

THE KLAMATH NEWS

KLAMATH NEWS PUBLISHING CO., Publishers
FRANK JENKINS Editor
MALCOLM EPLEY Managing Editor
Published every morning except Monday by The Klamath News Publishing company at 102-132 South Fifth street, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Official paper of City of Klamath Falls and Klamath county.
Entered as second class matter at the post office at Klamath Falls, Oregon, November 13, 1923, under act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rates
Delivered by carrier, month $1.50
Delivered by carrier, year $15.00
Delivered by mail, year, county 5.00
Delivered by mail, outside county, year 6.00

Represented nationally by M. C. MOGENSEN & CO., INC., San Francisco, New York, Detroit, Seattle, Los Angeles

The Board's Job

ROSCOE C. NELSON, Portland attorney, has resigned from the state board of higher education. His decision was a wise one.
As the neophyte chairman of the board, Nelson went to Eugene last week to make an address. He gave the University of Oregon faculty, its student newspaper, and its more ardent supporters, a sound spanking. What he said might not have been entirely defensible. But if he had stopped there, a nasty row might have been averted.

Evolution Of Repeal

NOW that the eighteenth amendment is definitely overturned, it is interesting to glance back over the years that saw the development of repeal sentiment. The evolutionary process came in hesitating, cautious steps, as so-called leaders of public opinion felt out sentiment before they expressed themselves.

Some People Say

The United States may succeed in spite of herself, because of her youth and vigor. —Sir Josiah Stamp, British economist.
Look me over. Look me over from top to bottom. I'm on the level. —Edward (Spike) O'Donnell, Chicago gangster.

Wise Cracks

American gold seems to confuse French economists. Not us. We have no gold to be confused about.
It took two hours for Mrs. Roosevelt to get into Philadelphia the other day. There's a fort the Republicans still refuse to give up without a struggle.

WASHINGTON

News Behind the News
The Inside Story From The Capital
By PAUL MALLON
Copyright, 1933, by Paul Mallon
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The inner coterie of soothsayers have Mr. Roosevelt's money policy all figured out.

SOLUTION

It is such a simple solution that the smart boys wonder why they never thought of it. The inflationists have been agitating for one course. The devaluationists have been demanding another.

PLANS

Mr. Roosevelt's own personal plans for the next two months have not been announced, but they tend to confirm the expectations of the soothsayers.

RETREAT

The president's home at Hyde Park is a perfect hideaway. No president has ever had one quite like it.

SILVER

The silver agitators have been hot the last few days. They passed the tip around in Wall Street Monday that a 60 or 80-cent silver price was coming shortly.

DEBTS

Those closest to the British debt negotiations say the effects to be expected from failure are

SIDE GLANCES by George Clark

"You never look at me any more."

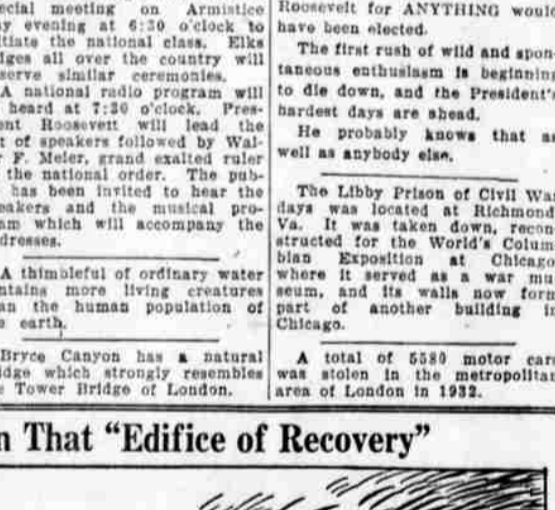

Editorials on News

(Continued From Page One)
and are still looking for somebody's cat to kick. Tammany was a handy cat.
It's too much to hope that the people of New York have revolted against the corruption typified by Tammany and are turning to purer and better politics.

Elks Announce Special Plans For Armistice

The Elks lodge will hold a special meeting on Armistice Day evening at 8:30 o'clock to initiate the national class. Elks lodges all over the country will observe similar ceremonies.

Working On That "Edifice of Recovery"

ELKS WILL HONOR VETERAN MEMBERS

Veteran members of the Klamath Elks lodge will be honored at the Temple Thursday night. Forty of the 73 men organizing the lodge in 1931 and still active members of the order will be special guests.

FIREMEN TO MAKE CHRISTMAS TOYS

The Klamath firemen will operate a toy hospital again this year to make Christmas happier for the poor children of the community.

Amusements

The Pelican—Now playing, "The Bowery," with Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper and George Raft.

AT THE PELICAN

Jackie Cooper in "The Bowery"

The much anticipated showing of "The Bowery," at the Pelican theatre, is on today. Wallace Beery, much loved for his very human character portrayals, and Jackie Cooper, America's little brother, are again cast together in an ultra-animated picture of those naughty youngsters when the Bowery was Broadway and life was rosy.

Society News

By Margaret Worden Hauge
Sleight will be Mrs. Howry and Mrs. Cummings. All members of the circle are invited.

The Sunday school party planned for Saturday afternoon by members of Mrs. F. E. Drake's class, has been postponed because of the Armistice day celebration.

Harmony circle of the First Christian church, will meet at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George McCollum, 1204 Crescent avenue.

The Knick-Knack club will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. R. Canton, 730 Mt. Whitney street. All members are cordially urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stebbins are the parents of a baby daughter, born Wednesday morning at the Klamath Valley hospital. Mrs. Stebbins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Johnson, will be remembered as Miss Volina Johnson before her marriage. The baby has been named Luana Dawn.

MILLS P-T. A. MEETS TONIGHT
A program of music and talks has been arranged for the meeting of the Mills P-T. A. this (Wednesday) evening in the school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock.

The girls club of the Business and Professional Women's club will appear on the program for two numbers, under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Vore. Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

BLV—The grammar and high school pupils of Bly will hold a carnival and dance in the school gymnasium Saturday evening, November 11, opening at eight o'clock. Funds derived from the entertainment will be used for the Bly school student body.

LANGELL VALLEY — The Bridge club was entertained Tuesday at luncheon when Mrs. P. B. Monroe acted as hostess. Honors for high at the close of play were awarded to Mrs. Owen People and the consolation went to Mrs. Mary Dearborn.

LANGELL VALLEY — Miss Emmy Lou Hanks entertained her friends at an evening of dancing and games Tuesday night, October 30. Those invited were the Misses Grace Brown, Mary Langell, Hazel Loomis, Virginia Monroe, Lorene Teal, Margie and Gladys Daniel and Messrs. Wesley and Myron Dearborn, Dale Brown, Charles Loomis, Clyde Vinson, Russell and Jack DAVIS.

The Roycroft Junco met Thursday evening with Miss Muriel Moore at her apartment in the Hotel Earley when a discussion was held on "Confucius." Miss Leah Parker was a guest at the meeting.

BLY — A delightful evening was spent by the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades and their teachers on Monday, October 29, at the McMillan home when Miss Phyllis Applegate and Miss Vera McMillan presided as hostesses. Games started at eight o'clock, and fortune telling and various contests were held with the prize awarded to Earl Gibson.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Hansen, the Misses Crofoot, Marjorie Dixon, Alice Casbeer, Eleanor Bullman, Claudia Ann, Barbara Jean Lindsay, Marjorie McMillan, and Messrs Andrew Miller, James Boyd, Owen Watts, Earl Gibson and Billie Casbeer.

All officers and guards of Woodcraft are requested to meet at the Moose hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for practice.

Mrs. I. A. Towey was hostess at an Italian luncheon at her apartment in the Arcade on Monday, November 6, which was given for the executives of the Oregon Nurses association.

The M and M circle of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet Thursday at 1:00 o'clock for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bruno Stewart on Laguna street. Hostesses assisting Mrs.

MERRILL

MERRILL, Ore.—The Merrill Grange held its meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening. Nine candidates were initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goekner spent Friday in Merrill, leaving Saturday for their home in Eugene. They were returning from their wedding trip in California.

Merrill had one of the heaviest rains of the season on Monday. Some snow fell, but melted soon. Mt. Stukel had a covering of snow, the first of the season. There was sufficient moisture for farmers to start fall plowing.

Floyd Wynant and Mr. Young of Mt. Hebron visited at the W. H. Wynant home last week.

Mrs. W. W. Allingham of Klamath Falls visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carleton Friday.

Mrs. Natterbergh of Klamath Falls and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Harvey, visited with Mrs. Vera McDonald Tuesday. Mrs. Otterbergh is the mother of Mrs. McDonald.

Joseph Laird of Coos county was in Merrill last week to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Anderson and Edward Goekner. Mr. Laird is an uncle of the bride. Mr. Laird was accompanied home by his sister, Mrs. Alice Anderson. Mrs. Anderson expects to spend the winter in Coos county.

Rural counties of Ohio spent $100,000,000 in educating 300,000 boys and girls during the prosperous decade beginning with 1920; most of these later left the farms to go to the big cities and to other states.

A Londoner is making a 50,000-mile business trip by air. His is no fly-by-night business, either.