

ATLANTIC AIR LINE VIEWED BY BRITISH

LONDON, Oct. 20, (AP)—Prospects of a North Atlantic air line via Greenland next year faded today as British aviation experts discussed the results of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's Arctic survey as disclosed to them by the American airman.

From their conversations with the pilot, now on a visit here with his wife, the experts have reached the conclusion that Lindbergh's summer survey led to his forming the opinion that summer service offers no difficulties which could not be overcome.

Tests Needed.

The idea of winter service, however, is considered out of the question for the present and there would need be a test of winter flying before a definite conclusion on this point could be reached.

However, the telegraph's commentator reported today, Lindbergh "is manifestly in no way perturbed in respect to Arctic storms or fogs or provision of suitable landing places."

"The Times" commentator said "a winter flight along the route may be expected to follow Lindbergh's summer survey and no one can forecast its result."

"The flight which has just ended is a step in the right direction, although establishment of regular service by any route may have to await a number of other experiments."

CHILD DELINQUENCY DISCUSSED SUNDAY

"Who is responsible for Klamath's juvenile delinquency?" will be the topic of the address to be given by Rev. George V. McClure on Sunday evening at the Community Congregational church.

Mr. McClure is in a position to speak with authority on this subject since he is not only a minister but also an attorney, who is at present city attorney of Ashland where he is constantly dealing with this problem. Mr. McClure, in the course of his ministry in various cities across the country, has been particularly active in civic life and been brought closely in touch with the problems of youth and the home.

The Community church, under the preaching leadership of Mr. McClure, is conducting a fall rally campaign which started last Monday and will continue through next week, with preaching each evening except Saturday.

SUPERINTENDENT TO VISIT

Dr. Thomas D. Yarnes, superintendent of the Methodist church of this district, will be in the Klamath region for several days holding autumn conferences with the churches of that denomination. He will be in Chiloquin and other Indian missions on Saturday and Sunday, and will hold conference sessions at the First Methodist church of this city on Monday evening, October 22. From here he will go to Lakeview and other points. Dr. Yarnes was a former pastor of the church in Klamath Falls, and is widely known here.

AT THE VOX

FRANCHOT TONE and MIRIAM HOPKINS in "THE STRAWBERRY BLINDS"

Lionel Barrymore and Miriam Hopkins are co-starring in "The Stranger's Return," which opens Sunday at the Vox theatre as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production of the currently popular Thill Strong novel for rural life, which follows his recent best-seller, "State Fair."

As the 35-year-old patriarch of a farm founded and pioneered by his family, Lionel Barrymore is said to have one of the most interesting characterizations of his brilliant career. His histrionic power is declared by preview critics to have attained new height in the climactic scenes.

King Vidor directed the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film from the new Phil Strong novel of Iowa farm life. Included in the cast are Franchot Tone, Stuart Erwin, Irene Hervey, Beulah Bondi, Grant Mitchell, Tad Alexander and Aileen Carlyle. Most of the picture was screened on a farm location for which farmhouse, barns and silos were constructed after Mid-Western style.

AT THE PELICAN

The Pelican Theatre-McKesson Opportunity Contest will be off with a bang tonight when, as a preliminary to the regular elimination contests scheduled for the weeks to follow, six acts of professional and selected amateur vaudeville will be presented on the stage. This contest has already stirred the amateur talent of Klamath Falls into fevered excitement and the elimination competitions that are to follow special stage numbers promise to be exceedingly interesting, entertaining and keenly competitive.

On the screen, "Professional Sweetheart," starring Ginger Rogers, Norman Foster and Zasu Pitts, will be featured. The story has to do with a girl radio star who, by virtue of her screen personality, must live the life her fans feel she should. What happens when her managers bring her big mountaineer sweetheart, in the person of Norman Foster, develops into a comedy that makes this singing-musical picture a worthwhile bit of entertainment.

AT THE PINE TREE

Life in the cattle country has supplied material for plenty of entertaining western pictures. The two-fisted, hard-riding straight-shooting heroes are the idols of thousands. However, variety is sometimes lacking so that the western picture when it introduces fresh material into the conventional plan is sure of considerable success.

Such a picture as "Gallop 'Em Home," starring Bob Steele, which comes to the Pine Tree theatre today.

AT THE RAINBOW

America's many plunges into depression, only to rally each time to a greater prosperity than she has ever known before, furnishes material for one of the outstanding screen epics, "The Conqueror," done to perfection by practically the same cast as the immortal "Cimarron." Through generation after generation a clear picture is given showing how this great western nation has met and coped with economic fluctuation since the very day she became an independent nation. "The Conquerors," engaged for a return showing, will open today at the Rainbow theatre.

LITERARY GROUP NAMES OFFICERS

By ALBERT BERGMAN, K. U. H. M. Correspondent

The Literary club of the high school, whose training has fitted many students for the Klamath staff, recently elected officers for the year. They are as follows:

Marjorie Davis, president; Marie Morgan, vice president; Robert Stevenson, secretary-treasurer; and Ivar Hult, publicity. Mr. Ivar Monroe is faculty advisor.

Marie Morgan was elected to take the place of Doris Darnielle as vice president. Miss Darnielle is leaving the city.

Twenty persons attended the meeting. All candidates must turn in a contribution which will be voted upon before the candidate is eligible for membership in the club.

Mr. Monroe read a short story of a length which he thought should be a pattern for those who like to write short stories. It was two magazine pages in length and contained about 500 words.

This organization does a great deal to encourage the talent of students in writing stories, features and book reviews. The club is planning to have a year book in which all contributions voted on and passed by the board of editors will be printed at the end of the school year.

Budget Committee For County Meets Monday Morning

The Klamath county court and budget committee will hold its first meeting Monday morning at 10 o'clock. It was decided at the court session Thursday. County Judge Grizzle said other county business will be adjourned until the committee finishes its job, when the budget will be advertised and a public hearing held.

Klamath Falls' city budget was being worked on Thursday afternoon, after a preliminary meeting of the budget committee Wednesday.

KLAMATH DEALER FOR PYROLL NAMED

The Imperial garage, at Third and Main streets, has been selected as a retail dealer and warehouse headquarters for Pyroll, an automobile and engine lubricant. It is announced by Harry Goeller, owner of the garage.

"A Pyroll treated engine operates at a reduced temperature, with a better oil film, with the same efficiency on less oil and therefore has more pep and fewer breakdowns," Goeller states. Pyroll has recently been featured in an article using the Pyroll trade name in Popular Mechanics. It also received the endorsement of the Association

Lakeview Seeks Road Changes

LAKEVIEW, Ore., Oct. 20.—The Lakeview city council and business men of the city have petitioned the state highway commission to route the Fremont highway along the east side of the Odd Fellows cemetery, and thence directly into Main street, thereby eliminating two right angles

Moisset Field is the name of the naval air station at Sunnyvale, Calif.

The commission has agreed to make this change provided the necessary right of way will be furnished free of cost. The survey is now being made, and the council will know within a week how much the necessary right of way will cost. Numerous business men have offered to donate toward its purchase.
