One-Pound Baby Husky Now

You'd never guess it, but the husky youngster you see above about to attack his sand pile is Charles Bernard St. John of Kansas City who held honors 18 months ago as the world's smallest baby when he tipped the beam at just one pound. Below, is his happy mother.

Discloses Stock Profits at Probe

That a profit of $6,319,000 was made by 11 members of the New York investment banking firm of Dillon, Read & Co. during the boom years of 1925 and 1929 was the disclosure made at the Senate stock market probe by Robert E. Christie, Jr. (above), a member of the firm.

TREE TROOPERS HURT IN SMASH

ALTON, Calif.—Wally Thompson, member of the 1911th Company, C.C.C. of Willow Creek camp, and Marvin Maulson of this place lie in a critical condition at the general hospital here as a result of a collision between an army truck and Maulson's sedan Saturday night near Kelley Hot Spring.

The machines came together on a narrow place in the highway where construction work was under way, and as a coincidence young Maulson received his injuries almost at the very door of the house of his mother, Mrs. T. L. Chambers. Several other C.C.C. boys riding on the army truck were slightly injured. Maulson's car was badly wrecked.

Later in the evening another
