

F. D. R. FLATLY REJECTS PLAN OF GOVERNORS

nothing left for the farmer. I am not disappointed. I am disgusted."

Governor Olson of Minnesota said he was fearful the administration's decision would provoke new outbreaks of violence in the west.

"In spite of the president's action, I believe we have accomplished a great deal by coming to Washington because we have called the attention of the public generally and the administration to the farmers' worst needs," Berry said.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt today assured the governors and the farmers of the middle west of "every possible effort to bring about an increase in prices without exerting the compulsion of the individual farmers."

The president and Secretary Wallace were disclosed to have turned down the proposal of the governors to license all handlers and processors of agricultural products.

Dakota Chief Disappointed
A lengthy statement explaining the views of the governors and the administration was given out at the conclusion of today's meeting between the president and the governors.

Governor Langer of North Dakota said he was "disappointed and disgusted" with the president's decision. He contended it represented "a 100 per cent rejection of our plan."

Langer declared the decision "means that the farmer is the forgotten man," adding "everybody else has been here before him including the railroads and the insurance companies and there is nothing left for him."

Disturbance Expected
Governor Olson of Minnesota, who acted as spokesman for the state executives, said "the president rejected the plan for the same reasons which the department of agriculture gave yesterday—principally because he believes a large sum of money would be required, which is not available for buying products at fixed prices to support the market."

Utah Downed By Webfeet; Score 26-0 end; Alex Eagle, tackle; Leighton Gee, halfback; Dutch Clark, tackle; and Bree Cuppetelli, guard.

On the first play after the replacement, Gee intercepted a pass and returned to midfield as the quarter ended. Shortly after, Gee shot off tackle, cut back through the secondary and romped unmolested half the length of the field for Oregon's first score.

A pass from Milligan, reserve halfback, to Gee produced the second Webfoot tally. Gee caught it on the 15-yard line, lost balance near the goal line, and dove over the first stripe on his face. Milligan kicked the point.

Hinaldi Makes Run
The third quarter was largely a punting duel between the two clubs.

Early in the fourth period Maury Van Vleet, 145-pound quarterback, flipped a pass from the 10-yard line over the goal to "Pepper" Popelnjak, bringing Oregon's total to 19. The kick from placement was blocked.

Popelnjak started the last scoring drive with a ten-yard dash for a first down. Van Vleet uncorked a 16-yard pass to the Utah 19.

A sweeping end run by Arey came on the next play and it was good for a touchdown. Gagnon, guard, kicked the extra point.

Hinaldi's colorful run for Utah came after the next kick-off and Grange converted.

Youth Sentenced To Life Term For Kidnaping

ager. She was ransomed for $30,000 after 29 hours of captivity in a squalid basement near here.

The failure to demand the extreme verdict, however, was not mandatory on the jury decision. The jurors took the case near midnight and immediately began deliberation.

Like the trial of Walter McGee, that of his brother ran a swift and terse course. The state opened its case in the criminal division of circuit court Wednesday. Testimony largely was a reiteration of that in the previous trial.

Triple Murder Planned
The defense rested today after preliminary submission of a denial of George McGee's implication in the kidnaping of the slim, brunette society girl, an allegation of police brutality in forcing a purported confession, and a denial by Walter McGee that he and his brother were linked with the abduction proper.

The case was expected to reach the jury early tonight.

The most striking testimony hitherto unrevealed in the case came from William Sompes, city detective. He asserted that a machine gun in the hands of George McGee was trained on Judge McElroy and his son, Henry, during the ransom payment. McGee was to bump them off in case of a hitch, and return to the hideout and kill "Miss McElroy," he testified.
