

Beavers, Webfoots Big News

Oregon Eleven's Command Major Importance on Pacific Coast. Game at Portland May Settle Conference Title. Callison Has Difficult Match Against Utah Saturday. Ranks of Unbeaten, Untied Teams Reduced.

It's been a long time since football in the Northwest was such outstanding big news. Not in recent football history, at least, has midseason come rolling around with Oregon and Oregon State colleges securely and undisputedly at the top of the Pacific Coast conference.

The Webfoots have the edge in the standings, of course, for they have moved through their schedule untied as well as unbeaten. The Orangemen, however, rest pleasantly in the circle of 1,000, and stand head above the shoulders of their coast brethren with a scoreless tie against the mighty—though perhaps not so mighty now—Trojans of Southern California.

The Oregon-Oregon State game at Portland one week from Saturday may be for the championship of the conference. Neither team will have lost a conference game at that time for the simple reason that neither plays a conference member. Oregon, however, has a difficult game against the champions of the Rocky Mountains, Utah, and all information to the contrary is incorrect.

On paper the Webfoots should be three touchdowns stronger than these Indians. On the field it may be a different matter.

Oregon State rests this Saturday after two of the most difficult games on its schedule, Troy and the Cougars.

Here is Utah's record thus far in the season: Utah 14, Montana State 9, Utah 21, Columbia 21, Brigham Young 6, Utah 14, Washington 9.

The result of the Utah-UCLA contest, of course, is sufficient to establish Oregon as the favorite.

It is interesting at this time to recall the season's record for Oregon and the Beavers: Oregon 53, Linfield 9, Oregon 14, Gonzaga 9, Oregon 14, Columbia 7, Oregon 6, Washington 9, Oregon 6, Idaho 9, Oregon 7, UCLA 0.

Ore. State 21, Willamette 9, Ore. State 21, S. O. N. S. 9, Ore. State 20, Montana 6, Ore. State 6, Gonzaga 9, Ore. State 12, S. F. U. 7, Ore. State 6, U. S. C. 0, Ore. State 2, W. S. C. 0.

The only opportunity for comparison between Oregon and Oregon State comes in the Gonzaga games. The Bulldogs held the Beavers to a scoreless tie and then lost to Oregon by two touchdowns.

Both teams have had their goals crossed but once.

The ranks of the unbeaten and untied teams suffered a tremendous elimination last Saturday. Only 26 such teams remain in the country, and the majority of these are eleven of no importance in the autumn sun.

Oregon in the far west, Duquesne, Fordham, Army, Georgia, Holy Cross, Duke, Princeton, Michigan and Nebraska are the only teams in the list holding any particular meaning to the nation's football fans.

Just a slim handful of these teams remain unscathed upon Emory and Henry see Virginia has kept its goal untouched, as well as Princeton. Two other absolutely unknown eleven, Peru Teachers in Nebraska and Moravian college in Pennsylvania have been unbeaten, untied and unscathed upon.

If the Big Ten ruling permitting post season games holds, it looks though Michigan, providing it can get by Illinois this week, might be the New Year's day selection. Georgia, Fordham or Princeton would be highly acceptable eleven, too. It is doubtful whether the Army would be permitted to play.

Nebraska, Duke, Duquesne and Holy Cross, of course, would have to be second and third choice, even though they did maintain their undefeated status.

Nebraska, Duke, Duquesne and Holy Cross, of course, would have to be second and third choice, even though they did maintain their undefeated status.

Otis Hingman, 160, Oklahoma City, defeated a grappler booked as the "Masked Marvel," 163, address not given, in the semi-windup, taking two out of three falls.

Logger Helbert, 160, St. Helena, won two out of three falls to take the preliminary from Rod Fenton, 162, Los Angeles.

BOXING KLAMATH MEETS CAVE MAN SQUAD

Pelicans Prepare For First "Foreign" Tilt Friday.

The Klamath Pelicans, their hopes for a southern Oregon title removed by a loss to Medford here last Friday, play their first away from home game of the season against Grants Pass Friday afternoon.

The Pelicans still stood out as favorites above the Cavemen. Both teams have been beaten and the loser of Friday's contest probably will be assigned to the conference cellar.

Ashland Beats G. P. Grants Pass was beaten by Ashland two weeks ago. This was its only start in conference competition.

The Klamath coaches set about this week to repair the damage of the Medford defeat. The pass defense, perpetual weakness of the Pelicans, probably will be strengthened to prevent a repetition of the Medford game.

The coaching staff was hopeful Bob Leslie, halfback, would be in condition to start against the Cavemen. Leslie, injured in scrimmages last week, was in the Medford game only briefly Friday.

Wet Field Practice The young ball carrier, however, was the team's "spark" on three plays and carried the ball toward the Medford goal for 11 yards. He was removed shortly after to avoid further injury.

The Pelicans faced the prospect of practice on a wet field for the remainder of the week. This was not considered a disadvantage for it was believed the Grants Pass weather would be stormy this weekend.

Klamath broke even with the Cavemen in two games last season.

Boston Eleven Leads League In Offensive

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—The Boston Redskins, with a total gain of 1894 yards, led the national football league clubs in offensive play, according to figures compiled today.

The Portsmouth Spartans have the best defensive record, with only 915 yards against them.

A survey of National League club rosters today disclosed that 97 colleges are represented among the players. Forty of the players came from Western conference colleges.

Washington State and Oregon State, each with five, are strongest of the far western schools.

Copulos Beats Welker Cochran

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. (AP)—After dropping the first block of their exhibition match, Gus Copulos, Eugene, Ore., cue artist, came back to defeat Welker Cochran, world's three-cushioned billiard champion, 59 to 45 in 37 innings, in the second block.

Copulos, seeded player in the national championships, lost to Cochran 59 to 35 in 33 innings in the first block. Cochran had a high run of seven in the opening block and a six in the second. Copulos had two runs of six in his winning block.

BASEBALL Winner, Loser

Lou Brouillard, above, lost his middleweight crown to Vince Dundee, below, Monday night in Boston. It was Brouillard's first major defense of his title since he won it from Ben Jety.

Negro Grid Star Behind Bars for Rest of Season

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 31. (AP)—R. B. "Frog" Foster, backfield star of the Columbia negro football team, sat glumly in a cell today, thinking of games that he would not play.

Arrested just before the big game with Booneville, "Frog" was sentenced to 30 days in jail for possession of liquor.

Judge N. H. Hickman was besieged, however, with requests that Foster be turned loose, just for a day, because Columbia needed him. Finally the judge made "Frog" a trusty, and ordered him to win the game.

But the Booneville players proved too strong. "Frog's" husky battle-cries became a sad croak as he failed to lead his team to victory. And now he must watch the rest of the season from behind the bars of the city jail.

Oregon Praises Great Strength Of Bruin Team

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. (AP)—Warned by the victorious Oregon Ducks that U. C. L. A. has a real football team, California's Bears went to work today to their first gridiron clash with their formidable "little brother" at Los Angeles next Saturday.

The homebound-bound Oregon men had a lot to say about the Bruins. "Mighty Mike" Mikulak, the pile-driving Webfoot fullback, said he hadn't run "into a tougher line this year."

If the Bears take the advice of Mark Temple, halfback and co-captain of the Oregon team, they will watch out for Cheshire, Bruin halfback.

The Bruins have a real find in that boy, Temple declared. "He'll give the mighty Bear of Berkeley a tough afternoon Saturday."

The Bears rested yesterday afternoon and then had a little informal "skull work" in the evening, viewing the motion pictures of the U. S. C. game Saturday.

HUNTING DUNDEE TAKES MIDDLE TITLE

Lou Brouillard Beaten in Championship Mix At Boston.

BY BILL KING Associated Press Sports Writer BOSTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Lou Brouillard today found himself an ex-champion for the second time in his brief career.

The French-Canadian youngster from Worcester, was stripped of his middleweight title last night by Vince Dundee, the Baltimore veteran, in a tame 15-round bout at the Boston Garden.

Dundee Too Clever The victory, which gave him the title, also gave Dundee the last laugh on Teddy Yarosa and Young Terry, who have given him recent beatings. Either could have been Brouillard's challenger last night if they had been willing to accept the customary 12 1/2 per cent slice of the gate receipts, which totaled $15,021.50.

Yarosa and Terry were on hand to challenge the winner and they, like the other 9,323 spectators, were amazed at Brouillard's poor showing. He was as aggressive as ever but was never able to get going against the canny Dundee, who stepped most of his rushes to set into position to lash a weak right to the head or poke out a flabby left jab, blows that gave him a slight lead in eight of the rounds. The decision was unanimous.

Brouillard's position in ring annals is unique.

Two years ago he battered the welterweight title away from Jackie Thompson and three months later, while making his initial defense, he dropped it to Jackie Fields. He missed the middleweight championship only two months ago by beating Ben Jety. His first middleweight title start was against Dundee.

"I gave up all hope of beating Dundee two days ago," Lou said soon after he dropped his second title. "You know I had to take off 14 pounds. I weighed 130 when I knocked out Adolph Heuser, the light heavyweight, a few weeks ago, and it robbed me of all my strength. I guess the light heavyweight division is where I belong and I'm going out to get a third title. I have grown myself out of two of them."

Panther Player Blocks Mate to Score on Irish

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31. (AP)—A neat bit of blocking that helped pave the way for Pitt's second touchdown in its 14 to 0 victory over Notre Dame was disclosed today.

Ken Ormiston, Panther guard, intercepted an Irish forward pass in the second period and barged goalward.

Ahead of Ormiston, clearing the way for him with some devastating blocking, was Bob Hogan, Pitt's big quarterback. Also in the quickly forming interference was George Shotwell, Panther center.

A second later Hogan was on the ground, taken out of the play by Shotwell, his teammate. "What's the idea?" yelled Hogan.

"I didn't want you to be in Ken's way," Shotwell explained. Meanwhile Ormiston had slipped to the turf, but four plays later Pitt had scored that second touchdown.

GOLF Six Wrestlers To Star Here In Three Bouts

A wrestling program presenting both quantity and quality in professional athletics will be promoted at the American Legion hall Friday night. Mack Lillard, matchmaker, will bring six outstanding northwest matmen here for three matches.

Each match in itself has the character of a main event but Lillard has selected Bob Myers of Tillamook and Chet Willes of Portland for the one hour top exhibition. Myers has never been defeated in Klamath Falls and Willes will be showing here for the first time. Willes is a former policeman on the Portland force.

Sailor Franz of San Diego, the wildman who gave Myers so much trouble last week, will be in the semi-windup bout against Leo Jensen of Seattle. Lillard has announced this match will be for the best two out of three falls in 45 minutes.

The third match will bring Billy Newman of Denver back to the Legion hall. Newman will clash with Heinie Olson of Portland in a 30-minute, one-fall event. Heinie is the brother of Herman Olson who wrestled here a month or two ago.

Pelican Boys Capture City School Title

The Pelican schoolboys won the city speedball championship by defeating Mills, 13 to 6, in the closing game of the season. The championship was the third won by Pelican in four years.

The Cliff Dunn trophy now rests permanently in the trophy case at Pelican school.

Here is the record set up by the champions:

Pelican 22, Fairview 2
Pelican 11, Roosevelt 8
Pelican 23, Fremont 6
Pelican 13, Mills 6
Roosevelt won second place.

All games were played under the supervision of J. W. Peak, director of physical education in city schools.

The league standings are:

Pelican	4	0	1000
Roosevelt	3	1	750
Fremont	2	2	500
Riverside	2	2	500
Mills	1	3	250
Fairview	0	4	000

* played second teams.

FOOTBALL NATION TO SEE TITLE BATTLES

Sectional, Intersectional Games Set For Saturday.

By Jack Cuddy United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—A half dozen big games, topped by the Fordham-St. Mary's inter-sectional clash at New York, and the Michigan-Illinois brawl at Champaign, feature this week's national football schedule.

The four other outstanding encounters, bring together Duke and Auburn, and Georgia and Florida in the south, and Ogden and Utah, and U. C. L. A. and California in the far West.

Big Ten Leaders Meet Pre-battle blueprints indicate that the heaviest fighting will occur at Champaign, when Illinois smashes into the conference-leading Wolverines.

More than 55,000 fans are expected to watch Jim Crowley's Fordham Rams, unbeaten and untied, attempt to repel the invasion of St. Mary's Galloping Gaius at the Polo grounds. The Rams will be favored over the Gaels.

Down South Duke stakes its perfect record against the strong Auburn eleven. Duke will be favored. The Georgia Bulldogs will try to keep their state clean against Florida's capable squad.

Oregon, leader of the Pacific Coast conference, attempts to repel the invasion of the Utah Indians at Eugene. Although Utah leads the Rocky Mountain conference, the Indians should not offer menacing opposition, because they lost previously to U. C. L. A. 21 to 0, the team which Oregon beat Saturday 7-0.

Big Crowds Expected The U. C. L. A.-California game is expected to attract the largest crowd in the West at Los Angeles. Some other interesting encounters may be listed as follows:

East—Army tackles the unbeaten and untied Coe college. Princeton should have easy going against Brown. Duquesne stakes its banner record against Washington and Jefferson. Colgate encounters Tulane, George Washington's unbeaten warriors meet Tennessee. Navy tries to repel Notre Dame. Pittsburgh meets Centre and Yale engages Dartmouth.

South—Besides the Georgia and Duke games, two Southeastern conference contests pair Alabama and Kentucky, and Vanderbilt and Georgia Tech.

Midwest—Unbeaten untied Holy Cross marches on Detroit. Carnegie Tech invades Purdue. Big Ten games bring together Northwestern and Minnesota, and Ohio State and Indiana. Iowa meets Iowa State in a non-conference game.

Nebraska, leader of the Big Six, should have easy sailing against the conference tail-ender, Missouri, victim of four straight defeats. Oklahoma tangles with Kansas, while Iowa State and Kansas State play outsiders, Iowa and Michigan State respectively.

Southwest—Conference clashes pair Baylor-Texas Christian, and Southern Methodist-Texas. Texas A. & M. tangles with Centenary.

Two Philadelphia Stars Involved In Trade Rumor

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31. (AP)—The Evening Ledger says Connie Mack has traded catcher Mickey Cochran to Detroit and has sold Lefty Grove, ace pitcher, "either to the Chicago White Sox or the Boston Red Sox, probably the White Sox."

Cochran has already agreed to terms to manage the Bengals, and this announcement will be made very soon," the paper states.

Connie Mack emphatically denied last week the club has made any deals.

The Ledger also says that Max Bishop has been turned over to the Red Sox in an exchange for cash, that George Earnshaw, right-hand hurler, will be sold, and that "there is a strong chance that Rube Walberg will join the big parade."

Turning to the Phillies of the National league, the paper reviews the report that Chuck Klein, the circuit's leading hitter last year, has been sold to the Chicago Cubs.

Wolgast Defeats British Fighter

LONDON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Midget Wolgast of Philadelphia, recognized by the New York state boxing commission as world flyweight champion, won a non-title 12-round decision over Jackie Brown of Manchester, Eng., at Albert Hall. Brown is recognized as champion by the United States National Boxing association. Both entered the ring weighing 114 pounds, two more than the 112 pound limit.

FISHING Along the Sidelines

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 31. (UP)—With two weeks rest before the "battle of century" against Oregon at Portland, the Oregon State College squad planned to take things easy this week. If Lon Stiner can tie or beat Oregon, his men will go through the conference season undefeated and possibly unscathed on. Thus far only seven points have been scored on the Beavers. U. S. F. did what Willamette, Southern Oregon Normal, Gonzaga U. S. C., Montana and Washington State could not—cross the Beaver's goal line.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 31. (UP)—With such performers as Sarboe, Christoferson and Colburn on the bench with injuries from the Oregon State game, the Washington State Cougars Monday looked to Gonzaga for the week-end's competition.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 31. (UP)—An inter-sectional game with Utah was Oregon's slate for Saturday, while their old rival, Oregon State, rested for the Armistice Day clash. Utah, five times beaten by coast teams, is not expected to give Oregon much of a battle, which suits Prink Callison fine. The largest crowd in northwest football history is expected at the Oregon-Oregon State game at Portland.

SEATTLE, Oct. 31. (UP)—Heartened by the 6 to 0 trimming handed Stanford, University of Washington football warriors had two weeks rest ahead of them before meeting California at Berkeley. Bill Smith, whose two place kicks beat Stanford, was being touted to fill the All-American end post held by Dave Nesbit last year.

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 31. (UP)—A bruised and battered Golden Bear team that outfought Southern California for three periods only to lose a 6 to 6 game when "Cotton" Warburton broke away for a 58 yard run, prepared Monday to meet the "Little" Brothers from Los Angeles. U. C. L. A. The great game of Howard Christie, California center, was praised by Coach Inman Monday. California was favored to beat U. C. L. A. in the first meeting of the two.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 31. (UP)—Stanford students awaited rather sadly the arrival of their team from Seattle where the Cardinals lost 6 to 6 to Washington because Bill Smith, end, kicked two field goals. Advance messages from the Stanford troupe avoided any mention of a "wet ball" alibi. Stanford plays Olympic club next Saturday.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Oct. 31. (UP)—Clipper Smith's Broncos settled down to steady drilling on a running attack Monday to be ready for Rice Institute in an inter-sectional game at San Francisco Saturday. The Santa Clara passing attack, with Sobrero throwing, and the kicking department, with Diamond, Joe Faglia going strong, was rated near perfection.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. (UP)—A 6 to 0 victory over Gonzaga, the first win in five starts this season for University of San Francisco, heartened the Dons Monday. Grville Condry, fullback, scored Sunday at Kezar stadium after leading an 82 yard drive. U. S. F. plays Loyola of Los Angeles here Nov. 12.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31. (UP)—Traded a rest Monday, the U. S. C. Trojans today began an intensive two week drill for their game with Stanford Armistice Day. Coach Howard Jones indicated he was not satisfied with the scoring "punch" of the squad and would make several more changes in his first string lineup. He has already moved Bill Howard to first string quarterback and Homer Griffith to fullback.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31. (UP)—Gloom hit the U. C. L. A. campus Monday as Coach Bill Spaulding announced that Capt. Leo Coats, center, again injured his ankle in the Oregon game and his substitute, Phil Nordli, had a cracked kneecap and may be out the rest of the season. Blocking and passing practice started the week's work in preparation for the game with California Saturday.

Medford Student Fined By Justice

William Elwood Welty, Medford high school student, was fined $5 in Justice of the Peace Prather's court at Klamath Monday on a charge of driving with four persons in the driver's seat of an automobile. The fine was remitted.

Welty was stopped on the Greensprings road October 29 by State Police Officer Arthur Currie. The four persons in the car were on their way home from the football game in Klamath Falls.

Chicago Player Injures Ankle

CHICAGO, Oct. 21. (AP)—Luke Johnson, Chicago Bears' end, fractured his right ankle in Sunday's professional football game with the New York Giants, it was discovered by an X-ray today.

WRESTLING Klamath Grid Title Contest Set for Friday

The two undefeated "B" teams in the county, Bonanza and Malin, were at work on rain-soaked gridirons this week preparing for the championship contest at Malin Friday afternoon.

Little difference in the strength of the two eleven could be discovered. Both have strong lines, swift ball carriers, and outstanding coaches.

Malin and Bonanza defeated the Klamath Wildcats earlier in the season. Bonanza has defeated Tulelake high school in two games and Malin crushed Henley last Friday.

Two other "B" division games will be played this week. Little Tulelake, playing its first year in football competition, will tackle the error at Tulelake Friday. Henley will clash with the Wildcats either Friday or Saturday on Modoc field.

BIG CROWDS HEAR TEMPLE EVANGELIST

Evangelist W. R. Watson, converted bank robber, is drawing large crowds to his services at Klamath Temple, despite the stormy weather.

The evangelist opened his campaign on Sunday evening, when he told of his conversion when he was in the Idaho state prison at Boise, serving a sentence for robbing a Bonners Ferry bank of $15,000.

On Tuesday night Evangelist Watson will tell of his experiences while in prison, and on Wednesday night, how he was released from prison.

Jim Browning Retains Title Against Szabo

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—Jim Browning of Missouri retained his claim to the world heavyweight championship by throwing Sandor Szabo of Hungary after 50 minutes 56 seconds of grappling before 14,000 fans at Madison Square Garden.

The 230-pound Browning, who is recognized in New York state as title-holder, finished his 212-pound opponent with an airplane scissors.

In the semi-final, "Man Mountain" Dean of Georgia, bewhiskered 392 pounder, was declared the winner when Jumping Joe Savoldi, former of the same title, was disqualified for butting after 3:45 of their scheduled finish match had elapsed.

Sporting Briefs

By Associated Press. NEW YORK—Sure sign of football power: A dozen spectators were tossed out of the line of persons waiting at Fordham gymnasium to buy tickets for the St. Mary's game.

VILLANOVA, Pa.—Charley Cox, Villanova varsity guard, is being treated a trifle annoyed. Last summer he was bitten by a snake. A week after the season opened three small bones in his right hand were broken. Now he had to go to a doctor and have three stitches taken in his chin, slashed by the boot of a Manhattan player last Saturday.

LINCOLN, Neb.—The Coyotes of Nebraska Wesleyan are no more. Call 'em Plainsmen hereafter. The students didn't like the old moniker and a new nickname was the result.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—This South Carolina team is a glutton for football. Hardy back home from Blacksburg, Va., where on Saturday they played their second game in three days, and their third in ten, the Gamecocks were out for a brisk two-hour drill yesterday, making ready for Louisiana State.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Water was at a special premium at Michigan yesterday. Harry Kipke ruled no players could visit the water bucket except those who intercepted passes tossed by the Browns using Illinois plays.

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—If anyone thinks Notre Dame's easy let him talk to Rip Miller. "The Tamblers are just in a mental slump," Rip told Navy. "The players are over-anxious to win, and are pressing like a golfer does sometimes in a championship match. Navy is likely to get them on the rebound."

Woman with $40,000 in cash and securities was found wandering in a daze in New York. Probably from trying to find a safe place to put her money.

Smart women in America are "making up" their legs, using different shades for sports, afternoon and evening wear, now that the no-stocking fad has become general.

The oldest assembly in the world is thought to be the Welsh bardic congress, the Eisteddfod.

TAKE SPOTLIGHT IN SATURDAY'S BIG GAMES

Jackson, Reed Wrestle Evenly

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31. (AP)—Bulldog Jackson, 156, of Klamath Falls, and Robin Reed, 155, of Reedsport struggled through 60 minutes of wrestling to a draw on the program staged here last night.

Neither could successfully execute the deciding tangle after Jackson had taken the first fall in 20 minutes with a hammerlock and Reed had evened it up in 23 minutes with a knee strangle.

Otis Hingman, 160, Oklahoma City, defeated a grappler booked as the "Masked Marvel," 163, address not given, in the semi-windup, taking two out of three falls.

Logger Helbert, 160, St. Helena, won two out of three falls to take the preliminary from Rod Fenton, 162, Los Angeles.
