pounds apiece, were but 2 1/2 inches long when they were planted in the Columbia river four years ago. Not a single fish was lost to geographic sense, but an acute taste of water brings them back, according to Hugh C. Mitchell, fish culture director of the state fish commission.

St. Joseph Wins Western Pennant

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 20 (AP)—St. Joseph won the Western league playoff with a 7 to 6 victory over Topeka in the fifth game of the series. The Missouri club won four of the five games.

ROCHESTER WINS ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Rochester beat Buffalo, 6 to 3, in the third game of their playoff for the International league pennant, giving the Wings an advantage of two games to one in their best four out of seven series.

Dr. Leo DeForest invented the vacuum tube in 1912, and this was followed by the development of the radio.

outs. Howard Bailey, a big, tough youngster, is due to replace one of them.

Auburn seemed to be the best in the South last year until tied by South Carolina, and its chances to go through unbeaten and untied again depend largely upon Coach Chet Wynne's ability to get a punter to replace the brilliant Jimmy Hitchcock.

Alabama has a host of veterans available, but will miss John (Harry) Cain, dependable fullback.

Buck Newsom Wins Thirty Games for L. A.

By The Associated Press There was no one to deny Buck Newsom's early season assertion that the fast ball he brought from Chicago would burn up the Coast league.

The big Los Angeles right-hander Tuesday night became the first Coast leaguer of the season to win 30 games as he stopped Hollywood 5-3 for his 14th straight victory, bringing him within two games of the circuit's consecutive game pitching record set by Frank Browning of San Francisco in 1933.

Dozen Hits Granted Newsom granted an even dozen hits but put on enough pressure in the pinches to allow only one earned run. The Angels collected only seven safeties off Archie Campbell and John Miljus but two of them were home runs by Ted Stainback and Gene Lillard. Five Hollywood errors had no bearing on the Angel victory, which increased their first place margin over the Stars to five games.

The Seals and Missions resumed their battle for sixth place and the San Francisco championship with a 15-inning tussle that ended 10-9 in the Seals' favor. Leo Osterberg's single scored Catcher Bottarini with the winning run. This was the only run scored after the Reds tied the count at 9-all in the seventh. Lefty Douglas for the Seals and Dutch Lieber for the Missions hurled the 1st at 7 innings.

Ducks Landed Out Oakland landed on Ulrich for five runs in the first three innings at Seattle and then coasted through to win 10-4. Four baggers by Veltman and Ubalt and a triple by Veltman accounted for half of the Oakland tally. Roy Joiner scattered the Indians' 11 hits over 3 innings. Sacramento and Portland were rained out.

Boxing Notables Attend Funeral

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Notables of the boxing world, including members of the New York boxing commission, attended the funeral of the late Louis F. Magnolia, famous boxing referee.

A requiem mass was held at St. Francis de Sales church, Belle Harbor, and burial was in St. John's cemetery.

Magnolia died Saturday night from cancer at his home in Rockaway.

KLAMATH-WEED TEAMS READY

Coast Elevens Prepare to Open Season Saturday

Leslie Avritt's dark horse entry in the Southern Oregon football conference will present itself for inspection against Weed of Northern California Saturday in the opening game of the season.

This Weed team, usually beaten, but not after a rugged early-season fight, will have the first opportunity to test the strength of the new Pelicans.

A light team but a fast one, although one not considered as powerful as in 1932, will enter the non-conference contest.

New system of attack and new players will be thrown into the game to estimate the best plan and the best players for the major schedule.

The contest will start at 2:00 o'clock on Modoc field.

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 20 (AP)—Prick Callison, who poured enough substitutes into the games last fall to make 22 letters for this year, says he will use a larger number of players in the 1933 games. Today he divided his Oregon squad into two units, and threatened to switch any "prima donnas" on short notice.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 20 (AP)—Four full teams in good condition is the goal of Lon Stinder, Oregon State's new coach, for this week end. The Beavers meet Willamette university and Southern Oregon Normal school, neither a push-over, Saturday in a double-header.

SEATTLE, Sept. 20 (AP)—A "darn good football team," as Coach Mike Pecarovich dubs his Gonzagas charges, meets University of Washington here Saturday. Jimmy Phelan serlimaged big Huskies hard in preparation for the game.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 20 (AP)—Fighting the Hollinsberry looked over his sophomore luminaries for a quarterback to take Phil Sarboe's place should his old injuries fail to come around.

Outstanding was Boyce Massee Bailey's Texas importation, reported to be a triple-threat.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—Coach Howard Jones continued his efforts to build up worthy successors to Tay Brown and Ernie Smith, last year's tackles, in his practice sessions.

Houston Harper and George Lady were given detailed instructions by Jones himself, who got down on the line and illustrated what he expected his tackles to do. A light scrimmage concluded the workout.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—Bain hopes for a successful football season soared when Walter Clark, halfback who dropped out of school last February, registered and will be eligible to play this season. Clark is expected to alternate with Charles Chesire at the left half berth.

A vigorous workout in blocking and a scrimmage kept the Bruins busy during their practice session today.

MARAGA, Calif., Sept. 20 (AP)—Santa Garbo, spectacular fullback from Los Angeles, will play no football for St. Mary's college this season.

Garbo suffered a fractured neck vertebrae in an early game last season.

"He might get hurt again," Coach Slip Madigan said. "No football game is worth that risk. He may play next season."

Either George Dodson or Louis Kellogg will play fullback.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Sept. 20 (AP)—The binocular boys are getting on Clipper Smith's nerves. He saw a lot of people on parked boxcars watching Santa Clara practice for the California game Saturday.

"They might be kids, and they might be spies," Smith reasoned. So he played safe, and didn't send his charges through some of the more complicated plays of the Smith "free wheeling" plays.

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 20 (AP)—California gridsters concentrated on running forward pass plays in preparing for the opener against Santa Clara Saturday.

PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 20 (AP)—While the smoke curled upward from the tepees of 2,000 Indians, and some of the world's meanest horses munched hay in the long stables, hundreds of visitors poured into Pendleton today for the 24th annual Pendleton round-up, the great western classic of the Oregon country.

The rodeo opens tomorrow and round-up officials believe between 20,000 and 30,000 persons will attend the show each day. It will close Saturday night.

Tree Troopers Set for Fights Here on Friday

Sixteen tree troopers for woods camps in the Klamath country will move into Klamath Falls Friday night for their own boxing card at the Legion hall.

The young men, representing all sections of the country and all divisions in weight, will appear in 24-rounds of fighting.

Mack Lillard, Klamath promoter who is cooperating with the camp officers, believes the bouts can be listed as including some of the outstanding battles of the season.

The troopers, hard and strong after a summer in the forests, have all had some preliminary experience in the ring.

Massey Takes Decision From Bobby Pacho

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20 (AP)—Low Massey, 136 1/2, Philadelphia, was awarded an unpopular 10-round decision last night over Bobby Pacho, 133, Mexico, in a main event of the Olympic auditorium fight card.

Ringsiders gave each fighter four rounds with two even. Referee Frankie Van's decision was booed by a large Mexican crowd. Superior boxing ability of the Philadelphian won him the decision over his aggressive opponent.

In another 10-rounder Tony Sousa, Fresno, defeated Juan Olazabal, Basque cousin of Avelino Hernandez, in another unpopular verdict.

WASHINGTON NEEDS GAME

Single Victory Means Pennant for Solon Athletes

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (UP) Joe Cronin's Washington Senators tonight needed just one more victory to clinch the American league pennant.

Today's 13 to 5 win over the St. Louis Browns placed them in the position where they can take the flag by beating the Browns again tomorrow. Similarly one defeat chalked against the second place New York Yankees would turn the trick. The Yanks are not slated to play tomorrow.

Yankees Must Work If the Senators win tomorrow, they can lose all their remaining six games and still win even though the Yanks sweep their remaining eight contests.

The Yanks kept alive their meager mathematical chance of winning the pennant by beating Chicago 4 to 3. Lazzari made a Yankee homer in the sixth and Kress drove out a Chicago homer in the ninth.

In the only other scheduled American league contest the Philadelphia Athletics nosed out Detroit 2 to 1. As Lefty Grove registered his 23rd victory of the season.

In the National league, the Pittsburgh Pirates, although eliminated from a chance at the pennant, strengthened their hold on second place by blanking Brooklyn 2 to 0 in the only game scheduled in the circuit.

SALEM AWARDED FEDERAL GRANT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. (AP)—The public works administration today approved an allotment of $7,934,500 for 30 non-federal projects in 11 states.

The list was the third of non-federal allotments to be approved by the administration and included bridges, gas plants, water plants and systems, sewers, schools, public buildings, power projects, dormitories, street improvements and lighting.

The allotments included: Salem, Oregon, water system (loan and grant) $1,500,000.
