

PROPOSED SALE TAX READ, MET BY OPPOSITION

In intention of introducing an ordinance for passage by the city council of this city the text of which is plainly advocating a sales tax upon commodities in the city and through the legislative power of the council would force the merchant to collect this sales tax from their customers, the proceeds obtained thereby going into the treasury of the city; therefore, be it resolved, by the merchants' bureau of Klamath Falls, which met to consider this matter, that we are unalterably opposed to such a sales tax ordinance for the following reasons:

"First, its enactment will raise the cost of living in this city right at a time when grim winter is facing us and our charity funds are stretched to the breaking point. No merchant in this city is making a profit at the present time on his business and he therefore cannot absorb this sales tax advocated by the mayor, hence it will have to be passed on to the consuming public which today is in no condition to stand increased costs of life's necessities. Also, the people of Oregon recently voted down the sales tax 4 to 1, which was the same as the proposed city tax, only clothed in different language.

"Second, we regret that the city officials, or any of them, should insist upon making tax collectors out of the merchants of this city. Common knowledge teaches that the ultimate consumer of merchandise must pay all expense of doing business, including taxes, and it is but fair to all concerned to be open and state the case as it is. There can be no city sales tax in Klamath Falls without the dinner table in every home paying its part of that tax; neither can there be a child in school clothed without the proposed city sales tax taking its tithing from the merchandise supplied to that child.

"Third, we are opposed to attempting to raise more public revenue at the present time when every individual is aiding his creditors by extension of time and declaring moratorium on interest and principal payments. We fail to see why the city hall cannot join the people in the policy of curtailment of public expense just as every merchant has had to curtail his personal and store expense. In fact, we appeal to the honorable mayor and city council rather than to force or attempt to force a sales tax on the people of Klamath Falls, thus raising prices to the consumer, that a united effort be made to reduce public expense, pray for extension of time on city indebtedness if such should be necessary, and thus act in harmony with present conditions and the people whom the officials serve."

Canning made the motion at the afternoon merchants' meeting that the resolution opposing the measure be drawn up. R. C. Woodruff, Dick Reeder and Mr. Mashburn were named on the resolutions committee.

"Fourth, we are opposed to attempting to raise more public revenue at the present time when every individual is aiding his creditors by extension of time and declaring moratorium on interest and principal payments. We fail to see why the city hall cannot join the people in the policy of curtailment of public expense just as every merchant has had to curtail his personal and store expense. "Fifth, we are opposed to attempting to raise more public revenue at the present time when every individual is aiding his creditors by extension of time and declaring moratorium on interest and principal payments. "Sixth, we are opposed to attempting to raise more public revenue at the present time when every individual is aiding his creditors by extension of time and declaring moratorium on interest and principal payments. ## State Political Leaders in Favor Of Canal Project

A quick response from Oregon's delegation in congress has been received by the Klamath Falls League of Women Voters which has recently carried on an active campaign for covering the government canal, and has enlisted the support of virtually all of the local civic and service organizations. Resolutions favoring the covering of the canal were signed and sent to Washington, D. C. late last week.

Mrs. H. W. Poole, president of the league, has received a wire from Senator Charley McNary in which he announces a favorable attitude toward canal coverage, and asserts that he will present the matter to the secretary of interior at once.

Congressman Walter Pierce writes that he will do all in his power to obtain canal coverage for Klamath Falls, and Representative James W. Mott has telegraphed that he is strongly in favor of the move, and that he has already urged the project upon H. M. Waite, administrator of public works.

Membership in the Klamath League of Women Voters is steadily growing, and the regular meeting of the organization will be held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the chamber of commerce.

Commissioner C. R. Williams and County School Superintendent Fred Peterson will address the meeting on the county and school budgets, matters which are of vital interest and importance to all taxpayers in the community.

Letter to Santa In Mails Early

If there is any truth to that old adage about the early bird and the worm, Roy and Flora Taylor of Klamath Falls are going to have a happy Christmas. A letter from the Taylor children, addressed to old Santa Claus at the North Pole, was dropped into a postoffice box here Saturday.

Roy asked for a double-wheel wagon, and Flora wants a yellow-haired doll.

The letter was decorated with generous use of the letter X, presumably symbolic of kisses for old Saint Nick.

GERMANY INSISTS ON EQUAL STATUS

rath, recalling Germany's previous withdrawal from the parley, said: "Obviously Germany's aim then as now was to accept the failure of the conference as a fact and content herself with such a disastrously negative result. Germany then, you will recall, immediately attempted to overcome the deadlock by diplomatic negotiators."

Other Powers Opposed

He declared that Germany had realized in the last week that no sincere efforts toward disarmament could be expected from the other powers. He added that future developments lay with the heavily armed nations such as France, Italy and England, and reiterated his denial that Germany was asking to re-arm.

"It is mockery," he said, "when others speak against German rearmament instead of recognizing the necessity of real disarmament."

"For five years before the disarmament conference began," Von Neurath continued in his press statement, "we tried to show the way to disarm, but only detours were discussed. We waited until the last moment but all our efforts were fruitless."

POSSE CAPTURES ACCUSED KILLER

SANDY, Ore., Oct. 14. (P)—Accused of having beaten his friend and benefactor to death with a rock, John Haley, 35, farmer and livestock buyer, was captured by a posse near here today. Police said the man suddenly flew into a maniacal rage. He was captured soon after the slaying, naked and raving.

Mario Boltano, 40, was the man killed. Two other families in the district had been terrorized by Haley, they said.

Neighbors said Haley had at one time been confined in the state insane asylum at Salem and, later, in a private institution in Portland. He was generally feared, but for the past two years had appeared normal, police were told.

ARMS PARLEY IS ADJOURNED TEMPORARILY

nations are in no mood to beg the Germans to return if Davis is asked to take the role of peace-maker, under the circumstances it is doubtful he would care to accept.

Private Talks Set

Work of the disarmament commission is to continue during this recess. Delegates will hold informal private conversations in an effort to reach a basis for accord on a general disarmament agreement. Germany may then be asked to adhere to that convention.

The French and British are particularly bitter and feel there should be no overtures to Germany asking her to return. They both support Davis and the Italians, however, in the contention that the parley should not be permitted to fall entirely as a result of Berlin's action.

Arthur Henderson, chairman of the general commission and leading British delegate, in pronouncing the parley adjourned until a week from Thursday, added significantly:

Attempts to Go On

"I hope you will return prepared to write an arms convention."

"The struggle must go on," Henderson continued. "The league covenant will not be treated as a scrap of paper. It cost 10,000,000 dead and 20,000,000 men wounded to bring the league into being. We are not now going to break faith with those dead, nor let the world be plunged into barbarism through another world war."

Henderson declared that the world already possessed the beginnings of a collection peace system in the league covenant and the Kellogg pact, adding: "The government which rejects that system, whatever its intentions, inevitably is encouraging its citizens to regard war as legitimate and inevitable."

that they depart. It expired at 3 p. m. Friday and the army units opened fire with artillery and machine guns on the rebel positions.

The extent of the damage they inflicted remained unknown, due to the strict censorship. Twice in the last 24 hours heavy firing has been heard in the capital, causing the people to rush inside, fearing the fighting may move into the city's streets.

The authorities maintained their control despite a night and day of terror.

Rebel planes flew over Bangkok on Friday. The government forces turned anti-aircraft guns on them. One fell in flames. The

"With respect to the need of legislation governing alcoholic beverages, it is sufficient to state when the prohibition amendment of the federal constitution is replaced a few weeks hence, Oregon will be without any regulatory legislation on this important subject. We must meet the situation promptly if the evils attendant upon the old saloon regime are to be avoided."

Entire Situation Changed

In view of this government, the question of whether the disarmament conference can continue must be decided primarily by Europe.

Now, it is felt, the whole situation at Geneva has changed due to Germany's withdrawal from the conference. At the moment, and perhaps even more in the future, the issue of German rearmament will center around French and British insistence

ONE SURE WAY TO END COUGHS AND COLDS

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion—Adv. 3-E.

Dear Mr. Jenkins:

The Fall Ward Week just concluded was one of the most successful sales ever held by our Company.

We know we had the values that thousands of local people wanted. The next step was to let these people know about them, and that is where your paper did a tremendous job for us.

Our Ward Week certainly convinced hundreds of people that Ward's is the place to save money and your paper certainly convinced us of its great pulling power, as it was the only medium used to advertise this great selling event. It is a pleasure to advise you that on Saturday, October 14th, our sales volume was the largest in three years.

It is a pleasure to work with an organization such as yours, and we sincerely appreciate the cooperation which your staff extended to us during this campaign.

Sincerely yours,
