

SOCIAL SECURITY CLAIMANTS AIDED

A program to assist claimants now eligible for lump sum payments under the federal old-age benefit system of the social security act was announced Tuesday by Sen. O. Lipcomb, acting Klamath Falls manager of the social security board.

Lipcomb said his office will make every reasonable effort to locate potential claimants and assist them in preparing necessary forms for filing with the social security board in Washington.

Two types of claimants are entitled to lump sum settlements at this time. These are (1) persons attaining age 65 since January 1, 1937 who have worked at employments covered by the federal old-age benefit system and (2) the estates of workers who have died this year and who worked at a covered employment following January 1.

Lump sum settlements, said Lipcomb, will be computed at 33 per cent of wages earned from covered employments between January 1, 1937 and the 65th birthday or the time of death, although account is not taken of that part of a salary or wage from any one employer which exceeds $3,000 in any one year.

Under treasury department regulations an employer is obligated to report when one of his workers dies or reaches the age of 65. These employer reports, transmitted from the treasury to social security board offices, will be used in locating potential claimants and giving them assistance.

Lipcomb emphasized that lump sum payments are in no way related to public assistance for the needy aged which is another phase of the social security act and is administered through federal cooperation with the states. Public assistance applications, he said, should refer their cases to their local county welfare department.

Recreation Notes

In case you haven't seen it, we suggest you take a look at the display in the window at 321 Main street. This exhibit shows the various types of work done in the recreation centers of Klamath Falls. It is done by children under the guidance of competent recreation workers.

The summer recreation program is made possible by the cooperative efforts of the civic recreation committee, the Klamath Falls school board, the Works Progress Administration and other agencies interested in child welfare. Several recreation centers have been established inside the city, and all are well attended by children who are anxious to find something to do during the long summer days.

The exhibit is made in order to demonstrate that recreation activities are not necessarily confined to play activities. Samples of sewing, cooking, elementary and advanced art, basketry, weaving, shop and handicraft work for both beginning and advanced groups as well as a host of other things are on display. Equipment and materials used in the nursery school and even an exhibit of a few canvases from the advanced art group are shown.

Sunday we sneaked out and attended the ball game. It was a splendid game. Well played and full of exciting moments. It deserved a much better game although there really was a good crowd in attendance. As we sat there in the sun trying our best to protect our eyes from the glare of the bright clothing of those who sat in front of us we thought what a wonderful thing it will be when this fine bleacher is at last covered. When that is done, one will be able to see a daylight game—even on a bright sun-shiny day—in absolute comfort. That is impossible now.

While at this game a little bird told us that very probably the covering of this stand will be one of the very first of the projects to be started under the new building program of the high school. Glory be! We hope so. It will be grand to go to a baseball game and really be able to enjoy it. The only fellow who is likely to howl about the new roof is the fellow who controls the market on shaded glasses. Watch gate receipts advance. We will be able to see the difference and no mistake.

There is some talk also of eventually extending the high school bleacher. Present plans call for the addition of another section or so at the north end of the present set-up. We think we have a better idea. Take it for what it is worth. How would it be, instead of extending the present bleacher, to make portable bleachers, to make portable bleachers that can be skidded around with a truck. In the winter time place them along the east side of the football field, which would double the '59-yard line' take. In the summer place them behind the backstop and out the first-base line of the baseball field. Several sections of these portable bleachers could be made for the cost of one permanent section similar to those now in use.

One thing that makes a baseball game is the noise and excitement. Baseball (and softball) fans like to sit 'on the umpire's neck' or just as close to the field of play as possible. With a seating arrangement such as is described above, the gates will double. After all, it is the gate that determines whether or not a sport can go on. Now that the high school, itself, is planning the reintroduction of baseball as a major sport there is all the more reason for giving the cash customers something for their money. How's about it?

Incidentally it is soon going to be tough for the chronic chiseller who for years has been taking in all the major events at Modoc field without contributing a cent. Those trees planted around the bowl several years ago will be a part of the reason. This will be aided and abetted by a brand-new climb proof fence to stop the crusty gink who has been coming in over the railroad tracks. Yep! Life is getting tougher and tougher.

NEW SALVATION OFFICERS NAMED

Captain Donald Barry of Salinas, Calif., and Lieutenant Noel Walker of Bend have been appointed to Klamath Falls Salvation Army posts.

They will arrive in a few days to take over the work which has been done by Major and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, transferred to Santa Cruz, Calif.

Actor Joel McCrea Worried For Fear He's Too Normal

By JOEL MCCREA
Written for United Press
HOLLYWOOD, July 10 (UP).—When I was a boy the leading Hollywood hotels used to hang signs in their lobbies reading: "No Actors Allowed" and worried mothers herded their daughters into cellars and attics when film troupe workers in the neighborhood.

Fortunately for me and the profession I have adopted, this attitude towards film players is a thing of the past. Actors, through the years, and an overnight change, have attained the status of human beings. Only Pasadena, our neighboring city, still harbors this old dislike for the film colony.

In the old days (and please remember that I was only a small boy) most actors and actresses embracing the new film industry were peculiar people. They were so low down in the entertainment profession—due of course to their being ostracized by the theatre—that they had to attract attention to themselves.

Some achieved prominence for themselves and the fledgling industry by glamorous displays. Some were temperamental by necessity, none could afford to be normal.

This brings to my mind the accusation most frequently made against me. They say that I am too normal for the ultimate success in this restricted little city of manic depressives. And I am afraid that there is considerable truth in this. For years I have worn neckties and hats when it was distinctly unfashionable to do so; I help my wife into her coat, keep out of jail, quit after the first beer and I have not complicated myself with numinous romances.

Being normal out here is in itself an indication of abnormality. It isn't for me to say that Hollywood is a virtuous paradise. We have our racketeers, our pretenders and a good supply of "heels," but what city hasn't? And I am one who is willing to admit its faults. Producer Greenbaum is apt to summon his advisors to his sanctum and shout: "This picture has got to have the Greenbaum touch!" and then add: "Have you any suggestions, gentlemen?"

As I said before, my friends consider me too normal. The complaint, however, has its compensations, maybe I'm the peculiar one; maybe there's a touch of craziness in my abstention of chair throwing. I'd like to know.

POSITIONS OPEN IN ARMY SERVICE

A number of vacancies for enlistment in the United States army are open at present, according to Sergeant Sam Gimpelson, local recruiting officer.

Vacancies are listed in the air corps at Hamilton Field, Cal., and in the air corps at Hawaii. Any man with the following trade specialties is eligible for enlistment in the air corps: gas engine mechanic, carpenter, blacksmith, welder, painter, tinsmith, machinist, or motorcycle mechanic. Men who do not have these trade qualifications must have had at least two years of high school.

There are also vacancies in the 29th engineers' corps at Portland, Oregon. Complete high school course is necessary for qualification for enlistment in this corps.

Other vacancies are listed by Gimpelson as follows: infantry, coast artillery, engineers, medical corps, Hawaii, and coast artillery corps, Philippine Islands.

Information pertaining to enlistment in the U. S. army may be obtained by calling on Sergeant Gimpelson at room 204 of the Klamath Falls postoffice building.

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE PLANNING PARTY WEDNESDAY

The Young People's league of the First Methodist church will have a potluck dinner and social evening Wednesday next beginning at 8:30 p. m. The affair will be held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yaden, 101 Old Ford road, and will feature a wicker roast and watermelon feed followed by an evening of games on the lawn. All young people beyond the high school group are cordially invited.

Thursday at 3:30 p. m. the Ladies Aid of the First Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting in the parlors of the church. This will be an important meeting because of the election of officers for the coming year. All members are asked to be present. Every visitor will find a cordial welcome.

21 2nd Awards $25.00 each

The state awards of $50 and $25 respectively will be given for the best suggestion and the second best suggestion received from each of the following 21 states: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nevada, Washington, Oregon, Idaho.

READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY

- 1—Think of your suggestion for naming the little Snowdrift men pictured here, "Bake and Fry," for instance, or the "Freshness Twins," the "Creaminess Boys," "Snow and Drift" or "The Goodness Team." Write your suggestion on any kind of paper or on the entry blank. Print plainly your name and address, and name and address of your grocer.
- 2—Buy a can of Snowdrift. Unwind the metal strip that seals any size Snowdrift can. Clip off that portion of the wording on the strip which says, "We lock in all its goodness." Enclose this piece of strip in envelope with your name suggestion and address, and mail to "Award Editor, P.O. Box 994, New Orleans, La." That constitutes an entry. Entries will not be considered unless metal strip accompanies each name suggestion. For example, "Bake and Fry" needs one strip; "The Creaminess Boys" one strip.
- 3—Every entry, duly accompanied by metal strip, will be acknowledged, and in appreciation we will mail you a coupon acceptable by your grocer as 10c against the purchase of your next 3 or 6 pound can of Snowdrift. Because of the large number of suggestions, we cannot enter into any further correspondence with any entrant. No entry will be returned.
- 4—Contest closes September 15th, 1937. All entries must be postmarked prior to midnight of that date. All entries become the property of the Wesson Oil and Snowdrift Sales Company. Judging will be directed by officials of the Callias & Holders Advertising Agency, New York, and of the Fitzgerald Advertising Agency of New Orleans. Decision of the judges will be final. Anyone may submit suggestions, in conformity with the rules, except employees of the Wesson Oil & Snowdrift People, their advertising agencies, or their families.
- 5—Duplicate awards will be made in case of ties. A complete list of winners will be published as soon after decision as possible.
- 6—State awards will be made only to entrants from states listed in this advertisement, but the 385 other prizes are open to anyone in the U.S. except as specified in Rule No. 4.

GRAND AWARD $5,000.00
424 OTHER CASH AWARDS

Here's how simple it is.

We will pay well for names for these active little Snowdrift men. Surely you can think of a suggestion? We're willing to pay a total of $12,500 to get these names. And we want you to try Snowdrift—the very nicest shortening you ever used.

Of course, you're familiar with these famous little men in Snowdrift advertising. You've seen them for months on the billboards and in the newspapers, up to their tricks in sunshine, rain or snow. They're all-weather boys, just like Snowdrift itself. You'll get dozens of ideas for names from this list of Snowdrift's features. And even more, when you use Snowdrift and see its goodness and helpfulness.

Snowdrift is pure, wholesome, all-vegetable shortening. All its goodness locked in. Fresh when opened, fresh to bottom of can. Foods made with Snowdrift have clean, fresh flavor—stay fresh longer. Snowdrift always gives same uniform success. Snowdrift is already creamed for you. Saves work, saves time. Breads thoroughly in dough or batter, giving lighter, better cake and hot bread. Snowdrift creams easily at all temperatures. Snowdrift comes in economical 5 and 6 pound air-tight cans, as well as 1 and 2 pound cans. Snowdrift is the supremely easy-to-digest

Creeps to greater volume, giving lighter dough and batter. Snowdrift stands high temperatures without burning. Snowdrift makes crisp, brown crusts—good tasting and digestible. Snowdrift can be used over and over in frying. Snowdrift means odorless frying. Millions of people buy Snowdrift every year. Snowdrift is the best insurance you can buy for successful cooking. Made by fine food makers—the Wesson Oil People. Grocers everywhere know Snowdrift and recommend it.

No need to make extravagant claims for Snowdrift. Millions use it every day. The more Snowdrift you use, the better you will like it. Try Snowdrift and see for yourself. Look at its pure, white freshness. Stir its whipped creamy consistency. Snowdrift is always an all-vegetable shortening. You'll find it supremely digestible whether you bake or fry with it. And you will never experience any unpleasant frying odor when you use Snowdrift's all-vegetable purity.

Get your can of Snowdrift's locked-in goodness today. Don't run the risk of delaying too long—and so missing your opportunity. Write down the suggestion you think best for naming the little Snowdrift men. Send it in now. Every suggestion must be accompanied by the metal strip from the Snowdrift can which says "We lock in all its goodness."

Every entry will be acknowledged and in doing so, we will mail you a coupon your grocer will accept as 10c on the purchase of your next 3 or 6 pound can of Snowdrift.
