Officials Halt Work To Watch Solon Victory

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6, (UP) —Government business, investigations and the recovery program halted Thursday for the world series game.

President Roosevelt led the parade.

Senate investigations into stock market operations and ocean mail subsidies recessed at noon.

Administrator Hugh S. Johnson of the recovery act found time to occupy a grand stand seat.

Heads of government departments as well as office assistants were comfortably seated at Griffith stadium when the umpire cried "play ball."

The University of California has a solid board of sugar pine on exhibition. It is 5½ feet wide, 18 feet long and 8 inches thick; was cut as a table top, but is now preserved as a curiosity.

TROY TACKLES RUGGED W.S.C.

Southern Cal. Favored in Outstanding Game of Conference

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6, (AP) —Unbeaten since they fell before St. Mary's early in the season of 1931, the University of Southern California Trojans, football champions of the Pacific Coast conference, face their first serious threat of 1933 when they meet the Washington State college Cougars at Los Angeles tomorrow.

This contest, rated a stiff test of the Trojans' title prospects this year, is the lone conference clash of the week end, six other member teams will face non-conference opposition and two, the University of Montana and the University of Washington, will remain idle.

Trojans Favorites

Known strength in every regular position, plus a great array of potential man-power in reserve, has established the Trojans as favorites to inaugurate their conference season with a win. Captain Ford Palmer at end, Aaron Rosenberg at guard, Homer Griffith at fullback and "Cotton" Warburton at Quarterback are stars who will lead Coach Howard Jones' men to battle.

Against this imposing show of strength, Orin "Babe" Hollingbery, Cougar coach, will pit a team which observers have termed his most dangerous since the championship eleven of 1930. In the Cougar backfield, Ted Cristofferson, former Hawaii high school star, is a standout, and Hollingbery is relying largely on his ability as a passer and kicker to hold the Trojans in check.

The University of California square off against St. Mary's at Berkeley tomorrow in a traditional battle which holds the interest of San Francisco bay region fans. Speedy backs behind a towering line are expected to give the Gaels an edge on the injury-ridden California team, and Coach Edward Madigan's men of Moraga have been named 10 to 7 favorites.

Another bay region contest will bring the Santa Clara Broncos and the Stanford university Cardinals together in Stanford stadium. Both teams have wins this season over first rate opposition, Santa Clara having beaten California 7 to 0, and Stanford having taken the measure of the University of California at Los Angeles, 3 to 0. The game is rated a toss-up.

In an after-dark contest at Los Angeles tonight, the U. C. L. A. Bruins will tackle the University of Utah in what they hope will be a breather after last week's hard tussle with Stanford. The Bruins are favored.

Beavers Face Gonzaga

Of the northern teams, Oregon State college, under its new coach, Lon Stiner, faces the stiffest assignment in meeting the Bulldogs of Gonzaga. The game will furnish a yardstick to measure conference strength, for the Bulldogs have been beaten by the University of Oregon and the University of Washington already this year.

Completing the program for the conference teams, Oregon will face Columbia, and the University of Idaho will take the field against Whitman college in a pair of games rated as "easy" for the circuit members.

He Hit a Home Run

Bill Terry, young manager and first baseman for the New York Giants, put his team into the lead in the first inning of Friday's game when he rapped out a long home run.

COAST TEAMS END TRAINING FOR SATURDAY'S GRID GAMES

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE, Cal., Oct. 6. (U.P) — The marauding Moragans of St. Mary's were set for their first major battle of the year against University of California Saturday, with signs of a complete sell out pointing to a crowd of 50,000.

Edward "Slip" Madigan, head man of the Gaels, put his boys through a light workout this afternoon and will rest them tomorrow.

With a giant, fast charging line that looms as the greatest defensive forward wall in Red and Blue history, and stars three deep in the backfield, Madigan gave his team at least an even chance for victory in the traditional clash with the Golden Bears.

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 6. (U.P)—Anticipating a powerful St. Mary's forward wall, California players spent most of the time in last night's practice smoothing out the Bear passing attack.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Oct. 6. (U.P)—A literal minded gent is Diamond Joe Paglia, originator of "coffin corner" kicking. In preparation for the game with Stanford Saturday, Paglia placed a real coffin on the goal line. From 40 yards away, he's been bounding the pigskin off the coffin with great regularity. Other players left Joe to his morticianing and concentrated on smoothing their "free wheeling" attack.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 6. (U.P) —Arnold Heikenen, Beaver fullback, will start the game against Gonzaga at Multnomah stadium in Portland Saturday, in place of Hal Joslin, ill with a pulled muscle. Danforth, center, may not be able to play because of injuries received in the game with Montana last week. Coach Stiner was tapering off practice, with passing offense and signals. The Staters arrive in Portland Friday afternoon and will have a light workout then.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 6. (U.P)— Prink Callison had eased off practice sessions for the "breather" tilt Saturday with Columbia University. Present indications were the Webfoots would use second-stringers for the greater part of the game, saving the more lethal tinder for the contest October 14 with University of Washington at Seattle.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 6. (U.P) —Up to train time, the completion of the Bulldog eleven remained a mystery. A wrenched leg may keep Morgan out of quarter Saturday against Oregon State, and an infected hand makes the chances of Bill Van Stine entering the tilt a big question. Barker, right guard and Murphy, stellar center, were both out with injuries. Despite the dim picture presented, however, Gonzaga hopes to "put the skids" to the Staters.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6. (U.P)— Coach Bill Spaulding's Bruins held their final workout under the arcs in preparation for the game with Utah Friday night. The Bruins, veterans at night games, had little difficulty handling the whitewashed pigskin. Coach Ike Armstrong and his band of Utes will arrive tomorrow morning.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6. (U.P) —Indicating that the Trojans respect the Cougar as a foe, Coach Howard Jones' boys today went through an intensive workout including a long scrimmage against Washington State plays as used by the Spartans. Warburton and Howard uncorked several long runs.

Veteran Faber Shuts Out Cubs

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 6, (UP)—Forty-five year old Red Faber, veteran of 20 seasons with the White Sox and winner of only three games in the American league this season, shut out the Cubs with five hits before 8378 fans. And made it two in a row for the American leaguers over their cross town rivals in the second game of the city series. The score was 2-0.

Bulldogging New Sport for Schools

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 6, (UP)—Two weeks ago Dr. Lloyd Shaw, superintendent of Cheyenne Mountain high school, announced that his school would abandon football this year for bronco riding and steer wrestling.

"It is less dangerous and more cultural, too," he declared.

Dr. Shaw sustained a cracked rib today while he was giving his class a lesson on bulldogging. He dismissed the injury lightly.

"A cracked rib is nothing," he said. "I used to get them often when I was bulldogging steers as an occupation. The rodeo sports will continue to be a part of this high school's curriculum."

STRONG TEAMS MEET SATURDAY

Pelicans Clash With Corvallis on Modoc Gridiron

The comparative interscholastic football strength of the Willamette valley and southcentral Oregon will be tested on Modoc field Saturday between powerful representatives of those two districts. This contest, the first major battle of the season, will send Corvallis against the Klamath Pelicans at 2:00 o'clock.

Les Avrit, Klamath coach, brought one week of rugged practice to a close Friday night. His team was feeling a bit stiff after days of difficult scrimmage but there were no injuries to prevent any of the regulars from playing.

Corvallis Stronger

Little is known of Corvallis except that "Mush" Torson, coach, has assembled a stronger team than the one losing to the Pelicans here in 1932. Klamath, better equipped with veteran material then, smothered the Willamette valley outfit, 20 to 0.

The Pelicans have won their first two games this year. Weed was beaten 13 to 0 and Alturas lost 27 to 0. Corvallis lost its opening start to Tillamook.

The same backfield combination upsetting Weed and Alturas will start against Corvallis. Big Norman Taber will be at fullback, Eugene Barrows at quarterback, and Bob Leslie and Wayne Perry at halves. The only possible change might be Chester Jones. Jones, if his stiffness has worked out, may start at a halfback post.

Large Crowd Expected

Lynn Propst, candidate for all-conference honors, will start at one end with Billy Horn at the other. Nello Giovanini and Burford Weeks have been selected for tackles and Johnny Pastega and Homer Maxwell at guards. Francis Hess probably will start at center.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to fill the stands at Modoc field.

Third Flight:

Charles Moore vs C. C. Kelley.

John Beal vs Fred Murphy.

N. H. Jones vs Jim Swansen.

C. E. Dennis vs L. L. Graham.

Football Talks Heard At School

By Albert Bergman
(K.U.H.S. Correspondent)

In order that the students of the high school may better understand the game of football, talks by various members of the team were given in the home rooms on Thursday. Plays, penalties and football terms were discussed in the talks, together with a general explanation of the game itself.

This custom of football instruction for the students was first given several years ago, and has been revived again this year by Paul T. Jackson, principal.

It is expected that this instruction will help many more students to understand and enjoy the game of football, Mr. Jackson stated.

Pasadena Fighter Beats Reno Man

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 6, (UP) —Steve Strelich, 187, of Pasadena, knocked out "Wildman" Louie Miller, 190, of Reno in the fourth round of their scheduled 10 round bout here.

In a preliminary, Mike Durante, 122, Phoenix, scored a four round knockout over Al Green, 117, Philadelphia.

BROWN DEFEATS ERNIE BAILEY

St. Paul Featherweight Scores Knockout In Third

Elmer Brown, the swift young featherweight from St. Paul, moved rapidly to victory over Ernie Bailey of Aberdeen in the main event at the Legion hall last night. The end of the one-sided affair came in the third round.

Brown, cautious for a few moments, finished the first round on even terms with the athlete he smothered in the following rounds. The St. Paul lad opened his double handed attack in the second round and there was no question who would eventually be the victor.

Bailey went slithering into the ropes and onto the mat with a quick succession of rights and lefts to the head. He stayed down for nine counts and then struggled to his feet to resume the battle.

Another set of punches dropped him for nine more and it appeared as though the battle were at an end. But Bailey, game to the end, came up once more only to be knocked down for the third time. Pete Belcastro, referee, had counted six before the bell saved the Aberdeen visitor from a knockout.

Bailey struggled out for the third round, but his handlers sent him into the ring for a hopeless task. He hung on for a time and then a vicious left almost lifted him out of the ring. The fight was over and Brown continued undefeated here.

Ad Cadena, lightweight from Los Angeles, lost his semi-windup battle with Joe Cauffman of Klamath Falls and Buffalo. The fight went the limit but Cadena was pretty well outpointed in each round.

Buzz Zimmerman and Jack Hibbard, rivals in a long standing fued, came up even at the end of their well-fought six-round special feature. Neither had a distinct advantage. Zimmerman won his points on punching and Hibbard led the way in boxing. Both men were worn out at the end of the fast pace.

Hood Defeats L. A. Fighter

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 6, (UP)—Ernie Hood, 121, of Pasadena, knocked out Kid Kirala, 118, of Los Angeles, in the second round of their scheduled six round main bout here.

Mel Brown, 148, decisioned Phil Rios, 149, (4); George Mangrum, 158, knocked out Johnny Means, 157, (2); Joe Anaya, 140, knocked out Roy Johnson, 142, (2); Joe Wilson, 128, drew with Walter Vaugn, 128, (4); Freddie Endlans, 114, outpointed Baby Joe Morales, 114, (4).

Leo Faulkner Captures Race

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 6, (UP) —Leo Faulkner captured the 25 lap main event and the trophy dash in the midget auto racing program at the Loyola speedway.

A 10 lap class B race was won by Ivan Ungar.
