

TULELAKE LOTS TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Public auction of six lots in Tulelake townsite, Calif., in the Klamath Irrigation project, has been announced for Tuesday, September 21, according to B. E. Hayden, superintendent of the local reclamation bureau.

The sale is scheduled to start at 10 a. m., with Hayden to preside as superintendent of the sale and Fred W. Gilbert of the bureau as auctioneer.

The lots will not be sold for less than their appraised valuation, and full payment may be made in cash on the date of sale, or one-fourth in cash and the balance in three equal annual installments, with interest on the deferred payments at 6 per cent per annum.

Superintendent Hayden, who will conduct the sale, has been authorized to reject any and all bids for any lot and to suspend, adjourn or postpone the sale of any lot or lots to such time and place as he may deem proper. After all the lots have been offered, the superintendent will adjourn the sale indefinitely and report to the commissioner of the general land office, showing the sale price of each lot sold. In addition he will make recommendation as to whether the unsold lots, if any, would be reappraised and such lots reoffered at public sale at a future date, or whether the sale should be closed and lots made subject to private sale at the appraised prices.

If any person who has made partial payment on the lot purchased by him fails to make any succeeding payment required under the regulations, the money deposited will be forfeited, and the sale price will thereafter be considered the appraised price of the lot.

Persons are warned against forming any combination or agreement which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously or which will in any way hinder or embarrass the sale.

Anyone convicted of such offense will be prosecuted under the criminal code of the United States, according to Hayden.

Land to be offered at the public auction, size of the tracts and appraised valuation have been listed by the federal government as follows:

News About Personalities and Events

The first aid classes that have been organized under the leadership of Lee Ackerman, Hollie Taylor and Carl Cook are scheduled to start Wednesday evening, September 29. Classes will be held at the city hall. Starting hour is set at 7:30.

The volunteer teachers assigned to this class are all members of the Klamath Falls police force. In order to make them available to the class, it was necessary to carry on the activities of the class, which are otherwise juggle members of the department about. He is glad to do this, however, because of the importance of the course.

Woodworking classes for men were to begin Monday night at the Fremont school. These classes are under the supervision of Kelly Robinson, assisted by Al Harris. Due to the large enrollment, another assistant may be necessary to carry on the activities of the class. Women's shop classes will begin Tuesday evening. The hour for both groups is 7 p. m.

We sat in on a very interesting meeting a few evenings ago. It was held in the office of Henry Perkins and representatives of most of the civic and fraternal clubs were present. Ostensibly the meeting was called to devise ways and means of publicizing the opening of football season, but finally it resolved itself into a plan for a permanent organization for the promotion of the game from here on out. Its chief interest will be the grade school teams.

This organization is an outgrowth of the old Citizens Athletic committee, which did so much to promote football for younger boys. This committee was organized over three years ago, and the work it started at that time has been carried on until this time. Impetus was given the idea when it was learned that Coach Gustafson was heartily in accord with the program and would assist in carrying it forward. More and more will be heard of these kid football teams in the future.

A 10,000-Mile 'Proxy Bride'

A 'proxy' ceremony was selected by Joan A. Kingma, above, 24-year-old Grand Rapids, Mich., piano teacher, for her marriage to Herman A. Voogel, Dutch ship's officer at Batavia, Java, in the Dutch East Indies. While she sat at the head of the table, the bride's friends stood by to say 'I do' for Miss Kingma in a church ceremony will be held when she joins Voogel later.

Next Friday will see the first football game of the season so far as home games for KUHS is concerned. Dunsmyth will furnish the opposition. Much interest is being shown in this game as it will be the first under Coach Gustafson. It will give coach and fans alike a chance to see how the lads are absorbing the new system of play.

After all, three weeks—badly cut up with institutes and holidays—is a mighty short time for 60 or 70 kids to become very well grounded in a completely new football technique. Anything can happen, particularly when this Dunsmyth crowd is nobody's set-up. There may be a few fumbles and a few 'boners,' but even at that we'll bet you never will see a better school spirit.

OUR HOME TOWN

HOSPITALS

By EARL WHITLOCK

What brought this subject to mind was reading in this morning's paper, of a man back East who, without living relatives, willed his small estate to establish a bed in his local hospital. And of all fine purposes for a bequest, here is the one which will probably do humanity the most good.

Pain, sickness and death are mankind's direct enemies. And in the hospital we have an institution dedicated to fighting all of them. When we are well, the hospital is just a building, smelling cleanly of disinfectant, where we go to visit less fortunate friends and take them flowery tributes. But when we are sick, that building becomes to us a haven of scientific efficiency, where quiet-footed, soft-handed nurses are there to ease our pain, where every device known to medicine is placed at our disposal, where capable physicians minister to us, where peace and orderliness and system replace the noise and confusion and turbulence of the world without.

Every hospital is constantly striving to broaden its sphere of action so that it may render more and more service for the less and less money to the public. Every hospital does enormous amounts of charity work. And every hospital that I know of operates under a considerable annual deficit.

Yet, in spite of these handicaps, your hospital bill probably represents a greater service rendered for the money charged than any other bill you pay.

Next Monday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on "May I Fill the Tank?"

BONANZA FFA BOYS ATTEND CONCLAVE

Plans are well under way for the sending of two Bonanza FFA boys to the tenth annual Future Farmer convention to be held in Kansas City, Mo., next month.

Alden Bruner and Howard McLane, outstanding agriculture students, have been selected to act as Bonanza's representatives at the three-day convention. There will be 30 boys attending from Oregon, along with over 19,000 other Future Farmers from over the United States.

The Oregon delegates will leave from Portland October 15 and go to Kansas City by way of Salt Lake. On the return trip they will go through Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California.

The Bonanza chapter is putting on a dance Friday, September 24, to help raise funds. The Oregon Hill Billies are providing the music. Each of the boys going back will furnish some of the money. The rest will be raised by donation from Bonanza and Klamath Falls business firms who are interested in promoting the activities of the chapter.

Donations received to date are: Safeway Stores $5, Bonanza Grange $5, William Holloway $5, U. S. National bank $5, Bonanza Service Station $2.50, Bonanza Drugstore $1.50, Bill's place $2, Ed Gown $2.50, Mitchell, Lewis and Staver company $5, Webb Kennett Clothing store $2.50, Swan Lake moulding company $2.50, Jim Kerns $5, KPCA Board of Directors $5.

GRAND EXALTED RULER OF ELKS HERE BRIEFLY

Charles Spencer-Hart, grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, passed through Klamath Falls on the Sunday evening train.

He stepped off the train while it was stopped here and was greeted by a large crowd from the local lodge. Hart stated he plans to return later to pay a personal visit to the Klamath Falls lodge.

The grand exalted ruler, en route to California, was accompanied by Dick Flood, his personal secretary.

nesday, September 15, in the teachers' room at the school. Mrs. Virgil C. Rexford, president, presided.

The first child study group met in the fine new PTA room at 2:30 p. m. Dr. Neil Black was the speaker. He especially stressed the fact that during an epidemic the school child is safer in school under close supervision of the teachers and school nurses than to take him out of school.

Refreshments were served by Miss Wright's room. There was a large attendance and more hoped for the next time.

FREMONT

Officers of Fremont PTA met at Fremont school Monday, September 13, at 4 o'clock. Plans for the coming year were formulated and chairmen of standing committees were appointed.

The first regular meeting of the year will be held in the auditorium of Fremont school, Tuesday, September 22, at 3 p. m. All parents are cordially invited to attend. Tea will be served by the officers.

ALAMONT

Altamont PTA will meet Tuesday, September 21, in the school gymnasium.

Dr. Neil Black will be the speaker of the day, and all parents of the community are urged to be present. Important business will be transacted at the meeting.

SUMMERS

The Summers PTA will hold its first meeting Wednesday, September 22, at 2:30 p. m. Election of new officers will be held, and they will be installed at the same meeting.

Those in charge of installation of new officers are Mrs. R. W. Baker, Mrs. G. Pinnell and Mrs. M. Taylor. All members and friends are urged to attend.

PELLICAN

Pelican PTA met Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the school auditorium.

Mrs. E. Childester, president, presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Wisenback was in charge of an interesting program.

Teachers of the school were introduced by Lowell Kaup, principal, and all were presented with corsages and bouquets.

A talk on the pre-school study group, which has been installed at Pelican school, was presented by Mrs. Collins.

The Riverside P. T. A. will hold its first meeting at the schoolhouse Tuesday, September 21, at 3 p. m. The year's program will be planned, new members and teachers will be introduced.

Mrs. Macartney will give a 10-minute talk on the recreation accomplishments for the summer and there will be a 15-minute panel discussion of the value of PTA, led by Mrs. Robert Ross. Tea will be served after the program. Friends and members are cordially invited.

MORE THAN 400 INSPECT HOUSE

More than 400 visitors inspected the Demonstration home at Garden and Mitchell streets Sunday afternoon.

It was an auspicious opening for the inspection period. The general public is invited to visit the house in the afternoons.

Officials of the Build Klamath movement expressed themselves as highly pleased at the public response to their invitation to inspect this modern dwelling.

Visitors were greeted by Hostess Irene Hoff.

NATION'S "STAR NOMADS" PASS THROUGH CITY

Rated as the "nation's star nomads," Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Vale and four children came into Klamath Falls Sunday over The Dalles-California highway from Redmond and Bend.

They are traveling in the "world's largest and best equipped trailer" and are on their way to the south to spend the winter. They may go to Texas or Florida.

The trailer, booked behind a large car, measures 40 feet from headlights to taillight and has been tested at a speed of 37 miles an hour. The Vales crossed the McKenna pass from Eugene and experienced no difficulty. Vale stated he has taken the trailer over nearly every pass of importance in the United States.

Vale is intensely interested in the Willamette pass and wants to be the first man to take a trailer through the Salt creek tunnel. He has a long list of "frats" to his credit. He took the first trailer across the Golden Gate bridge when it was opened last spring.

Two of the Vales' four children were born in the trailer. The children are approaching school age and Vale is beginning to be concerned over their education. He thinks that possibly trailer schools may be developed.
