

KLAMATH FIRE LOSS BOOSTED BY ARSONISTS

The red hand of the arsonist is revealed in Klamath Falls' fire loss reports for the first nine months of 1933, announced by Fire Chief A. W. Hardell.

Fire losses for the period in Klamath Falls totaled $63,386.39. Of this amount, Hardell laid $47,282.29 at the door of incendiarism.

The chief also said that all conflagration fires were actually caused direct from incendiary fires. The total loss from incendiary fires and conflagration fires was $55,955.91, and the insurance paid, $24,782.92.

This leaves a loss from all other fires of $12,430.48, and insurance paid of $11,079.48.

Matches and careless smokers caused 67 fires in the nine-month period. Fire losses laid to this cause totaled $2,179.90.

The chief's statement:

First Nine Months of 1933

Causes of Fire

Conflagration and/or exposure	13
Electricity and/or defective wiring	5
Explosion	1
Hot ashes, grease, tar and/or metal	3
Believed incendiary	13
Matches, careless smokers	67
Miscellaneous, causes known but not classified	1
Open lights and/or fires	9
Overheated and/or defective chimneys, flues, pipes, etc.	21
Overheated and/or defective stoves, boilers, etc.	7
Petroleum and its products	3
Spontaneous combustion	1
Unknown causes	2
False alarms	9

Total of fires.....159
Total fire loss.....$63,386.39
Total insurance paid.....$35,902.99

All conflagration fires were caused direct from the incendiary fires. The loss from incendiary fires and the conflagration fires was $55,955.91, and the insurance paid $24,782.92, leaving only a loss from all other fires of $12,430.48 and insurance paid of $11,079.48.

"And from these nine months' experience of the fire losses in Klamath Falls every one should be fire minded and help the fire department when these fire bugs start working in our city, as we all have to help pay these fire losses by higher insurance rates. Also to help rid the city of all fire hazards in the home and outside of the home so we may reduce the fire losses for Klamath Falls next year," the chief urged.

Rainbow—Now playing, "Under the Tonto Rim," with Stewart Erwin.

ROBERT MONTGOMERY and ANN HARDING in "WHEN LADIES MEET." If you still have a laugh gland left, don't miss "When Ladies Meet." This sparkling new film opens

Sunday at the Vox theater with a roar of laughter from start to finish and with Ann Harding and Robert Montgomery co-starring in one of the most unusual stories we have seen on the screen in many months.

Adapted from the Rachel Crothers play that hit Broadway with a smash this season, the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture is crammed full of sure-fire situations and dialogue that afford the important personages in the cast to make the most of it. Miss Harding is superb as the wife of a philandering husband and Montgomery scores anew as the newspaper reporter who finds his girl having a dangerous interest in the married man.

Myrna Loy is magnificent as the girl in the case and Alice Brady returns to films to win a new triumph in the comedy role of the merry widow hostess of a week-end party that winds up in fireworks. Frank Morgan is the husband and the cast includes Martin Burton and Luis Alberni.

Harry Beaumont directed the picture and may be credited with a matchless job. The settings are particularly impressive and the camera work is of the best.

AT THE PELICAN

A cast of players of exceptional merit will be seen in the First National picture, "Grand Slam," a sparkling comedy about the great American sport of bridge, which opens at the Pelican theatre today. There are twenty-eight roles of importance, and each is filled by a player who ranks high in screen popularity. Even the "bit" parts carry names of note.

The leading male role is enacted by Paul Lukas, famous both on stage and screen, who will be remembered for his notable work in the pictures "Women Love Once," "Vice Squad" and "City Streets." Loretta Young, whose work in "Life Begins" alone would place her in the front rank of the younger players, has the feminine lead. The

DEPUTY'S MACHINE FOUND AT ROSEBURG

ROSEBURG, Oct. 12.—Seeing his auto stolen by the fugitive he was pursuing on a charge of auto theft, was the experience of Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harvey of Bieher, Calif., who recovered his abandoned car here Tuesday.

Harvey was chasing two men who had stolen a car at Bieher. He overtook the fugitives near Alturas, and they leaped from their auto and ran into the brush beside the highway. The officer leaped from his machine, leaving the motor running, and went in pursuit. He captured one man, but the other made a dash for the officer's auto and escaped.

The car was found in Roseburg following the arrest of William Mason, who was held here upon a warrant from Eugene, where he was returned to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Mason was arrested here after coming from California, and is believed by officers to have been the driver of the stolen auto.

From Kleiglites to Footlights

This smile that you've seen flashing across the screen, now will flash across the footlights. For Pola Negri, noted film star, was ready to take a role on the legitimate stage when, as you see her here, she landed in New York from Europe. Asked about her reported engagement to Harold McCormick of Chicago, she said there was "just a friendship" between them.

BUDGET DRAWN FOR SCHOOL DISTRICT

Expenditures for School District Number One for the ensuing year were tentatively budgeted and passed Wednesday evening when the recently appointed budget committee met with the directors of the district. Superintendent of Schools J. Percy Wells, and the clerk of the district, at Fremont school.

The entire budget will be published Friday, and the usual public hearing on the question is set for 2:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 23, at Fremont school, according to the clerk of the district.

Mrs. J. H. Chambers, who was appointed to the budget board was unable to serve because of illness, and Mrs. Harry Goelker was selected as alternate. Other members of the board are Alice Kent, O. E. Shive, E. W. Vanice and Mrs. Nelson Reed.

TROOPS CONTROL STRIKE REGION

SULLIVAN, Ind., Oct. 12 (AP)—Indiana national guardsmen established virtual martial law in Sullivan county today.

After three explosions had shaken this city early this morning Brigadier General D. Wray Dopez conferred with local officials and then issued regulations forbidding any assemblage except on express permission from the military authorities.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 12 (AP)—The 13th day of the strike since the newly-organized anthracite miners of Pennsylvania called their strike, occurred early today.

A blast was set off beneath a truck in the driveway adjoining the home of a mine employed by the Penn Anthracite Coal company. Damage was slight.

Insurance Group To Visit Council

Ten firms were represented at the monthly meeting of the Klamath Insurance Agents association held Wednesday at the Willard hotel, and a committee was appointed to confer with the city council relative to the rating of Klamath Falls by the Oregon rating bureau.

E. M. Chilcote presided at the Wednesday luncheon meeting.

Twenty-six per cent of all trucks are used by farmers.

ENROLLMENT IN HIGH SCHOOLS 380

Klamath county's eight high schools have a total enrollment of 380 students, according to compilations completed Thursday at the county school offices. This number is exclusive of Klamath Union high school, which is separately controlled.

Enrollments at the high schools are given as follows:

School	Students	Teachers
Bonanza	76	3 1/2
Pt. Klamath	14	1
Keno	28	1
Bly	10	1
Merrill	58	2 1/2
Hensley	45	3 1/2
Malin	66	3 1/2
Chiloquin	69	5

At the end of the third week of school at Klamath Union high school, enrollment in the high school grades totaled 359. This, together with the county enrollment, makes a total of 1219 high school students in Klamath county.

Sample Says 11 Minors Sent To State Schools

C. T. Sample, county juvenile officer, and County Judge George Grizzle, stated Thursday that eleven minors had been committed to state institutions for delinquents since January 1.

The statement was prompted by a remark made by Police Chief J. H. Shaw at the last council meeting, to the effect that 40 minors had been sent to institutions since he took office.

The county officials said that 10 boys have been sent to Woodburn, and one girl to the girls' institution at Salem. Several dependents have been sent to state-supported homes, it was stated.

HUNTERS TOLD OF PROTECTED BIRDS

Federal Game Protector Hugh Worcester Thursday listed the names of species of ducks on which there are reduced bag limits this season.

To protect these birds, which are becoming scarce, daily bag limits have been cut down to eight. Worcester said that hunters can then fill out their bag limit of 12 by killing four mallards or pintails, which are the more abundant species.

The limit is reduced on:

- Blue-winged teal, or teal duck.
- Canvasbacks, or whitebacks.
- Gadwall, or gray duck or creek duck.
- Green-winged teal, or common teal.
- Lesser scaup, or bluebills or broadbills.
- Redhead, or fiddler.
- Ruddy duck, or butterball.

There is no season on this bird on Link river or Upper Klamath lake.

Ringneck, or ringbill.
