

Toy Bulldog Challenges Rosenbloom

Mickey Walker Will Fight Max on November 3. Old Struggle With Harry Greb Recalled. "There Was a Man," Sighs Mickey.

By Edward J. Neil (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, Oct. 19. (AP)—Mickey Walker, the Toy Bulldog from New Jersey, may be getting old, as prize fighters go. Ring lights have glared down on him as welterweight champion, middleweight king, heavyweight title contenders.

The bright lights of other places have shone on him just as long, leaving him an expert both in the ways of the ring and the wayward. He fights Maxey Rosenbloom, who likewise has achieved some fame in both directions, for the light heavyweight title in Madison Square Garden, November 3.

Now Mickey is willing to concede Rosenbloom's reputation as a prizefighter. A champion, naturally, stands for progress among the cauliflowerers. But as a flowering bloom among the primroses, Rosenbloom, he insists, cannot qualify.

"Harry Greb," sighs Mickey reverently, "there was a man. I fought him fifteen of the toughest rounds anyone ever went through in the Polo grounds in 1925. I thought I won, but they gave him the decision, and when he was over I headed for Broadway and a lobster shop I knew. I was all bunged up."

"I walked Greb as soon as I was settled, and he had a girl with him. He insisted that I join his party. Then when we were through he wanted to go dancing. I had to go alone. Either that or fight him all over again."

"We must have danced for hours. In fact we danced so long Harry's girl disappeared. Finally it was getting light and we stumbled out into the morning air.

"All of a sudden Harry grabbed me by the back of the neck. Up to that time we hadn't even mentioned the fight.

"Just to show you I can lick you any time, anywhere, I'm going to give you another wallop right now," he said. Before I could even argue he squared off and made a rush for me.

"I stepped back and let him have a left hook on the chin as he came in, and he staggered some, but came right back swinging both hands. In a second we were all over the street. A cop came running down the sidewalk, swinging his nightstick. I saw him lift it high over his head.

"Hey," I yelled at him. "I'm Mickey Walker and that's Harry Greb. We're kidding a little. Don't hit us."

"Well, there's the morning newspapers full of the fight we'd had the night before in the ball park and of all the people in New York who hadn't heard about it we have to pick one, this policeman. He didn't hit us, but he bundled us off the block. Before Harry could get at him, I shoved him into a cab and told the driver to take him home.

"I was just getting into bed when the phone rang.

"Mickey," says Greb at the other end, "I'm sorry for what I did, but don't forget I can always lick you."

"I guess maybe he could, at that. But this Rosenbloom . . . pay no attention. He doesn't either smoke or drink."

La Grande Team Meets Lewiston

EASTERN OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, La Grande, Oct. 19. (AP)—The Mountaineer football squad, 22 strong, left here this morning by cars for Lewiston, Ida., where they will tangle with the Lewiston normal school eleven tomorrow afternoon.

The E. O. N. squad was in fine physical condition with the exception of Pete Miles, flashy The Dalles halfback, who may not play because of a back injury. He will be ready for the College of Idaho game here Oct. 25, however.

Captain Bob Quinn has been developing extra strength in the backfield this week following the recent return to school of Chris Lassen of Pendleton, starting fullback last fall.

The Army Air Corps is having 46 new, all-metal monoplane built at Buffalo, N. Y. These new planes are sometimes called "flying fortresses" because each carries five machine guns and a bomb.

Meals taken during long air trips are usually included in the price of a passenger ticket.

Ticket Selling Teams Competing For Prizes.

Two junior chamber of commerce ticket selling teams were at work in the city today. The young men will compete for high honors in rounding up spectators for the Southern Oregon Normal school and University of Oregon Freshmen football game here on October 25.

William Kuykendall will head one group of sellers and Pete Lemlester the other. The losing side will take the winners to a theatre.

Tickets for the contest already have been distributed to members of the junior chamber. Sections have also been placed on sale at the chamber of commerce, Pelican Tire company, Cliff Hogue station, Herald-News and the Waldorf.

Posters advertising the contest were placed in conspicuous downtown positions Wednesday. A special section of the stands will be reserved for high school students at the regular interscholastic ticket price. The seats at the 50-yard line along Modoc field will be open for the public. Three thousand spectators has been set as the attendance goal.

Beavers Map Aerial Attack For Trojans

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 19.—Straight power drives, a flashy running attack and an ever-dangerous overhead game will be the main offensive threats of the Oregon State football team against Southern California in Portland Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Although the Orange power plays and running attack have brought few scores this year, Len Stiner, coach, has been spending much time during the last week smoothing out the last rough spots in the Orange attack.

Most of the Orange points have resulted from a strong aerial attack which may cause the Trojans no little trouble as the single touchdown scored against the national champions this year was by the overhead route. While the Orange have used a combination of running and passing attack to bring yardage, the Trojans have depended largely on their highly touted power drives on offense. Although the Trojans have a first class passing attack, they have taken to the air only a few times in early season games.

Trojans Aboard Train En Route To Orange Camp

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19. (AP)—Thirty-seven University of Southern California football players were en route to Portland today for their grid game there Saturday with the team which held them to a single touchdown and a field goal last season—Oregon State.

The Trojans, seeking their twenty-sixth consecutive victory, were handicapped by injuries and before they left indication was that three of them, Capt. Ford Palmer, Bob Erskine and Curtis Yonel, might not be seen in the game.

Captain Howard Jones had a workout planned this morning on the Sacramento J. C. gridiron. The team will continue north just before noon, and is due in Portland Friday morning.

Kentuckians Out To Beat Home State

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19. (AP)—When the University of Kentucky Wildcats tangle with the Generals of Washington and Lee Saturday on the gridiron at Roanoke, Va., six Kentuckians will be on the opponents' team.

Barring injury or illness, all six of the Kentuckians are expected to get in the game to attempt to whip their home state university.

Hunters Asked to Contribute Birds

Police Chief J. R. Shaw Wednesday asked hunters to contribute birds for the use of needy families.

If hunters have extra birds, he said, the police department will be glad to deliver them to families where the bare necessities of life are considered a luxury. There are a good many families of this type on the city's list, he said.

Here is a group of football players, some of the outstanding men on the Southern Oregon Normal school team, who will play in Klamath Falls a week from Saturday. These Sons will clash with the University of Oregon Freshmen at Modoc field's first major contest.

UNDEFEATED PELICANS START PREPARATIONS FOR MEDFORD CONTEST HERE ON OCTOBER 27

Redmond, the last school to file an answer, informed the athletic officials at Klamath high school Thursday morning it would be unable to meet the Pelicans Saturday. The Pelicans, idle since the Corvallis game, will practice over the week end in preparation for the October 27 contest with Medford.

Klamath will enter the Medford game undefeated. Two Saturdays without competition will leave the squad free from injury, and Les Avritt, head coach, will be able to throw the complete strength of his team against the rarely defeated foe from the valley.

Tigers Meet Pirates The Tigers, defeated once this season by Crescent City, 7 to 0, move into a difficult non-conference game against Marshfield.

Both Ashland and Klamath misunderstood the terms of their agreement for two games this year. Ashland had scheduled Lakewood for last week while Klamath thought the Grizzlies would be here to meet the Pelicans on Modoc field.

Because Paul Thompson, star halfback, walked in his sleep this week, fell from a second story window and severed an artery, incapacitating him for the season, the team may have to cancel the rest of its schedule. There are only 10 regular players left.

Eleventh Player Walks In Sleep; Schedule Dropped

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Oct. 19. (AP)—Football coaches who worry about reserves—"we have only three full teams"—should consider the plight of Morris Township high school.

Ex-Tech Coach Scouts Irish

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 19. (AP)—For scouting duty Carnegie Tech picks no minor figures of its coaching staff.

It was disclosed today that none other than Judge Walter P. Stefan of Chicago, who retired last year as Carnegie coach, scouted Notre Dame last week for the Tartans and sent on his observations for use in this Saturday's game.

A survey based on the fare rates of June 30 shows that the average cost of a trip on an airline in continental United States is 6 1-10 cents per mile.

LION PREPARED FOR DEMETRAL

Nap Devore Scheduled to Referee Legion Hall Main Event.

Al Karasick, outweighed and disliked, makes another trip into Klamath Falls Friday to defend his Legion hall title against a Greek, Harry Demetral of Seattle.

The Russian Lion, only slightly heavier than a light heavyweight, will be under a 15-pound handicap. The short, stocky Greek will weigh around 204 pounds while Karasick will come into the ring around 190.

Dr. Nap Devore, the French wrestler, still is expected to referee both matches Friday. Devore has just returned from Honolulu where he was to start an exhibition tour of several weeks. He came back to San Francisco, however, after a dispute with the Island promoters and before wrestling a single match.

Devore has replaced Pete Belcastro as referee through the demands of Karasick. The change has not added to the friendship of the main event athletes inasmuch as Demetral was more or less favorable to Belcastro.

Pat Reilly, 202-pounder from Boston, will make his first stand in Klamath Falls against Jack Kugat of Toronto, Canada. Kugat, champion of Canada, is also making his opening appearance here.

Sharkey Planning Boxing Campaign

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass., Oct. 19. (UP)—Jack Sharkey is going through with his scheduled fight with Dan McCorkindale, he said, but it probably will be postponed to December 3 or 12.

"I'm not planning to retire from the ring," he said, "and will definitely fight McCorkindale as soon as the date is settled." The bout originally was scheduled for November 17. It was understood that McCorkindale's manager was attempting to obtain another bout for him before his meeting with Sharkey.

Tiny Thornhill Only Casualty Of Chicago Trip

FALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 19. (UP)—Coach Claude E. (Tiny) Thornhill was the sole casualty as the Stanford team returned from its scoreless tie with Northwestern.

Thornhill dislocated his left shoulder and tore some ligaments on the depot platform at Mantoloking, Nov. A playful gridman knelt behind the bulky coach and another player toppled him backwards.

Gabby Street Signed To Lead Mission Club

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19. (AP)—Charles "Gabby" Street, signed as manager of the San Francisco Missions, will have "complete control" of the Pacific Coast league baseball club, Joseph Bearwald, president, said here today.

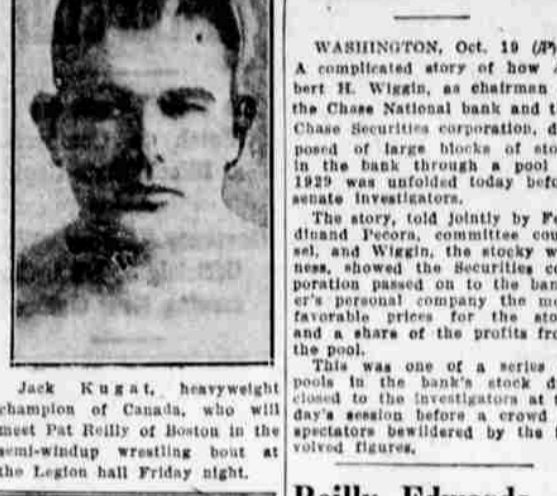

Bearwald, who announced Street had signed a one-year contract, said the former world's championship manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, will come to San Francisco early next year to take charge of the club for the 1934 season.

"He will be in complete charge," Bearwald said. "I intend to obtain for him such players as he wants and are available."

The Missions, one of San Francisco's two home coast league teams, finished seventh in the 1933 pennant race of the eight-club circuit. They led the league in hitting, however.

Bearwald said he will meet Street at the annual minor league meeting at Galveston, Tex., next month to discuss plans for building up the club.

Bearcats Ready To Meet Irish Team On Friday

SALEM, Oct. 19. (AP)—Ready to "open up" everything, the Willamette University Bearcats play Columbia University in Portland tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The halfback battle between Nohl of Columbia and Oravec of Willamette is anticipated by the fans. Both are triple threats, though Oravec is not the regular Bearcat kicker.

With several first stringers on the injured list, Coach "Spec" Keene said he would try to discover new backfield talent on his squad. Cannady, negro halfback, is definitely out of the game and Olson, fullback, may not play. Gribble and Kaiser, regular ends, are also out with injuries.

Rupert Squashes Rumors Of Switch To New Manager

NEW YORK, Oct. 19. (UP)—Col. Jacob Rupert, owner of the New York Yankees, squelched rumors that he planned making Babe Ruth manager of the club, with this statement:

"I tell you positively that Joe McCarthy will manage the Yanks for the next two years. His contract has two years to run, and I've never even thought of replacing McCarthy at the end of his contract.

"I don't know where people got the idea I was planning to use Ruth as manager. I've never even considered it."

Horse Wins Fight With Rattlesnake

CRENSWELL, Ore., Oct. 19. (AP)—Dan, a 14-year-old horse, suddenly jumped into the air, twisted and landed with feet bunched in the best rodeo fashion. Observers thought, perhaps Dan had entered his second childhood. Investigation disclosed, however, the old horse had fought a battle with a rattlesnake and won.

STORY OF STOCK MARKET UNFOLDED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19. (AP)—A complicated story of how Albert H. Wiggin, as chairman of the Chase National bank and the Chase Securities corporation, disposed of large blocks of stock in the bank through a pool in 1929 was unfolded today before Senate investigators.

The story, told jointly by Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, and Wiggin, the stock witness, showed the Securities corporation passed on to the banker's personal company the most favorable prices for the stock and a share of the profits from the pool.

This was one of a series of pools in the bank's stock disclosed to the investigators at today's session before a crowd of spectators bewildered by the involved figures.

Reilly, Edwards Stage Fast Bout In Portland Ring

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19. (AP)—After losing the first fall in the main event of last night's wrestling program here, Billy Edwards, 195, Kansas City, took the next two to win the match from Pat Reilly, 202, Boston.

Reilly won the opening fall with a body slam in 9 minutes. Edwards took the second in 12 minutes with a headlock and the deciding fall with a series of flying tackles in 6 minutes.

Noel Franklin, 151, Portland, and Buddy Edwards, 149, Kansas City, Billy's cousin, were given a draw in the semi-windup. Toby Christiansen, 172, Portland, won on a foul from Sailor Franz, 175, San Diego.

Bunny Martin, 145, Seattle, took one fall and the opener from Bob Anderson, 144, Oklahoma City.

Rice Fullback Quits for Lack of Recognition

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 19. (UP)—Gordon Nicholson resigned from the Rice Institute football squad because his father, once a football player at Louisiana State, believed Coach Jack Mearher failed to recognize the fullback's ability, it was learned last night.

Gordon R. Nicholson said he had been urging his son to quit the squad since the Rice-Louisiana State game September 30, when Nicholson played in the second half but was not permitted to carry the ball.

The elder Nicholson played football for the Louisiana school in the 20's and was disappointed when his son was denied an opportunity to star against the father's Alma Mater, he said.
