News Notes and Comment

By HEINZ DIETSCHER

IT wasn't the rain or the fog that prevented the pep assembly, adorned in class uniforms, from attending the Klamath Wildcat vs. Modoc football game on Monday, Friday. A few minutes before the end of school a whistle called the contest to a close thus limiting the Klamath audience to a few sea gulls.

Several of the service organizations of KHS, including the Peppers and the "Krazer" sent telegrams to our town. The Dalles, wishing it luck.

"How to Prevent Cold" the subject dealt with on the Wright at a Boys' Alliance. Stated that colds are caused by bacteria and that there are three ways to keep off colds: first, stay away from a person who has one, second, stay away from a person who has one, third, stay away from a person who has one.

Stanley Woodruff, dear boys, gave a brief talk on the subject of colds and flu. Woodruff predicted that 30 years hence, the students will be instructed how to chew safely, but until then it will be taboo in "Ye High School Dora."

This little column wishes to extend its apologies to those who were offended by the remarks made on the remarks by the fairer sex, it seems the commentator will hardly be when he returns to school day. Now girls, don't get wrong. Of course the boys mind if you make yourselves beautiful as possible.
