THE CLERGYMAN

By EARL WHITLOCK

What sacrifices he makes—this man of the cloth who gives of himself so freely to help humanity! He lives in rigid simplicity, for he earns, in his chosen calling, far less than his abilities would command in commercial life. His long, full days are spent freely in the service of whomsoever needs his help. And because there are so many calls on his time, and only twenty-four hours in the day, the time he should own for rest and recreation is frequently taken from him.

Day after day, into his ears are poured the troubles and the problems of humanity. These he takes deeply unto himself, burdening his own heart heavily. Yet never does he lose his courage or his cheerful smiles.

He girds his loins anew each dawn to do unending battle with fear, grief, hate, greed, trickery, vice, spite and general human cussedness. He explains or exhorts, sympathizes or scolds, cajoles or commands, leads or drives, as each case seems to warrant and require. And he never stops fighting!

His unswerving faith is in the power of Right to prevail. And his life is devoted to making the world a kinder, fairer place in which to live. Visit Memory Garden the coolest place in town to rest these warm days.

ADVERSE REPORTS LIFT WHEAT PRICE

CHICAGO, July 12 (AP)—Pessimistic crop advices from Canada and from domestic spring wheat states made wheat values rise materially higher most of the time today, but profit-taking led to late reactions.

Reports of damage to spring wheat because of heat and black rust attracted the most attention. It was estimated 20 loads of United States hard winter wheat were sold today for export to Europe via the Gulf of Mexico.

At the close, wheat was 1-11/2 under Saturday's finish. July 11-20, September 11-21-1/2, corn 1-3/4 down, July 11-25-1/2, September 11-13-1/2, and oats 1-1/4 off.

Stock Market Quotations

NEW YORK, July 12 (AP)—Stocks took their cue from steels in today's market and selected issues pushed up fractions to around four points.

With steel news from most sectors largely on the optimistic side, U. S. steel pointed the way on the recovery move by crossing 112, a new top for the recent comeback, for a gain of more than 4. It slipped from its best later, along with orders, as profit selling made its appearance, but finished at the peak level of the day.

Strength was shown by some farm implement, merchandising, aircraft, oil and specialty issues. A few rails and utilities did well, but the majority were unable to get far out in front.

Only moderate activity accompanied the forward tilt. Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares.

WORLD'S PREMIERE MERMAID

Lenore Kight Wingard—a champion of champions—with 7 world's and 16 national free-style swimming records to her credit

(Right) OVER HER AFTER-DINNER CAMELS, LENORE WINGARD SAYS: "For digestion's sake—smoke Camels, it's a rule with me. They help me to enjoy my food, even when I feel tired or tense. Smoking Camels seems to put me in just the right mood at mealtimes and helps me to have a feeling of well-being afterward. Camels set me right!" Because Camels are so mild—and made from such costly tobaccos—you can smoke them steadily, without jangled nerves. At mealtimes, Camels encourage a free flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—and lend a helping hand to good digestion.

MILD!

"THE MRS. likes to see me enjoy a hearty meal," says Frank Mullady, auto-mechanic. "Smoking Camels at mealtimes helps me feel my digestion's tuned up."

NO LET-UP from 9 to 6. Miss Ida Gray, buyer, says: "A quick bite is often all I have time for. I've adopted that slogan 'for digestion's sake—smoke Camels.'"

"CAMERA!" Nerves are drawn finer when a movie is being filmed. Russell Metty says about that: "Camel's mildness appeals to me. They never jangle my nerves."
