night. Swope confirmed the report that Austin Finch of Thomas-ville, N. C., would be includ-ed among the retiring mem-hers but denied that Louis Kirstein of Filene & Sons, Bostou, was among the group as some reports have said. Swope said he did not recall who was to be the fifth, but would announce his name to-morrow.

morrow. Great confusion surrounded the development which was re-ferred to in some unofficial quarters as "resignation." It was learned reliably, however, that the move was the first step in a plan to rotate mem-hership of the board to give the industrialists who com-pose it more time to give other phases of the recovery pro-gram and to their own affairs.

Republican mational committee has broken its long allence to charge Freedent Roosevelt with repudiating campular pledges. In a booklet prepared for use by republican party workers, the national committee asserts that Mr. Roosevelt has broken away from sound money and em-braced the rubber dollar; failed to reduce the cost of government 25 per cent or to bahnice the budget; failed to expedite pub-lic works; engaged the govern-ment in transactions in farm commodities that failed to re-store price parity for agricul-ture; failed to lower the tariff; subsidized exports; taxed food and clothing; left bank deposits tied up for months; urged un-safo banking to bolster NRA; weakened anti-trust laws, and taken government into the field of private business on a large scale. Thirty Klamath Doctors May Benefit On Agreement Expiration Today

The foud between Klamath county physicians and the state industrial accident commission over the blanket contract effec-tive here during the past year for the care of injured work-men was ended this morning. In a telegram reseived from the state commission Tuesday, by E. H. Thomas, field repre-sentative, the contract with the Hilliside hospital expired this morning permitting all workmen not coming under the individual contracts with the larger opera-tors to choose their own physi-cian.

expense fund unpaid after the present call, Taylor said. With the exception of the $40,000 outstanding warrants in the current expense fund and about $2,000 in the county read fund the county is on a cash basis, the treasurer said. The county read fund was on a cash basis for a short time this sum-mer and was forced back on a warrant basis October 11. Money Sent Tuesday Payment of the last half of the state assessment was made possible by the exceptionally good turnover of tax payments in the county during the past few days, Taylor said. The first Kismath county payment to the state was made inst. May with a unitar ward. Taylor forwarded the $55, $46.06 to the state tax commis-sion at Salem Tuesday morning.
