

Oregon Second In National Grid Ratings

Webfoots Unaccustomed Members of Football's Charmed Circle. Champions in Making Saturday. Defensive Power of Beavers, Oregon Appear Even. What's Become of Annual Cross-Country Run.

High up in the thinned column of undefeated and untied football teams rests a strange name—Oregon. It's so extraordinary it is almost impossible to recognize it as the Webfoots of the Pacific Coast conference—a team never arriving at any particular outstanding destination in too many seasons.

Oregon facing another undefeated but twice tied team—Oregon State—Saturday, the University of Southern California next week and the St. Mary's Gaels on Thanksgiving Day, has tremendous obstacles to slip by to maintain the position of supremacy in the nation's football standings.

Duquesne of Pittsburgh, a team heard of nationally just about as rarely as Oregon or Oregon State, stands first among the unbesieged eleven.

Oregon, in second position, has won seven games this year. The Webfoots have scored 129 points. Columbia University of Portland pushed back the Webfoots for one touchdown and a conversion, Utah, of Salt Lake, the other.

Here is the complete list of teams, playing three games or more, undefeated and untied, in their proper ratings:

Table with 3 columns: Team, W. for agst, Pts. Duquesne 147 19, Oregon 129 14, Bluefield, W. Va., Col. 125 7, Army 124 6, McPherson Col., Kan. 119 6, DePaul, Chicago 113 6, Emory & Henry, Va. 102 6, St. Cloud, Minn. 93 12, Murray, Ky. 88 13, Oklahoma City 148 45, Princeton 134 6, Georgia 114 25, DePaul, Ind. 88 6, St. Thomas, Pa. 85 5, Michigan 108 72, Nebraska 82 7, Tampa, Fla., Univ. 48 7, Rollins, Fla. 46 6

Speaking of conference football leaders, here is a brief picture of prospective champions: Big Six—Nebraska can win title by defeating Kansas this week.

Missouri Valley—Drake will win if it can defeat Oklahoma. If Oklahoma wins, Creighton will be in the lead.

East—Army, Princeton and Duquesne lone survivors.

Big Ten—Michigan favored, but tagged closely by Purdue. Minnesota has an outside chance, and its game with Michigan may decide the championship.

Southwest—Texas and Arkansas, only undefeated teams, meet for title on November 24.

Pacific Coast—Oregon, Oregon State and University of Southern California undefeated. Oregon meets Oregon State Saturday.

Southeastern—Georgia only team unbeaten and untied. Alabama, Louisiana State, Mississippi and Vanderbilt unbeaten, but tied. Any one can still step out and defeat Georgia.

Southern—Duke, South Carolina, North Carolina and Washington and Lee still contenders.

Rocky Mountain—Utah in lead. Denver and Colorado Argies threatening.

It scores mean anything, and they often do, the defensive powers of the Webfoot team and the Orangemen rank pretty evenly. No conference team has scored on either eleven.

Oregon has scored 32 points, 19 against Idaho, six against Washington and seven against the Bruins of Ucla.

The Beavers' 22 points were scored against Montana and Washington State—the two coming against the Cougars.

There is one interesting tradition connected with the Oregon-Oregon State football game no one has heard much about this season.

This is the annual barrier run. One season it would precede the game at Eugene and the next year at Corvallis. With the transfer to Portland this event may have to be eliminated. Paved streets probably wouldn't furnish a particularly good course for cross-country boys.

The Beavers have had the edge in this pre-game event. Oregon, if the memory serves, has won but once in recent years.

That victory was brought in chiefly by Ralph and Clarence Hill of Henley. Clarence captained the squad and had the misfortune to fracture a leg when he stepped in a mudhole.

Michigan Loses Outstanding Guard

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 7 (AP)—Carl Savage, rated as one of the best guards in the Big Ten conference, will be lost to Michigan for the remainder of the football season, it was learned today. An X-ray revealed that a bone in his foot was fractured in the Illinois game at Urbana last Saturday.

GEORGIA, YALE MEET SATURDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—It took the Georgia Bulldogs five years to find out how to whip the Yale breed of the same species. But since they discovered the winning combination in 1927, the Southerners have come to enjoy victory over New Haven. They've beaten the Elis three times running, and expect to make it four in a row this week.

Southern Team Strong From Athens, Ga., Harry Mehre will bring into the north what looks like one of the south's most powerful eleven, undefeated and untied in six games this season. Operating behind a good line—a set of speedy backs, headed by High-Scoring Cy Grant, have carried Georgia to successive victories over North Carolina State, Tulane, North Carolina, Mercer, New York University and Florida. They don't think Yale can stop them.

Neither, for that matter, do the experts. They figure the invaders at least a touchdown or two the better unless the Elis can flash tremendous improvement over their performance in the Army and Dartmouth games. They were soundly trounced by Army and looked little more impressive against Dartmouth, although they earned a 14-13 victory.

Princeton Favored When it comes to taking advantage of their opportunities, the Navy and Princeton teams seem to deserve top rating in the East. Brown made four mistakes against Princeton last week, and the Tigers cashed in on every one of them for touchdowns. So far as yardage gained was concerned, Navy was outplayed by both Penn and Notre Dame, but the Tars converted their chances into scores to beat them both. It is that, as much as anything, that is worrying Lou Little, coach of the Columbia Lions, who meet Navy Saturday. His players, especially Captain Cliff Montgomery, have been doing plenty of fumbling, and that might be fatal against the alert Tars.

Elmer Layden, coach of the undefeated Duquesne eleven, says his team will lose by three touchdowns to the Pitt Panthers, but students of the game are taking that prediction with a large pinch of salt. Washington and Jefferson, which held Pitt to a 9-0 score and tied Carnegie, was trounced by the Duke 21-6. Detroit, which thoroughly whipped Holy Cross, 24-0, surrendered to the Ducks, 14-0. Pitt will start the favorite, but it will be cause for surprise if the margin's more than a touchdown.

Reed Defeated By Jensen In Portland Bout

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7. (AP)—Refusing to accept victory on a real Robin Reed of Redport went down to defeat at the hands of Thor Jensen of Elkton, Ore., two falls out of three, in the main event of last night's wrestling card here. Jensen weighed 162 and Reed 156. Jensen took the opening fall with an airplane spin in 12 minutes. Reed won the second in 13 minutes with a cradle hold. The Redport wrestler was awarded a foul 8 minutes later, but refused it, and a minute afterward Jensen applied a body press for the deciding fall. Louger Roberts, 159, St. Helens, defeated Dorry Denton, 155, Salt Lake City, two falls out of three, in the semi-windup. Mickey McGuire, 156, Salem, won the preliminary from Hugh Adams, 157, two falls out of three.

Wildcat Team, Merrill Game Set Next Week

The Klamath Wildcats' football game with Merrill high school team, tentatively scheduled for this week, probably will not be played until next week. This announcement was made Tuesday by Dwight French, Wildcat coach. The contest will be one of the closing events of the season for the "super varsity" team.

OREGON TEAMS PLOT VICTORY

Webfoots, Beavers Prepare for Titanic Grid Struggle.

PORTLAND, Nov. 7. (AP)—Both Oregon and Oregon State football players resumed intensive practice this week for their anticipated Titanic struggle at Multnomah civic stadium here next Saturday before what is expected to be the largest crowd ever to witness a football game since the stadium was built.

Stars Return Oregon supporters were greatly cheered by the appearance of Mark Temple, flashy Pendleton halfback, and Bob Parke, quarterback and punting star, who appeared for practice and ran through their paces with the team. The return of Biff Nilsson, two-year veteran at guard, who has been out of the game since October 7, was also predicted by Trainer Hayward.

Three thousand reserved seats were still available at the close of the box office last night. Tomorrow two thousand general admission tickets go on sale.

Downcast Irish Select Leader For Purdue Game

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 7. (AP)—Big Ed Krause, regarded as a certain unanimous choice for the captaincy of Notre Dame's 1933 football team until it was decided to appoint different captains for each game, will lead the downcast Ramblers against Purdue Saturday.

Krause, rated as one of the greatest tacklers in college football, was named captain for the day by Coach Harty "Hunk" Anderson yesterday. Coach Anderson has been delaying Krause's one day's captaincy all season purposely to inspire the Ramblers for a last ditch battle against the undefeated Bollermakers.

Labor Department Man At Portland On Strike Issue

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—An emissary of Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, arrived today to attempt mediation of the controversy between the Portland Traction company and the Streetcar Men's union. The 1,400 employees of the company voted last week to strike.

Lake County Men Held At Albany

ALBANY, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—Two men who said they were V. L. Robertson and Sam Hayes of Lake county, were held here today for questioning on a horse stealing charge. The accusation was made by John Rorer, Sam Bass and Amon Lieska of Reno, who purchased 24 horses recently in northern Lake county. They accused the two men of having stolen them stolen horses.

Fogs Force Lindy To Delay Flight

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh returned to Holland, making a sea landing near Waalhaven airbase today, when unfavorable flying conditions prevented them from continuing to Geneva after a flight over Belgium and France in a heavy fog.

COLLEGE GAME AID PROMISED

1934 Contest for Klamath Will Be Considered in Schedule.

A promise to do everything possible in the way of a second major football game for Klamath Falls was received Tuesday from N. Thomas Stoddard, assistant graduate manager for the University of Oregon. Stoddard, communicating with Rudy L. Jacobs, secretary of the Klamath County Junior Chamber of Commerce, said this city would be remembered when the Webfoot officials prepared the 1934 schedule.

In regard to the Oregon-San Francisco university game which we talked of last week, the question was merely a hypothetical one and there was nothing definite about it, Stoddard wrote. S. F. Game Funds "It takes months and months of work to complete schedules of Pacific Coast conference games and the question of next year's schedule will come up late this winter."

The Oregon officials said it had not been decided whether or not the Webfoot varsity would meet the Dons next autumn. He believed, however, if such a game could be arranged it was within "the realm of possibility" it might be brought to Modoc field.

If this plan is not successful another freshman contest might be brought here, he intimated. Chamber Wins Favor Stoddard commended the junior chamber for its excellent work in connection with the Oregon Freshman-Southern Oregon Normal school games. He said both he and Hugh E. Bonner, graduate manager, were highly pleased with the results of the game and the support it received in Klamath Falls.

I wish to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the Klamath Junior Chamber of Commerce for all it did in making our game with Ashland Normal a success which it was. Our treatment was courteous, expedient and highly satisfactory while in your city and we feel most of the credit goes to the junior chamber," he concluded.

Officials of the chamber said nothing could be done about bringing another contest to Klamath Falls until schedule negotiations were underway. They were confident, though, Klamath would have the opportunity of witnessing another college game in 1934.

Alleged "Ringer" On Mexican Team Causes Inquiries

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 7. (UP)—Allen Converse, former Yale star and football coach at the University of Mexico, explained last night that he believes an alleged "ringer" player on his team, named Bell, actually is a student at the university.

He expressed this belief when questioned about intimations appearing Monday in the newspaper, El Universal, that Bell had played against the Louisiana College eleven Saturday without being a student. El Universal said spectators had complained that Bell was a professional.

"I understand Bell is a student at the university. He denies that he is a professional," Converse said. He declined to comment further.

Independent efforts to identify Bell as a student were unsuccessful. Heretofore he has played independent "sand lot" football here and officiated in other games. He played high school football in Los Angeles. Since the Louisiana team won the game, 18 to 7, it is likely that the entire matter will be forgotten.

Postmaster's Aide May Go To Senate

CHRYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 7 (AP)—Joseph C. O'Mahoney, first assistant postmaster general, seemed headed today for the United States senate.

A usually well-informed source close to Governor Leslie A. Miller, said O'Mahoney had been selected for appointment to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator John B. Kendrick. It was predicted the appointment would not occur until after congress convenes in January.

Policeman Kills Escaped Slayer

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—Loser in a quick revolver duel with Policeman Nick Persinger, Edgar McChristian, 32, negro, escaped slayer from Tennessee state penitentiary, was fatally wounded here last night. He died in a hospital an hour after the shooting.

Los Angeles, Nov. 7 (UP)—The U. C. L. A. coaching staff will attempt to develop a new quarterback in Bill Murphy before the Bruins meet Washington State, Nov. 18, Coach Bill Spaulding said. The Bruins emerged with few casualties from Saturday's game with California, Teck Baldwin, tackle, having twisted his knee, and Walt Muller, end, receiving a hip bruise.

Amateur Union to Deliberate On Candidates for New Marks

It is probable that three of the marks will be adopted with little ado, but because of a disagreement of timers, considerable debate is expected over Morris' record proposal.

Women Athletes Star The other men's outdoor track and field records are the 220 yard run around a turn in 1.12 made by Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette; the mile run in 4:08.7 made by Bill Bontrou of Princeton in competition with Lovelock, and the two mile run in 9:15.4 made by Joseph Mangano of Cornell. Because Lovelock is a New Zealander, Bontrou's record if adopted, will be listed as the native American record.

Of the 119 records proposed 65 were set by men and the other 59 by women. Jack Medina of the Washington Athletic club, Seattle, one of the nation's free style swimmers, leads all contestants in record breaking for the year with 18 marks to his credit. Next in line are Katherine Rawls of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., generally rated as the country's best all around aquatic star, with six marks; and Metcalfe, Marquette's negro star, with five.

Lenora Knight of Homestead, Pa., America's best woman free style swimmer, has four. Others, all swimmers, with three each, are Margaret Hoffman of the Scranton swimming club; Eleanor Holm of New York; Ralph Flanagan of Miami Beach and Jimmy Gilhula of Detroit.

Along the Sidelines

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 7 (UP)—Out of the Utah game unscathed, the Oregon football machine started training in dead earnest for the "battle of the century"—the season's "natural"—against Oregon State college at Portland Saturday. Mark Temple, halfback; Bill Nilsson, tackle; and Bob Parke, quarterback, were the first stringers, will see action after injury layoffs.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 7 (UP)—Rumors that Bill Tomshack, Beaver tackle would be recovered from spinal injuries and play against Oregon Saturday were scouted here by Oregon State football leaders. Pass defense was practiced, the Beavers being impressed with Oregon's forward pass attack against Utah. Gee and Pepinjak went over for touchdowns after hauling down long heaves.

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 7 (UP)—It doesn't take any synthetic action to insure a real football game between Washington State college and their old foes at Idaho. But by way of stirring things, the Cougar campus was generally drenched with yellow "I's." Coach Hollingbery and his men, happy over their Gonzaga victory, expected to repeat against Idaho at Moscow Saturday.

SEATTLE, Nov. 7 (UP)—After Coach Jimmy Phelan personally scouted California he prepared to test the lessons learned with a hard scrimmage for all regulars. Frosh and a team of ineluctables have practiced for several days in perfecting California plays.

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 7 (UP)—After bogging down against their not so little brothers from U. C. L. A., the California Bears took things easy in preparation for the game with Washington Saturday. Coach Bill Ingram was openly disappointed at the showing of his varsity, being held to a scoreless tie by the Uclans and declared strenuous sessions would start Tuesday for the Husky game.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Nov. 7 (UP)—"Clipper" Smith gave his Santa Clara varsity a day off after the Broncos' 12 to 6 victory over Rice Institute Saturday. Santa Clara's next contest is the annual joust with St. Mary's, conquerors of Fordham.

STANFORD, Calif., Nov. 7 (UP)—Satisfied that his team had really started clicking, Coach Tiny Thornhill of Stanford voiced optimism about the Cardinals' chances with the University of Southern California in their annual game Saturday. Thornhill had Frank Alustia, Bobby Grayson, Hamilton and Van Dellen in the first string lineup at today's practice session.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7 (UP)—The return of Bill Hinch and Vic Wilson to the end positions on the University of San Francisco varsity brought the Dons up to full manpower for their game with Loyola here Sunday.

Salem Aldermen Reduce License For Clairvoyants

SALERM, Nov. 7. (AP)—Waxing financially clairvoyant, the city council here last night lowered the license fee for palm readers. The $25 annual fee was reduced to $5, so Miss Hazel Barton may practice her profession and support her mother. For recompense each alderman was to receive a free reading. They shied, however, when Miss Barton stipulated that the readings be made publicly.
