

Organizations Announce Resumed Meetings As Approach of Fall Ends Vacations

Clubs Plan Fall Meetings

Varied Programs To Feature First Gatherings of Social Groups

With August on the wane there is a stir of beginning activity within various clubs and organizations which were dormant during the summer. New officers of some groups are looking forward to assuming their new duties, and program chairmen have been busy completing plans for the fall and winter months.

Soon after the first of September, almost simultaneously with the reopening of schools, club women of the city will enter upon a busy season for which numerous interesting events have been planned. Many who have been vacationing at resorts and summer homes are commencing to return to the city to participate in the early autumn affairs.

The Klamath Falls Women's Library club will open the fall activities with a flower show and luncheon which will be held in the library club rooms. Further plans will be announced upon the return of the new president, Mrs. Walter West, who has been visiting in southern California.

The Delta Gamma and Sigma Theta chapters of Delphi chapter will re-commence meetings the first of September when the Delta Gamma chapter will meet the second Tuesday, September fourth, and the Sigma Theta, an evening group, scheduled to meet on the first Thursday, September second.

A preliminary luncheon and business meeting of the Delta Gamma chapter will be held the latter part of this month when the meeting place will be decided, and the new officers will be elected. The new officers of this group are Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, president; Mrs. George Walton, first vice president; Mrs. M. E. Joyce, second vice president; and Mrs. George Meyers, secretary and treasurer. Officers of the Sigma Theta chapter will be elected at the first meeting.

"Music Trends" will be studied this year by Delta Gamma, and "Drama" by Sigma Theta.

Religious chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will observe Constitutional week at the first meeting following the vacation period, Monday evening, September thirteenth, at the home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb, chapter regent, on Cypress street, with Mrs. Thomas Hampton as co-hostess. Mrs. William J. Owens will be in charge of the program and will discuss "The Constitution in the Making."

The program for the year is outlined in the year book which will be ready for distribution at this meeting, and new committee chairmen will be announced by the regent. The program committee for the year is composed of Mrs. Robert Odell, chairman, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Thomas Hampton and Mrs. George Gardiner. The first meeting of the new year for the local group of American Association of University Women will be Saturday, September eighteenth, when a luncheon will be held. The place will be announced later. Plans are being made for the second annual Fall Fashion tea to be sponsored by the A. A. U. W. at the Willard hotel on Wednesday afternoon, September twenty-second.

Both chapters of the P.E.O. sisterhood will start their regular meetings next month with chapter U holding the first meeting on Tuesday, September twenty-first, at the home of Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson on Washington street, and chapter AU meeting on Tuesday evening, September twentieth, at Mrs. E. M. Bubb's home on North Fourth street.

Following an executive meeting of the Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church, held last Wednesday evening at the home of the new club president, Mrs. Vernon Ruykendaal, it was decided that the first meeting will be held the evening of September fifteenth in the parish house. The retiring executive board will preside as hostesses. Guests as well as members will be invited.

The Art Needle Work club will again start holding meetings on Wednesday afternoon, September first, when Mrs. Marion Hanks will act as hostess at her home on Pine street. The present officers of this organization are Mrs. Calvin Hunt, president; Mrs. Lyle Mills, vice president; and Mrs. J. F. Goeller, secretary and treasurer.

On the last Friday in September will be held the first regular autumn meeting of the Past Matrons club when the annual election of officers will take place. The past year's officers were Mrs. H. G. Wortley, president; Mrs. J. H. Poppy, vice president; and Mrs. Wilbur Jones, secretary and treasurer.

According to an announcement by Mrs. Thomas Hampton, president, the St. Paul's Episcopal guild will meet on September ninth, when the entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. G. H. Cozad, chairman. The Parent-Teacher associations throughout the city will

COLONIAL MOTIF FEATURED AT SHOWER

Arranged upon luxuriously draped white satin and a lace wedding veil, with a huge Colonial bouquet and lighted tapers as the center of the shower motif, is shown a fascinating array of gifts which were presented Wednesday evening to Miss May Tolle who was guest of honor at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. May King Conradi. The bride-elect, Miss Gertrude Tolle, who presented the gifts.—Picture by May King Studio.

again start holding monthly meetings shortly after school opens in September, but definite dates for the various groups have not yet been announced.

A.A.U.W. TO GIVE FALL FASHION TEA AT WILLARD HOTEL

One of the outstanding affairs planned for the early autumn season will be the second annual Fall Fashion tea which will be given in the Willard hotel ballroom, Wednesday afternoon, September twenty-second, from three until five o'clock under the auspices of the American Association of University Women.

Arrangements for the tea are now being completed and a list of the stores participating and the models will be ready for announcement next week, according to those in charge.

The Fashion tea was inaugurated last year when it proved a tremendous success.

Lawn Party Honors Guests

MEHRILL.—Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willis of San Francisco, a gay lawn party was given Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dalton. The guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Merrill, Dr. and Mrs. Trotman, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Frutts, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heaton, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Miss Nora Sullivan, Jim Tallen, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Miss Janice Bubb. Mrs. Willis has been visiting here for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton.

Former C. F. Girls Meet With Leader

Former members of one of the first Camp Fire groups, which was organized in this city in 1921, met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Call on Jefferson street to honor their old leader, Mrs. Arthur L. Rice, who is visiting in the city from California.

The group was in charge of Mrs. Rice while Reverend Rice was serving as the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and was named the Sunchako group. During the afternoon Mrs. Rice and her former Camp Fire girls visited the Camp Fire house on Conger avenue. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Eldon Dennis of Dorris, Calif., Mrs. Elvira Call Lien, Mrs. Ailsa Massey Kuykendall, Mrs. Ethel Carlson Goeller, Mrs. Lorraine Mordoff Hall, and the Misses Lydia von Bertheldorf, Muriel Moore, and Ella Redkey.

Dinner, tailors, in fine broadcloths, velvets, flat crepes, dull, new moires and various metallics, are highlighted again this fall. The majority are ankle length with slim skirts, fitted jackets and elegant blouses in rich laces, velvets, crepes, satins. Smart, too, are dressy dinner ensembles, with street length skirts.

CO-HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON ON THURSDAY

Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse and Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook were co-hostesses at a lovely bridge luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Elk hotel when seventeen tables were in play.

An attractive setting was arranged of bright gladioli against a background of silver leaf paper, and bowls of gladioli about the large room. Four corsages, one for each guest at the tables, fashioned of varied garden flowers in vivid shades, formed colorful table centerpieces.

The awards for the afternoon's play went to Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Mrs. Herbert Stevens of Pine Ridge, and Mrs. Glen Kent.

Guests were present from Chiloquin, Pine Ridge, Modoc Point and Algoma as well as from this city.

Honored At Surprise Party

Miss Patricia Stebbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Stebbins was complimented at a surprise party given by her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, at the Stebbins home on Pleasant street. Later, games and dancing were enjoyed at Lynum hall and refreshments were served at midnight.

Those present included the honor guest, Patricia Stebbins, Maurine Lindell, Bernice Baker, Hazel Howard, Margaret Mahoney, Mildred Kessler, Alice Milkey, Rose Gallagher, Ralph Crawford, Charles Duncan, Richard Gallagher, Bill Canton, Lyman Lindell, Vernon Erickson, Lawrence Gallagher, Joe Sexton, Mrs. Martha Lundell, Mrs. Frances Baker, Mrs. Kay Stebbins and the hostess.

Miss Stebbins left Friday morning for Portland to enter the Portland University college of nursing.

Miss Frances Jones was guest of honor at a miscellaneous surprise bridal shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Baxley on East Main street. The afternoon was spent in quilt making by the Congregational circle members.

Those honoring Miss Jones were Mesdames S. R. Berry, N. A. Laey, J. J. Pex, A. W. Hammel, Frank Killian, W. C. Little, Harry Stans, Eina Gentry, E. L. Mitchell, K. D. Jones, C. L. Jones, J. G. Dickey, Paul Dickey, Winifred

Benton, F. R. Vance, D. C. Vance, C. H. Gatewood, Charles M. Reynolds, Ona Baxley, J. D. Baxley and E. M. Baxley.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Pex and Mrs. Dickey.

MOTHERS GUESTS OF SCHOOLMATES AT DINNER PARTY

Mothers of members of the Schoolmates club were entertained Friday afternoon at a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Fred Peterson on Summers lane.

Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Marion Hanks, Nellie Langer, Mary R. McClure, Martha O. Delap, Frances E. Boyd, S. S. Henley, Minnie E. Ward, Sallie Ward Ryan, Rose Oley Soule, Alice Anderson, Jennie Hurr, Ella McMillan and Laura A. Willis.

Members present were: Mesdames Minnie Grizzle, Ida Grizzle, Mrs. McKee Drew, Nett Drew Peterson, Madge Sloan, Ada Brown, Lydia Turner Kirkpatrick, Anna Funk, Sena Casey Delap, Alice Woodard Laurence, Amy Lenz Royce, Mae Martin Anderson, Atta Griffith Delap and Ella Bryant Lewis.

The next meeting of the club will be on September twenty-fourth at the home of Mrs. Charles Drew on Wilson bridge.

Mrs. Bieler Honors Guests

LANGELL VALLEY.—Mrs. Tom Bieler entertained on August nineteenth with a delightful luncheon at her home near Gerber Dam, honoring her daughter-in-law and grandson, Mrs. John Bieler and Robert Bieler. After luncheon the ladies enjoyed an afternoon of games, contests and conversation. Mrs. Grace Dearborn was the contest winner. Those enjoying the day were Mrs. Lottie Keller, Mrs. Lucille Keller and Vernon, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Grace Dearborn and Catherine, Mrs. Virginia Thomas and Ruth Mary, Mrs. Helen Noble and Pauline, Mrs. Edith Davis and Margaret, Mrs. Charles Hood, Mrs. Edna Conley, Miss Velma Noble and Miss Maxine Conley, and Mrs. Elizabeth Brann of Pasadena and the honored guests.

Mrs. J. Royal Shaw and children were expected to return Sunday to their home on Pacific Terrace after enjoying a vacation of several weeks in Portland.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Lovely Shower at Conradi Home Compliments May Tolle.

Miss May Tolle whose marriage to John Larsen will be an event of the near future was honored by members of the T.N.T. Bridge club, the Business and Professional Women's Glee club and other friends on Wednesday evening when Mrs. May King Conradi entertained at her home on Jefferson street, assisted by the sister of the bride-elect, Miss Gertrude Tolle.

The guests were received and presented with their tallies by little Jean Fahlender who was dressed as a wee Colonial dame in blue sprigged dimity trimmed in blue velvet ribbon. The tallies were miniature Colonial bouquets, fashioned of lace and tiny flowers. The bridal motif was carried out in the dessert of heart shaped cakes, in two shades of pink which looked like valentines on lace doilies. The centers were filled with ice cream.

Tapers of French blue, silver and rose and sweet peas in pastel shades were used throughout the rooms. The table cloths were in pastel shades and each table was centered with a tiny Colonial bouquet.

At the close of play Miss Harriet Wolgast received the high guest prize, Mrs. Lela E. Lumsden, low guest; Miss Ethelwynn O'Flaherty, high club prize, Mrs. Etta Rasmussen, second high and Mrs. Inez Laibert, consolation.

The guest prize and the consolation were lovely lace handkerchiefs arranged with lace doilies and tied with ribbons and tiny flowers to look like Colonial bouquets. The two high prizes were lace handkerchiefs in satin bags, tied with ribbons and lily-of-the-valley.

The club gift to Miss Tolle was a silk down quilt in tones of rust and peach, wrapped in white satin to represent an altar pillow. Among the gifts were many pieces of lovely crystal, fine linens and dainty lingerie. The gifts which had been grouped upon white satin draped like the train of a wedding gown, and lace wedding veil, and attached by ribbons to a huge Colonial bridal bouquet, were presented to the guests of honor by little Miss Fahlender.

T.N.T. members present were Mesdames Bella Fahlender, Etta Rasmussen, Inez Lambert, Isabelle Brinker, Gertrude Mooney, Dena Backes, Martha McCollum, Ann Avery, Leda Parker, the Misses Nadine O'Flaherty, Ethelwynn O'Flaherty, Marie and the hostess. The guests were Mesdames P. C. Adams, M. E. Cooper, Russell Bussard, Clara Shaw, Effie Garcelon, Marguerite Ward, Bessie Wilkins, Flo Ann Eaton, Jewel Cantrall, Muriel Garich, Claudia Lorenz, Irma Badger, Audrey Holloway, Marie Obenchain, Jean Allison Packard, Lela Laurensen, Hilda Parks, A. J. Vore, Miss Gertrude Tolle and Miss Hazel Dallas.

BLV.—Mrs. James Dixon, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lester Tibbets, were in Eugene Saturday, August twenty-eighth, to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Dixon's sister, Mrs. L. E. Parks and her husband.

A reception was to be held in honor of the Parks at their ranch home between Eugene and Creswell during the afternoon, to which all relatives and friends were invited. In the evening a family dinner was to be held when covers were to be laid for only close relatives of the guests of honor.

A family reunion and all-day picnic will be held Sunday which will be attended by all relatives of the Parks family and the Mulkey family.

The Business and Professional Women's club will hold a "Fall Roundup" at the Pelican grille on Monday evening, August thirtieth, with a dinner served at half past six o'clock. The meeting will be an informal get-acquainted affair and all members are asked to bring a prospective member.

A steel guitar trio, composed of Lucille Smith, Anna Zupan, and Dorothea Redmond, will entertain with musical numbers, and Miss Doris Porter will play several selections on the accordion.

Mrs. Coral Sabo and her membership committee will act as hostesses for the evening.

The Eastern Star Social club number one which was scheduled to meet with Mrs. N. H. Jones has been postponed until October.

ATTRACTIVE AUTUMN BRIDE

Miss Arlene Reynolds, the only daughter of Judge and Mrs. Fred Reynolds of Lakeview, whose marriage to Euell Elliott, also of Lakeview, will be solemnized at the Lake county city within a few days. Miss Reynolds is a former student of the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi. Mr. Elliott is a graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland.

LANGELL MATRON GUEST OF HONOR AT LOVELY SHOWER

LANGELL VALLEY.—Mrs. Claude Murray was hostess to a group of friends at a shower given for Mrs. E. T. Johnson on Tuesday afternoon at the Hot Springs lodge. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and gladioli.

Mesdames present included Wesley Carter, Jeff Bean, Dee Chandler, Charles Partridge, Frank Dearborn, Harry Frasier, Louis Monroe, Henry Dearborn, Bill Sullivan, Charles Revell, Paul Monroe, Robert A. Dean, Wesley Dearborn, Lester Leavitt, Florence Botkin, Theresa Prior, E. T. Johnson and Miss Dorothy Revell. Miss Carolyn Monroe and Miss Jean Rogers.

Cards were enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Jeff Bean receiving high. Mrs. Wesley Carter low, and Mrs. Dee Chandler the traveling prize.

LANGELL VALLEY.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe entertained the following guests at dinner on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hood of Indio, Calif., Mrs. L. Monroe, Walt Monroe and Art Monroe of Poe Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Art Horsley and sons of Pine Flat, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partridge, Carolyn Monroe and Art Monroe of Langell Valley.

LANGELL VALLEY.—Mrs. Jeff Bean entertained the Social club of Upper Langell Valley at her home on August nineteenth. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework and conversation.

Those present were Mesdames Manola Duncan, Mary Tuttle, Ivan Welch, Roy Phillips, William Phillips, Herb Marchant, Miss Hazel Marchant, Mesdames John Horn, Claude Shuck of Tulelake, Calif., Luther Burns and her guests, Mrs. A. Burns and daughter Catherine of Boise, Idaho, Mrs. Edna Conley, Mrs. Maxine Conley, Mrs. B. Thompson, Mrs. Alfred Lilly, Miss Mae Lilly, Mrs. Fay Bryant and Mrs. John Miller.

Delicious refreshments were served late in the afternoon. Mrs. Jeff Bean was elected president of the club to take the place of Mrs. Alfred Duncan.

MODERN PIANO AND ACCORDION

Lessons by EMIL BUZAI
Formerly of American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Ill.

DERBY MUSIC CO.
Phone 570

"LET GEORGE DO IT"

SWISS WATCH REPAIR SPECIALIST

A COMPLETE LINE OF JEWELRY

GEO. METZ

837 Main Watchmaker and Jeweler

MANY WEDDINGS SOLEMNIZED HERE WITHIN PAST WEEK

In the First Presbyterian church, on Tuesday afternoon, August twenty-fourth, in the presence of Mr. Warren Whitlock and Mr. A. J. McDonald, the Rev. Theodore Smith united in marriage Mr. Ray Reeves of Los Angeles, California, and Miss Ada Eadie, also of Los Angeles. The single ring ceremony was used. Following the ceremony the young couple left by motor for Grants Pass, where they expect to reside and where the parents of the bride are now living.

On Saturday, August twenty-first, shortly after noon, at the home of the officiating pastor, the Rev. Theodore Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Mr. Oman F. Ball of Pine Ridge and Miss Faye E. Maloney, also of Pine Ridge, were united in marriage in the presence of Mrs. Charles Ball, mother of the groom, and Mrs. Aimee Smith, wife of the pastor. The young couple recently came to Oregon from Missouri. After a brief honeymoon, they expect to make their home in Pine Ridge.

Miss Myrtle Clayton and Chester Cusick, both of Dorris, Calif., were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, August twenty-second, at a five o'clock ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Langer on North Seventh street. The ring ceremony was read by Arthur Charles Bates, pastor of the First Christian church, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cusick will make their home in Dorris.

Miss Mabel Swartsfager became the bride of Ivan Wilcher at a ceremony solemnized last Saturday morning, August twenty-first, at eleven o'clock in the study of the officiating minister, Arthur Charles Bates of the First Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lewis acted as attendants.

Among the recent weddings held here was the marriage of Miss Opal Spaur and Carl R. Walden, both of Medford, which took place on August fourteenth in the study of Arthur Charles Bates. Mrs. Ed Smith and Miss Mildred Clausen were the witnesses.

In a ceremony read by Reverend Arthur Charles Bates, Kate E. Sims and Chester E. Mann were united in marriage in the office of the circuit judge, Wednesday morning, at half past eleven o'clock.

TULELAKE.—Dr. and Mrs. McNulty entertained at a charmingly appointed five o'clock dinner Sunday. The dining-room was attractive in the light of pale yellow candles, with garden flowers providing the center piece. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. French Johnson, Miss Lorraine Dunlap, Miss Frenchy Johnson, Ivan Cane, Ray Murphy, Frenchy Johnson Jr., the host and hostess.

Additional Society On Page Ten

Enchantment

Essence Impériale Russe

Created for Russian Royalty, the enchantment of ESSENCE IMPÉRIALE RUSSE has lived for over two hundred years. Glamorous women of the Imperial court knew its intoxication... Modern women who seek the rare, the exquisite in personal allure use this lovely weapon.

$1.00 to $4.50

CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS
"The Friendly Drug Store"

9th and Main Phone 80