CITY HOLDS CELEBRATION ON SATURDAY

The leaders were followed by a detachment of the Klamath Falls police department, the American Legion, Oregon National Guard, the Legion drum and bugle corps, Veterans of the Spanish-American war, War Nurses, Veterans of Foreign Wars, women's auxiliaries of the various ex-service groups, a unique and comical drum corps from the women's auxiliaries of the Eagles' lodge, the Salvation Army, the Municipal band, representatives of the Merrill Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts, a detachment of the 40 and 8 society, and the Sea Scouts drum and bugle corps, as well as many automobiles.

The parade was colorful, and the day perfect for the celebration.

Promptly at 11:00 o'clock there was a moment of silence while all stood at parade rest in commemoration of the signing of the armistice and the silencing of the guns of war.

Perkins Speaks
From 11:00 until 11:30 o'clock stunts were enjoyed by young and old alike. Dog races were the most amusing, and there were few small boys who did not have a canine of varied ancestry in tow for the day.

Scoter races and roller skating races also provided diversion during the stunt hour.

At 11:30 o'clock the Rainbow theatre filled with ex-service men, their relatives and friends who heard a stirring program, during which the honor guests of the day sat upon the stage.

"The Doctrine of Isolation" was the subject chosen by Henry Perkins, Klamath Falls attorney, who delivered the Armistice Day address at the Rainbow theatre following the parade.

Perkins directed the attention of his audience to the fact that the founders of the United States government believed in avoiding all entangling alliances with foreign nations.

"George Washington, in his farewell address, exhorted the people to refuse to enter into foreign entanglements," declared the speaker.

"In taking part in the World War we directly violated this doctrine of isolation by sending troops to help the countries of Europe fight their battles," he continued.

Perkins outlined the cost in lives and money to the United States resulting from her entrance in the war, and called attention to the fact that the governments of Europe are at present increasing their armies, and that within a few years another war involving the whole of Europe will be inevitable.

National, Local Markets

EGGS WEAKER AND BUTTER IS QUIET

PORTLAND, Nov. 11. (AP)—Trading in butter was quiet locally. Unwillingness of the trade to accept government bids was chiefly responsible. Prices here were still more or less artificial.

Weaker tone was again suggested in the market for eggs here. With some stores openly quoting 24c or so for extras to consumers, there was some wonder regarding the wholesale quotation at 25c.

Trade in chickens was holding steady and without general price change for the week end. Demand was absorbing the limited offerings, but the chief interest was in turkeys.

Owing to the fact that chiseling in Portland and no action has been taken to relieve this situation, open price warfare in the oyster market was threatened.

Veal, hogs and lambs continued steady to strong features in the country killed meat trade here. Veal especially was being sought with the former surplus well cleaned. Beef remained slow.

General cash bids of 40c were reported for carlots of canullifer here as a result of the greater United States shipments. Local sales to date have been above 650 carloads.

Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, Nov. 11. (AP)—After morning about listless, most of today's session stocks rallied moderately in the final half hour. Gains of fractions to around 2 points predominated at the close. Transactions were accounted for largely by professional shrews.

With the grain markets closed, equities had little inspiration aside from an advance of 12 cents an ounce in the domestic gold price to $33.32. London also lifted. The dollar gyrated erratically. Sterling, after losing some 7 cents early, canceled virtually all of the decline. French francs sagged and recovered. Bonds were somewhat irregular, although the federal list displayed rallying tendencies.

Roosevelt May End Tax Repeal

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11. (AP)—President Roosevelt expects to issue a proclamation about December 5 to end taxes that the treasury estimates are producing about $27,000,000 a year.

These taxes were included in the national industrial recovery act for the special purpose of financing the emergency program. Attached to them was a proviso under which a presidential proclamation would end them—after repeal.

Repeal officially will come on the afternoon of December 5. President Roosevelt represented as regarding his tax-repealing proclamation as mandatory, intends to issue it as soon as he has received formal notification of the action which makes Utah the thirty-sixth state to ratify the new repealing constitutional amendment.

This notification, because of routine or the distance of Utah from the national capital, may be delayed for a day or so, but the president plans speedy action.

When he does act, his proclamation will, beginning January 1, eliminate half a cent of the federal gasoline tax and the 5 per cent now levied on dividends at the source. On July 1, 1934, the capital stock tax will end and the excess profits levy will be dropped at the end of the taxable year chosen by the taxpayer.

The president hopes, too, to be able to eliminate some of the so-called "nuisance" levies—taxes on refrigerators, automobile tires and the like. In all, officials estimate that he wishes to do away with nearly $600,000,000 in taxes.

But all will not be beer and skittles for the taxpayer—especially the one who uses the new legalized beverages. Administration sources say it will be necessary to raise this $500,000,000 given up by levies on distilled liquor.

Vets in Field Armistice Day

Back in the service of Uncle Sam as they were in 1918, many World War veterans are observing Armistice Day in the Civilian Conservation Corps camps of the Far West. Photo shows two veterans enrolled at Fort MacArthur, Calif. in the uniform issued them for winter wear. Maj. Gen. Malin Craig, Ninth Corps Area commander—in charge of western camps—was chief of staff of the Third Army when the World War ended.

The MAMMOTH

THE LARVA OF THE LEAF-BEETLE (COCHYLIS PALLAZI) SECURES AIR FAR, BELOW THE WATER SURFACE, BY BORING ITS HEAD INTO THE AIR SPACES OF LILY STEMS.

THE MAMMOTH DID NOT GET ITS NAME BECAUSE OF ITS ENORMOUS SIZE! SIBERIAN PEASANTS CALLED THE ANIMAL A MAMAYTIL, OR GROUND-DWELLER, BECAUSE THEY HAD NEVER SEEN ANY SUCH CREATURE ON EARTH AND SUPPOSED IT TO BE AN BURROWING ANIMAL. SINCE ITS BONES WERE FOUND IN THE MOUNTAIN MAMANTU EVENTUALLY WAS CHANGED TO MAMMOTH.
