MEDFORD ENROLLEES TO FIGHT FIRE
MEDFORD, Aug. 5 (AP)—Traveling in two chartered stages, 68 CCC enrollees from Medford district left last night for the Columbia national forest, 150 miles northeast of Portland, to battle a forest fire of large proportions. The enrollees were accompanied by four forest fire experts attached to the Rogue River national forest service here.
The forest service reported that 500 men would be sent from this state to fight the fire. The fire started when a "sleeper" fire snag fell, and the flames spread.
