Jockey Champion

Modest Youngster

ARLINGTON DOWNS, Tex., Oct. 28, (AP)—Jackie Westrope, newly crowned champion of jockeys, gave credit for his success to his mounts.

"I just rode the best horses and brought 'em in," he says.

The 17-year-old Harlan, Ia., apprentice rider boosted his season's total of victories to 249 by bottling P. T. Chinn's Excitation and Paramount stable's informal to first place in races here yesterday. That was three above the modern record.

Westrope was modest as a turf hero. He pointed out, however, he had been trained in the handling of thoroughbreds since he was 7-years-old by his father, W. T. Westrope, now

"And there's plenty yet to learn," he added.

Westrope is pointing toward the all-time record of 300-odd race victories set many years ago by the English rider, Jockey Miller.

PRICE JUMPS SLOW TRADING FOR BUTTER

PORTLAND, Oct. 28, (AP)—Market on butter reflected no change for the weekend session of the exchange or on the open market. Sales have slowed up considerably as a result of recent advances forced to take advantage of the government's offer to relieve the trade of some of the very burdensome surplus. Practically all the aid will be to speculators rather than to producers of dairy products. Once again the produce exchange was forced after much delay, to follow advances made in the price on chickens in the open trade. The late session shows almost general rises.

Turkey Mart Dragged
Draggy tone was continued in the market for dressed turkeys. At the weekend there was no further change in the price but the movement was slow. Real top quality was sought but others were in supply and slow. Trade in fresh eggs was well held locally and with recent higher prices intact. Demand was taking care of immediate offerings but storage goods remained slow. Northern shipments of undergrades in this direction continued.

Reporters from Oregon Washington bogs suggest one of the lightest harvests in the history of the industry. The crop was light.

Hogs Steady
Market was steady for country killed hogs at late prices but other lines were a trifle dull. Canner cows were fairly steady but at recent low prices.

Stagnant tone was showing for onions as a result of continued sacrifices of Yakima stock. Local growers continued tight holders generally and most of the supply available in Portland was from outstate.
